Metropolitan Museum of Art website     American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925. The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium. Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists. By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium. This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium. The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations. The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor's central place in American art and culture     Ed. Manet, Watercolors and Pastels Édouard Manet, 1959     Irish Arts Review, 1985     Catalog of Adult Books in the Los Angeles County Public Library Los Angeles County Public Library, 1959     The Private Collection of Edgar Degas Julie A. Steiner, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1997 The art collection assembled by Edgar Degas was remarkable not only for its quality size and depth but also for its revelation of Degas's artistic affinities. He acquired great numbers of works by the nineteenth century French masters Ingres Delacroix and Daumier he bought or bartered his own pictures for art by many of his contemporaries particularly Manet Cezanne Gauguin and Cassatt and he acquired works by a wide range of other artists from eminent to little known. The extent of Degas's holdings was not recognized until after his death when the collection came up for auction in Paris in 1918 and in what was called the sale of the century was widely dispersed. Extensive research has made it possible to reassemble that collection in book form. This summary catalogue contains information on the more than five thousand works owned by Degas. For each work catalogued the entry includes to the extent possible a description with medium and dimensions provenance information about Degas's acquisition and ownership of the work information pertaining to the sale of the work in 1918 or its disposal earlier including the purchaser purchase price and other data the current location selected references and an illustration. In a concordance collection sale lot numbers are listed with their corresponding summary catalogue numbers. This catalogue and its companion volume of essays are published in conjunction with the exhibition The Private Collection of Edgar Degas held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from October 1 1997 to January 11 1998.
