Electronic Culture Technology And Visual Representation:

Electronic Culture Timothy Druckrey, 1996 A wide ranging critical anthology examining the impact of technology on our perceptions of the world ourselves Theatre and Performance in Digital Culture Matthew Causey, 2007-01-24 Theatre and Performance in Digital Culture examines the recent history of advanced technologies including new media virtual environments weapons systems and medical innovation and considers how theatre performance and culture at large have evolved within those systems The book examines the two Iraq wars 9 11 and the War on Terror through the lens of performance studies and drawing on the writings of Giorgio Agamben Alain Badiou and Martin Heidegger alongside the dramas of Beckett Genet and Shakespeare and the theatre of the Kantor Foreman Soc etas Raffaello Sanzio and the Wooster Group the book positions theatre and performance in technoculture and articulates the processes of aesthetics metaphysics and politics This wide ranging study reflects on how the theatre and performance have been challenged and extended within these new cultural phenomena The Cambridge Companion to Music in Digital Culture Nicholas Cook, Monique M. Ingalls, David Trippett, 2019-09-19 Digital technology has profoundly transformed almost all aspects of musical culture This book explains how and why Museums in a Digital Age Ross Parry, 2013-01-11 The influence of digital media on the cultural heritage sector has been pervasive and profound Today museums are reliant on new technology to manage their collections They collect digital as well as material things New media is embedded within their exhibition spaces And their activity online is as important as their physical presence on site However digital heritage as an area of practice and as a subject of study does not exist in one single place Its evidence base is complex diverse and distributed and its content is available through multiple channels on varied media in myriad locations and different genres of writing It is this diaspora of material and practice that this Reader is intended to address With over forty chapters by some fifty authors and co authors from around the world spanning over twenty years of museum practice and research this volume acts as an aggregator drawing selectively from a notoriously distributed network of content Divided into seven parts on information space access interpretation objects production and futures the book presents a series of cross sections through the body of digital heritage literature each revealing how a different aspect of curatorship and museum provision has been informed shaped or challenged by computing Museums in a Digital Age is a provocative and inspiring guide for any student or practitioner of digital heritage Digital Architecture and Construction A. Ali, C. A. Brebbia, 2006 Digital Architecture is a particularly dynamic field that is developing through the work of architecture schools architects software developers researchers technology users and society alike Featuring papers from the First International Conference on Digital Architecture this book will be of interest to professional and academic architects involved in the creation of new architectural forms as well as those colleagues working in the development of new computer codes of engineers including those working in structural environmental aerodynamic fields and others actively supporting advances in digital architecture Expert contributions

Between Film, Video, and the Digital Jihoon Kim, 2016-07-14 Encompassing experimental film and video essay film gallery based installation art and digital art Jihoon Kim establishes the concept of hybrid moving images as an array of impure images shaped by the encounters and negotiations between different media while also using it to explore various theoretical issues such as stillness and movement indexicality abstraction materiality afterlives of the celluloid cinema archive memory apparatus and the concept of medium as such Grounding its study in interdisciplinary framework of film studies media studies and contemporary art criticism Between Film Video and the Digital offers a fresh insight on the post media conditions of film and video under the pervasive influences of digital technologies as well as on the crucial roles of media hybridity in the creative processes of giving birth to the emerging forms of the moving image Incorporating in depth readings of recent works by more than thirty artists and filmmakers including Jim Campbell Bill Viola Sam Taylor Johnson David Claerbout Fiona Tan Takeshi Murata Jennifer West Ken Jacobs Christoph Girardet and Matthias Müller Hito Steyerl Lynne Sachs Harun Farocki Doug Aitken Douglas Gordon Stan Douglas Candice Breitz among others the book is the essential scholarly monograph for understanding how digital technologies simultaneously depend on and differ from previous time based media and how this juncture of similarities and differences signals a new regime of the art of the moving image

