El Zamorano Meeting The Challenge Of Tropical America:

El Zamorano Simón E. Malo,1999 The Man Who Saved Sea Turtles Frederick Davis,2007-07-02 Archie Carr one of the greatest biologists of the twentieth century played a leading part in finding a new and critical role for natural history and systematics in a post 1950s world dominated by the glamorous science of molecular biology With the rise of molecular biology came a growing popular awareness of species extinction Carr championed endangered sea turtles and his work reflects major shifts in the study of ecology and evolution A gifted nature writer his books on the natural history of sea turtles and their habitats in Florida the Caribbean and Africa entertained and educated a wide audience Carr s conservation ethic grew from his field work as well as his friendships with the fishermen who supplied him with many of the stories he retold so engagingly With Archie Carr as the focus The Man Who Saved Sea Turtles explores the evolution of the naturalist tradition biology and conservation during the twentieth century The Fish That Ate the Whale Rich Cohen,2012-06-05 Named a Best Book of the Year by the San Francisco Chronicle and The Times Picayune The fascinating untold tale of Samuel Zemurray the self made banana mogul who went from penniless roadside banana peddler to kingmaker and capitalist revolutionary When Samuel Zemurray arrived in America in 1891 he was tall gangly and penniless When he died in the grandest house in New Orleans sixty nine years later he was among the richest most powerful men in the world Working his way up from a roadside fruit peddler to conquering the United Fruit Company Zemurray became a symbol of the best and worst of the United States proof that America is the land of opportunity but also a classic example of the corporate pirate who treats foreign nations as the backdrop for his adventures Zemurray lived one of the great untold stories of the last hundred years Starting with nothing but a cart of freckled bananas he built a sprawling empire of banana cowboys mercenary soldiers Honduran peasants CIA agents and American statesmen From hustling on the docks of New Orleans to overthrowing Central American governments and precipitating the bloody thirty six year Guatemalan civil war the Banana Man lived a monumental and sometimes dastardly life Rich Cohen s brilliant historical profile The Fish That Ate the Whale unveils Zemurray as a hidden power broker driven by an indomitable will to succeed The Banana Empire Dr. Richard Edgar Zwez,2020-01-03 The author s family life as a youth in Honduras where his father worked for the United Fruit Company Many Floridas Rhonda L. S. Ovist,Chemba Raghavan,2009-05-05 Many Floridas Women Envisioning Change began with a group feminist researchers teachers advocates and activists in Florida long isolated and marginalized in small under funded and under valued departments programs and organizations who worked together to form the Florida Consortium for Women s and Gender Studies FCWGS The essays in this collection report on the status of women in Florida discuss service learning as a feminist pedagogy describe graduate student s research on issues concerning women in Florida and debate the value and consequences of internationalizing Women s Studies This collection of feminist papers originally presented at the inaugural Florida Consortium for Women s and Gender Studies conference in April 2006 reflects the deeper meaning of its title Each of the authors write from the standpoint of various intersections of class race ethnicity age sexuality and profession and it is from these unique social locations that they dare to envision change Everyone talks about bridging the gap between theory and practice but the Florida Consortium for Women s and Gender Studies FCWGS is actually walking the talk Their work represents an exportable product I immediately envisioned feminist academics in every state developing similar consortia to bring the concerns of everyday women into the heart of the academy Women s and Gender Studies Departments Programs represent the gold standard for interdisciplinary and culturally diverse studies Yet despite the fact that virtually every university and college stresses the value of interdisciplinary studies and a culturally diverse curriculum all too few academic institutions adequately fund and support their Women s and Gender Studies Departments Programs Were Women s and Gender Studies Departments Programs amply staffed and financially supported their faculty members and students could engage in the kind of meaningful service learning initiatives and outreach activities described in Many Floridas Rosemarie Tong Ph D Distinguished Professor for Health Care Ethics Affiliate Professor of Women s Studies Director Center for Professional and Applied Ethics This new collection responds to that clarion call by addressing the local and the global by interrupting and inserting unique voices within and outside of the classroom making meaningful and durable connections between the educational institution and the community In this cultural moment where the struggles between and among communities resources and institutions multiply it is vital that we push for nuanced conversations courageous inquiry and responsible suggestions This collection is an exemplary model of transformative conversations the kind of conversations that I hope are manifesting locally and globally Orathai Northern PhD Visiting Instructor University of South Florida Lakeland

A Feast of Flowers Christopher Krupa, 2022-04-05 When Ecuador s cut flower industry took off in the mid 1980s it rode a wave of international credit peddling and currency speculation that would lead countries of the Global South into successive debt crises and northern financial firms to fortune and dominion By the start of the twenty first century as the Ecuadorian economy collapsed and its ties with international finance became strained flower exporters rebuilt their businesses around the profitability of their indigenous labor force drawing local communities deeply into new plantation systems taking over the highlands In A Feast of Flowers Christopher Krupa goes inside Ecuador s booming cut flower industry to chronicle the ways its capitalist pioneers built a booming export industry around a racial ideology turning indigenous people s purported differences into resources for industrial expansion At the core of this racial system is a belief central to postcolonial science and politics in Ecuador in capitalism s unique capacity to change people s racial identity and to liberate oppressed populations from racial subordination Krupa shows how such views not only guide how indigenous people are today incorporated into demanding labor systems in Ecuador s new export plantations but also how indigenous minds and bodies became sites of study and intervention by scientists politicians and economic planners throughout the last century all looking to change indigenous people in some way Combining nearly two decades of ethnographic and historical research A Feast of Flowers shows how aggressive capitalist expansion in postcolonial contexts may revive longstanding intersections between race and economy to facilitate new modes of dispossession under the guise of humanitarian intervention
