

DECISION-MAKING SKILLS

DEFINITION

Decision-making is the process of selecting a course of action among several available options. It involves evaluating and analyzing the benefits and risks of each choice. This cognitive process is vital for problem-solving, planning, and achieving desired outcomes. Effective decision-making often requires gathering information and assessing potential impacts.

EXAMPLES

- Critical Thinking: This aids decision-making by allowing you to analyze, evaluate, and interpret information objectively, leading to more informed choices.
- Cost-Benefit Analysis: This assists in decision-making by quantifying and comparing the anticipated costs and benefits of an action.

Education A Time For Decisions:

The Role of Leaders in Educational Decision-Making Nancy H. Matthews, 2023-07-21 This book presents insights into the experiences and perspectives of educators in formal positions of leadership involved in decision making processes in an education system Drawing on qualitative research conducted in the New Brunswick education system the author identifies factors in the decision making process which influence whether or not a decision is implemented Probing what is required for effective decision making defined as decision making that results in implementation the book examines not only the role of formal educational leaders of schools administrators but also the roles played by district and department of education formal leaders It uses five central themes that surfaced from research to develop a novel leadership model for ensuring implantation of decisions These include knowledge and skill collaboration and communication balance of autonomy accountability and direction political and bureaucratic considerations and strong moral imperative The newfound model is presented in the form of antecedent steps to the decision making process Extending the literature by offering new empirically grounded insights for influencing the likelihood of implementation following a decision making process it will appeal to leaders scholars and students of educational leadership and reform Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 1992-12 Entrustable Professional Activities and Entrustment Decision-Making in Health Professions Education Olle ten Cate, Vanessa C. Burch, H. Carrie Chen, Fremien Chihchen Chou, Marije P. Hennis, 2024-10-29 This book discusses the ins and outs of a new approach to competency based education in the education and training of health professionals including doctors and medical specialists but also nurses dentists pharmacists veterinarians physiotherapists and others Embedded in a conceptual discussion of what competence in health professionals means the book discusses theoretical foundations of trust and entrustment of trainees with the practice of patient care tasks It elaborates the implications for identifying the objectives of training formulated as entrustable professional activities EPAs for the associated curriculum development for assessment of trainees in the clinical workplace for faculty development and for the management of large scale change in health professions education In the past decade EPAs have been proposed piloted or implemented in all sectors of health professions education and in countries across all continents Yet there is a widely felt desire for a better understanding of all related concepts This text was written with teachers educational managers educational scholars and health profession trainees in mind The book is the result of a collaboration of fifty highly engaged authors all actively involved in their own projects and studies around EPAs and workplace based assessment as teachers developers and managers All chapters have been critically read and commented on by internal and external reviewers making this work a state of the art document about the topic Fundamentals and Frontiers of Medical Education and Decision-Making Jordan Richard Scheonherr, Meghan McConnell, 2024-07-22 Fundamentals and Frontiers of Medical Education and Decision Making brings together international experts to consider the theoretical practical and sociocultural foundations of health professions education In this volume the authors review the foundational theories that have informed the early transition to competency based education Moving beyond these monolithic models the authors draw from learning and psychological sciences to provide a means to operationalize competencies The chapters cover fundamental topics including the transition from novices to experts the development of psychomotor skills in surgery the role of emotion and metacognition in decision making and how practitioners and laypeople represent and communicate health information Each section provides chapters that integrate and advance our understanding of health professions education and decision making Grounded in psychological science this book highlights the fundamental issues faced by healthcare professionals and the frontiers of learning and decision making It is important reading for a wide audience of healthcare professionals healthcare administrators as well as researchers in judgment and decision making

Higher Education, Place, and Career

Development Rosie Alexander,2024-11-21 Drawing connections between the findings of a research project following young graduates from the Scottish islands of Orkney and Shetland current international evidence and theoretical literature this book argues that understanding rural and island student transitions can expose the wider dynamics of place and mobility at play during student and early career experiences Highlighting the importance of a career perspective Rosie Alexander encourages readers to consider how career pathways develop across time and across transition points unsettling the notion of a straightforward transition through university into the workplace The book uncovers how student trajectories are developed through interweaving dynamics of relationships place and career routes and unpacks the implications for policymakers and practitioners It contends that a much greater spatial awareness is necessary to understand and support the educational and career pathways of higher education students This is a crucial read for higher education researchers policymakers and students interested in rurality as well as access to and transition from higher education

Educational Research and Innovation Promoting Education Decision Makers' Use of Evidence in Flanders Shewbridge Claire,Köster Florian,2021-11-22 The introduction of standardised tests in Flemish schools aims to generate regular reliable data for educators and policy makers At an early stage of development this report uses a research based framework to engage stakeholders in thinking about the opportunities standardised tests could bring for their work

Sahaye, Jeet N.D. Gupta, Surinder Batra, Sanjay Kumar, Sushil Kumar, 2008-11-05 It is not uncommon to find books and other publications in the literature dealing individually with the subjects of decision sciences technology and globalisation However there are very few instances of books which integrate these three dimensions in an umbrella framework This publication is one such attempt This book comprises of 58 papers contributed by leading academia from universities and management institutes in India and abroad Many of the contributions have come from USA Canada UK Japan Australia New Zealand UAE Bahrain Taiwan Brazil and Mexico adding to the rich diversity of the thought processes explored in the papers Some of these papers are country specific while some others provide a transnational perspective Also while some papers provide enriched conceptual frameworks in specific disciplines building upon existing frameworks several other papers provide application oriented coverage focused at select organizations or industries further adding unique value to this book There are eight sections in the book namely Supply Chain Management Operations Management Information Systems ICT IT E Business Strategies Business Modeling Global Business Issues Challenges Marketing and Globalisation New Paradigms in Education and Globalisation The issues touched upon by various papers within each section are diverse and yet highly relevant and contemporary We believe this book would be useful not only to academia research scholars and students of various disciplines of management but also to those in the industry in India and abroad who are seeking conceptual inputs and experience sharing in their respective positions

Neoliberal Education Reform Sarah A. Robert, 2015-08-11 The restructuring of teaching is a global issue the result of a transnational movement of policy Gender shapes the occupational reform and binds the global to the local movement of reform ideas Gender is also implicated in how policy is done and how it leads to particular outcomes This volume examines the behind the scenes work done to make sense of reform and implement it during the workday and questions the new forms and controls over teaching reforms the labor process revealed to understand the implications of neoliberal education reform on teachers work Based on ethnographic research undertaken at public high schools in Argentina this volume introduces the everyday work lives of teachers It includes interviews and observations revealing what it means to be a teacher in the reform context and explores the ways masculinities and femininities shape teachers decision making about reforms At a time when teachers are at the center of political controversy around the world this volume is an important reminder that school change is about changing the work of teachers
