Education In The Development Of Tanzania 1919 90:

Education in the Development of Tanzania, 1919-90 Lene Buchert, 1994 Education has always had a very special role in the social and political history of Tanzania After independence President Nyerere and his government set out to educate the mass of the population through the intensive programme of Education for Self Reliance It was a key example of the efforts to use education as a weapon of social engineering This book puts that programme in the context of the history of education during the British Mandate from 1919 until independence in 1961 There were some aspects of continuity before and after independence Lene Buchert s analysis focuses on the discrepancies between formulated and implemented policies She has examined the performance of the national educational system and selected educational institutions and programmes Another important aspect comes from the investigation of the interaction between in school educational and out of school non educational factors The book provides valuable material for interdisciplinary social science courses innovative courses on historical methodology or general courses in African history or comparative education

Education, Indigenous Knowledges, and Development in the Global South Anders Breidlid, 2013-02-11 The book s focus is the hegemonic role of so called modernist Western epistemology that spread in the wake of colonialism and the capitalist economic system and its exclusion and othering of other epistemologies Through a series of case studies the book discusses how the domination of Western epistemology has had a major impact on the epistemological foundation of the education systems across the globe The book queries the sustainability of hegemonic epistemology both in the classrooms in the global South as well as in the face of the imminent ecological challenges of our common earth and discusses whether indigenous knowledge systems would better serve the pupils in the global South and help promote sustainable development

The Politics of Education in Developing Countries Samuel Hickey, Naomi Hossain, 2019 This book focuses on how politics shapes the capacity and commitment of elites to tackle the learning crisis in six developing countries It deploys a new conceptual framework to show how the type of political settlement shapes the level of elite commitment and state capacity to improving learning outcomes and Education in Africa George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2004 Using the Ghanaian schooling experience as a case study this book explores how research can contribute to the development of a body of knowledge for educational change in Africa Education in Africa is often said to be in a crisis caused in part by the colonial legacy but also due to inappropriate and uncontextualised current educational policies in relation to local human conditions and African realities This book offers a critical analysis of current educational reform strategies and the actual practice of reform in an African context Black Protest Thought and Education William Henry Watkins, 2005 The modern American corporate industrial state requires a massive ideological machine to establish social order create political consensus train obedient citizen workers and dispatch marginalized groups to their place Mass public education has helped to forge the modern political state that enforces social and racial inequality Disenchanted African Americans representing dissenting viewpoints have vigorously protested this educational system which is rooted in segregation differentiated funding falsehoods alienation and exclusion This important book belongs in classrooms devoted to achieving racial equality in public education Rethinking the Anthropology of Islam Katja Föllmer, Lisa Maria Franke, Ramzi Ben Amara, 2024-07-01 The contributions of this volume discuss the broad field of transformation processes in Muslim societies from different perspectives with various disciplinary approaches Apart from methodological questions the authors investigate religious and social developments in Africa and the Near and Middle East while focusing e g on the production of meaning negotiation of religious values and spaces gendered agency and debates of identity African Economic History, 1998 The Culture of Colonialism T. O. Beidelman, 2021-12-22 What did it mean to be an African subject living in remote areas of Tanganyika at the end of the colonial era For the Kaguru of Tanganyika it meant daily confrontation with the black and white governmental officials tasked with bringing this rural people into the mainstream of colonial African life T O Beidelman s detailed narrative links this administrative world to the Kaguru s wider social cultural and geographical milieu and to the political history ideas of indirect rule and the white institutions that loomed just beyond their world Beidelman unveils the colonial system s problems as it extended its authority into rural areas and shows how these problems persisted even after African independence The Journal of Developing Areas, 1995 International Handbook of Education and Development William K. Cummings, Noel F. McGinn, 1997 This handbook brings together in one volume an international panel of authors who tackle the topic of the dissatisfaction with education systems worldwide African Culture and Global Politics Toyin Falola, Danielle Sanchez, 2014-01-10 This volume attempts to insert itself within the larger discussion of Africa in the twenty first century especially within the realm of world politics Despite the underwhelming amount of attention given to Africa s role in international politics in popular news sources it is evident that Africa has a consistent record of participating in world politics one that pre dates colonization and continues today In continuance of this legacy of active participation in global political exchanges Africans today can be heard in dialogues that span the world and their roles are impossible to replace by other entities It is evident that a vastly different Africa exists than ones that bolster images of starvation corruption and compliance The essays in this volume center on Africa and Africans participating in international political discourses but with an emphasis on various forms of expression and philosophies as these factors heavily influence Africa's role as a participant in global politics The reader will find a variety of essays that permeate surface discussions of politics and political activism by inserting African culture rhetoric philosophies into the larger discussion of international politics and Africa's role in worldwide political social and economic debates Education as Politics Kelly M. Duke Bryant, 2015-05-19 Education as Politics argues that colonial schooling remade Senegalese politics during the transition to French rule creating political spaces that were at once African and colonial and ultimately leading to the historic 1914 election of a black African representative from Senegal to the French National Assembly Learning Morality, Inequalities, and Faith Hansjörg Dilger, 2021-12-16 Examines how learning and teaching morality in Tanzania's faith oriented schools is inextricably interwoven with the complex power relations of an interconnected world The Education Alibi Elizabeth Cooper, Erdmute Alber, Wandia Njoya, 2025-10-22 Education is generally promoted as the key to the future of Africa in global development discourses about the continent Education's official story in Africa continues to be one of innocence and public good yet since colonial times education has constituted an area of intense contestation The Education Alibi asks if it is possible that while claiming to be doing one thing education has also been doing another in African communities The concept of the alibi shines an interrogative light on institutions and actors use of education to divert scrutiny from other effects Through ethnographic research and critical analysis across the continent this volume focuses on people's lived experiences to demonstrate how contemporary education systems in fact deepen economic racialized gendered urban rural linguistic religious and other intranational and international inequalities Nomadic Peoples, 2007

Nkabinde, 1997-04 This book deals with current developments in black education in South Africa since the introduction of Bantu education in the beginning of the 1990s During the period under discussion improvements have been made in black education These improvements are partly due to the significant political changes currently taking place in South Africa that are supposed to mark the end of apartheid Despite these developments much remains to be done in order to remedy the effects of Bantu education In particular providing quality education in black schools will require innovative solutions Proper planning developing new teaching strategies establishing practical educational goals and identifying and using available resources must be controlled and harnessed to a new social order Collaboration and coordination of all professionals particularly blacks will be a necessity The process of change requires black participation in finding solutions to their educational problems this is one of the major challenges facing post apartheid South Africa It is evident that there are more challenges that the post apartheid era will present This book is aimed at providing tentative alternative solutions to black education Making Nations, Creating