The Feminism and Visual Culture Reader Amelia

Jones,2003 Challenging the notion of feminism as a unified discourse this book assembles writings that address art film architecture popular culture new media and other visual fields from a feminist perspective The book combines classic texts with six newly commissioned pieces Articles are grouped into thematic sections each introduced by the editor Providing a framework within which to understand the shifts in feminist thinking in visual studies as well as an overview of major feminist theories of the visual this reader also explores how issues of race class nationality and sexuality enter into debates about feminism in the field of the visual book cover

Cyberpop Sidney Eve Matrix,2013-05-13 Cyberpop is an analysis of cyberculture and its popular cultural productions The study begins with a Foucaultian model of cyberculture as a discursive formation and explains how some key concepts such as virtuality speed and Connectivity operate as a conceptual architecture network linking technologies to information and individual subjects The chapters then each focus on a particular cyberfiguration including Hollywood films GATTACA The Matrix popular literature William Gibson's Neuromancer Scott Westerfeld's Polymorph advertising for digital products and services Apple Computer's 1984 McIntosh campaign AT&T's mLife campaign digital artworks including virtual females such as Motorola's Mya and Elite Modeling Agency's Webbie Tookay and work by visual artist Daniel Lee for Microsoft's Evolution campaign and video games TombRaider Each close reading illustrates the ways in which representations of digital lifestyles and identities which typically fetishize computers and celebrate a high tech aesthetic encourage participation in digital capitalism and commodity cyberculture Matrix argues that popular representations of cyberculture often function as forms of social criticism that creatively inspire audiences to think different in the words of Mac advertising about the consequences of the digitalization of everyday life

The Nineteenth-Century Press in the Digital Age J. Mussell,2012-02-07 James Mussell provides an accessible account of the digitization of nineteenth century newspapers and periodicals As studying this material is essential to understand the period he argues that we have no choice but to engage with the new digital resources that have transformed how we access the print archive

Rethinking Global Security Andrew Martin,Patrice Petro,2006 In Rethinking Global Security Andrew Martin and Patrice Petro bring together ten path breaking essays that explore the ways that our notions of fear insecurity and danger are fostered by intermediary sources such as television radio film satellite imaging and the Internet The contributors who represent a wide variety of disciplines including communications art history media studies women s studies and literature show how both fictional and fact based threats to global security have helped to create and sustain a culture that is deeply distrustful of images stories reports and policy decisions Topics range from the Patriot Act to the censorship of media personalities such as Howard Stern to the role that Buffy the Vampire Slayer and other television programming play as an interpretative frame for current events

Cinematic Chronotopes Pepita Hesselberth,2014-06-19 The site of cinema is on the move The extent to which technologically mediated sounds and images continue to be experienced as cinematic today is largely dependent on the intensified sense of being here now and me that they convey This intensification is fundamentally rooted in the cinematic s potential to intensify our experience of time to convey time s thickening of which the sense of place and a sense of self presence are the correlatives In this study Pepita Hesselberth traces this thickening of time across four different spatio temporal configurations of the cinematic a multi media exhibition featuring the work of Andy Warhol 1928 1987 the handheld aesthetics of European art house films a large scale media installation by Rafael Lozano Hemmer and the usage of the trope of the flash forward in mainstream Hollywood cinema Only by juxtaposing these cases by looking at what they have in common this study argues can we grasp the complexity of the changes that the cinematic is currently undergoing

Photography, Temporality, and Modernity Kris Belden-Adams,2019-01-14 This book examines the photography s unique capacity to represent time with a degree of elasticity and abstraction Part object study part cultural philosophical history it examines the medium s ability to capture and sometimes defy time while also traveling as objects across time and space nexuses The book features studies of understudied widespread practices studio portraiture motion studies panoramas racing photo finishes composite college class pictures planetary photography digital montages and extended exposure images A closer look at these images and their unique cultural historical contexts reveals photography to be a unique medium for expressing changing perceptions of time and the anxiety its passage provokes
