Sager Eidt, 2008 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century

What is the Point of Being a Christian? Timothy Radcliffe,2013-01-17 WINNER OF THE MICHAEL RAMSEY PRIZE FOR THE BEST IN THEOLOGICAL WRITING Winner of the Michael Ramsey prize for the best in theological writing Cardinal Timothy Radcliffe is in demand the world over with Bishops priests lay people and above all young people This new book is his response What is the Point of being a Christian One is pointed to God who is the point of everything If one thinks of religion as just useful then one has reduced it to another consumer product But if we are pointed to God then this should make a difference to how we live This is not a moral superiority Christians are usually no better than anyone else But the lives of Christians should be marked by some form of hope freedom happiness and courage If they are not then why should anyone believe a word they say In this new book Cardinal Radcliffe is at his best writing with a prophetic edge His argument for Christian belief is profoundly Catholic and profoundly human But what is just as remarkable Radcliffe s argument for and interpretation of Christian Gospel is couched in a deep understanding of human nature and the problems and anxieties of modern men and women Radcliffe is far distant from the theologian s ivory tower and yet his understanding of the Gospel is profoundly theological The frame of reference for this book is wide and it is based amongst other things on Fr Radcliffe s pastoral experience of dealing with people with problematic marriages those struggling with celibacy those trying to understand the nature of religious authority and those trying to remain loyal to the Church which finds their sexual orientation irregular
