The Introspective Realist Crime Film Luis M. García-Mainar, 2016-06-10 This book explores the formal and thematic conventions of crime film the contexts in which these have flourished and their links with the social issues of a globalized world The crime film has traditionally been identified with suspense a heterogeneous aesthetic and a tacit social mind However a good number of the crime films produced since the early 2000s have shifted their focus from action or suspense and towards melodrama in narratives that highlight the social dimension of crime intensify their realist aesthetics and dwell on subjectivity With the 1940s wave of Hollywood semi documentary crime films and 1970s generic revisionism as antecedents these crime films find inspiration in Hollywood cinema and constitute a transnational trend With a close look at Steven Soderbergh s Traffic 2000 David Fincher s Zodiac 2007 Jacques Audiard s Un prophète 2009 and Tomas Alfredson s Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy 2011 this book sets out the stylistic and thematic conventions contexts and cultural significance of a new transnational trend in crime film order to study how they helped articulate specific national challenges from the conflict between liberalism and tradition in the first decades of the 20th century to the management of the contemporary financial crisis This collection provides the first comprehensive picture of the complex national and supranational forces that have shaped Spanish films revealing the tensions and the intricate dialogue between cross cultural aesthetic and narrative models on the one hand and indigenous traditions on the other as well as the political and historical contingencies these different expressions responded to
