Conflict in Nagorno-Karabakh, Abkhazia and South Ossetia Tim Potier,2021-12-28 The conflicts in the South Caucasus are now a decade old but still appear impervious to solution The hopes that independence raised have been dashed by an insidious cocktail of past and present regional hegemony historical antipathy and Soviet planning Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia thus continue to wait for their long awaited Spring In a region where Western academic writing has focussed during the last decade almost exclusively on the dynamics of regional security and Great Power rivalry even in the context of conflict this volume provides an important and necessary legal appraisal of the possible processes and structures which may ultimately facilitate the finding of constitutional settlement in Nagorno Karabakh Abkhazia and South Ossetia In the work Tim Potier an academic lawyer with much experience in the Caucasus has written a powerful but dispassionate account which will prove not only to be of use to academics diplomats and government officials working in the region but also be of lasting value to the ongoing development of the international law on self determination and autonomy Dr Potier also considers the fate of what he prefers to term regionally non dominant titular peoples

Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rummyantsev,2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Making of Nagorno-Karabagh Levon Chorbajian, 2001-08-08 The first major territorial struggle in the late Soviet period involved Nagorno Karabagh an Armenian inhabited territory that had been assigned to the Azerbaijan Soviet Socialist Republic In the early 1920s Armenian protests calling for reunification with Armenia in 1988 led to Azerbaijani pogroms against Armenians and later to armed conflict that claimed over twenty thousand lives The struggle remains unresolved A distinguished group of historians and social scientists analyze the Karabagh struggle in this unique volume that covers one of the world's strategic oil rich regions

War and Children Kendra E. Dupuy, Krijn Peters, 2009-11-19 A comprehensive up to date presentation of how children and young people are affected by and respond to situations of armed conflict and postwar reconstruction examine the different ways armed conflict and postwar reconstructions affect children and young people and how they have responded to both war and efforts to alleviate war's destruction. While war has always affected children, the nature of that impact has changed in the last half century. Civil conflicts break out in mostly poor developing countries with large populations of young people and combatants are less hesitant to turn civilian areas into battlegrounds. War and Children explores these phenomena by focusing primarily on recent conflicts worldwide with case studies dramatizing important issues and controversies including the considerable number of children soldiers throughout the world.

The Nagorno-Karabakh deadlock Azer Babayev, Bruno Schoch, Hans-Joachim Spanger, 2019-05-02 The book examines all relevant models which have been employed in settling ethno territorial conflicts since the time of the League of Nations. Eight of these models have been studied in depth. The aim of this analysis is to gain expertise and insights that could prove relevant to resolving the conflict in Nagorno Karabakh. This potential is evaluated in the closing chapters of the volume where novel ideas on how to apply the lessons of these cases to the conflict in Nagorno Karabakh are presented. This conflict carries many features typical of ethno territorial conflicts in present and past times: it is neither unique nor does its settlement depend on others than the parties to the conflict. Rather, it is as in all other cases, entrenched historical narratives and enemy images which lead to zero sum calculations and can conceivably only be overcome in a gradual process.

Content: Part I Nagorno Karabakh and ethno territorial conflict settlement; Part II Case studies of ethno territorial conflict settlement: land, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, South Tyrol, Trieste, Cyprus, Northern Ireland, Quebec; Part III Results and conclusions: A way out for Nagorno Karabakh.

The Editors: Dr Azer Babayev is Assistant Professor of Political Science at ADA University, Baku; Dr Bruno Schoch is Associated Researcher at PRIF Peace Research Institute, Frankfurt/Main; Dr Hans Joachim Spanger is Head of the Dissemination Division at PRIF Peace Research Institute, Frankfurt/Main.

The Education Systems of Europe Wolfgang Hörner,Hans Döbert,Botho von Kopp,Wolfgang Mitter,2007-05-03 Education is a paradoxical phenomenon On the one hand it is universal as since the period of Enlightenment it has been declared universal good for everybody Moreover we learnt by historical research following the ideas of world system theory that since this time as far as its main structures are concerned compulsory state education given by professional teachers in classrooms it took even universal traits However on the other hand the fact that education became state education organised or at least controlled by the state was the beginning of another tradition line education in the form of state organised educational institutions became a means of creating national identity Universal inclusion as for the light of reason shining for everybody is opposed to more or less nationalist exclusion of all the others shaping the feature of a particular nation state with a particular educational system This fundamental dialectical tension between the universal and the particular was one to the important motives to make this handbook One of the central issues of the country studies is precisely to display the relationship between universal values and the search for national identity Another motive is given by the European dimension of the handbook
