Educating For Health School And Community Approaches With Adolescents:

Educating for Health Leo B. Hendry, Janet Shucksmith, Kate Philip, 1995 The authors of this timely book stress the importance of health education while acknowledging that it must compete with other pressures on school and community work Unique research in adolescent health is reviewed and set within frameworks Handbook of Pediatric Psychology in School Settings Ronald T. Brown, 2003-09-12 In recent years the escalating costs of health care have caused managed care programs to shift the delivery of pediatric psychological services away from specialized medical centers and into primary care and school settings One result has been a radical expansion of school psychology into issues of clinical intervention health promotion and the assessment of psychotropic medications School psychologists are now expected to either deliver or more likely to provide consultation regarding a wide variety of pediatric psychological services Because this is a recent phenomenon very few school based psychologists or allied health practitioners school counselors and social workers have received training in pediatric psychology The mission of this book is to provide them with a comprehensive and authoritative guide to their newly acquired responsibilities in such areas as psychotherapy psychopharmacology health promotion and prevention of disease This book is appropriate for anyone concerned with issues of pediatric psychology in school settings school psychologists pediatric psychologists clinical child psychologists as well as pediatricians and child psychiatrists Social Inclusion for Young People Helen Colley, European Youth Research Partnership, 2007-01-01 Social exclusion the polarisation of the types of chances life offers to different groups of young people is increasing and is concentrated in some regions and neighbourhoods Social class race and gender can contribute to this phenomenon as can other inequalities such as disability Social inclusion is therefore one of the central goals of European policies towards young people especially in relation to employment lifelong learning and vocational guidance This publication contains an edited collection of articles from a research seminar held in Budapest in October November 2005 and organised within the framework of the Partnership on Youth between the Council of Europe and the European Commission Schools and Society: A Sociological Approach to Education Jeanne H. Ballantine, Joan Z. Spade, 2014-02-21 Undergraduate students of the sociology of education education and society and education studies Promoting Adolescent Health Thomas J. Coates, Anne C. Petersen, Cheryl Perry, 2013-10-22 Promoting Adolescent Health A Dialog on Research and Practice is a collection of essays that discusses the insights provided by professionals into the problems of encouraging adolescent health The book presents the open dialog between the views of pediatrics cardiologists psychologists health educators sociologists and nutrition scientists The text gives discussions from a variety of perspectives on each of six problem areas smoking drugs and alcohol sexuality coronary risk factors health risk eating behaviors and chronic disease It also discusses the factors influential in smoking onset and describes the examination of health education and health promotion adolescent medicine developmental psychology education and research methodology The book will provide valuable insights for anthropologists
