El Salvador Is My Home:

I Am Home Rachel Neumann, 2018-09-11 Meet the faces and voices behind the conversations around immigration These portraits and stories of teenagers who are recent immigrants to the US from all over the world show the diversity beauty and potential of the people who now call the United States home Sixty full page portraits of students at Oakland International High School photographed by award winning photographer Ericka McConnell are accompanied by their own unique diverse and surprising stories of what makes them feel at home Each of these young people is inspiring in their own right and together their stories will help us consider the issue of immigration with new mindfulness and compassion All profits from the publication of this book will be donated to Oakland International High School Missionary Families Find a Sense of Place and Identity John S. Benson, 2015-06-17 Missionary Families Find a Sense of Place and Identity is a community history of members of nineteen Lutheran missionary families who served in Tanzania Based on over ninety interviews and John Benson s extensive knowledge of cultural geography he compares the lives of the missionary generation who grew up in the United States and went to Tanzania as missionaries to those of their children who grew up in Africa but settled in the United States as adults Benson blends his personal experiences as a child of missionaries in Tanzania to tell the story of both generations Missionary Families is centered on the themes of connection to place and religious development and will appeal to scholars of geography cultural studies and religion Home Alison Blunt, Robyn Dowling, 2022-05-30 Home articulates a critical geography of home in which home is understood as an emotive place and spatial imaginary that encompasses lived experiences of everyday domestic life alongside a wider and often contested sense of being and belonging in the world Engaging with the burgeoning cross disciplinary interest in home since the first edition was published this significantly revised and updated second edition contains new research boxes illustrations and contemporary examples throughout It also adds a new chapter on Home and the City that extends the scalar understanding of home to the urban The book develops the conceptual and methodological underpinnings of a critical geography of home drawing on key feminist postcolonial and housing thinkers as well as contemporary methodological currents in non representational thinking and performance The book s chapters consider the making and unmaking of home across the domestic scale house as home the urban city as home national nation as home and homemaking in relation to transnational migration and diaspora Each chapter includes illustrative examples from diverse geographical contexts and historical time periods Chapters also address some of the key cross cutting dimensions of home across these scales including digital connectivity art and performance more than human constructions of home and violence and dispossession The book ends with a research agenda for home in a world of COVID 19 The book provides an understanding of home that has three intersecting dimensions that material and imaginative geographies of home are closely intertwined that home power and identity are intimately linked and that geographies of home are multi scalar This framework the examples used to illustrate it and the intended audience of academics and students across the humanities and social sciences will together shape the field of home studies into the future Lives in Transit Wendy A. Vogt, 2018-11-06 Lives in Transit chronicles the dangerous journeys of Central American migrants in transit through Mexico Drawing on fieldwork in humanitarian aid shelters and other key sites Wendy A Vogt examines the multiple forms of violence that migrants experience as their bodies labor and lives become implicated in global and local economies that profit from their mobility as racialized and gendered others She also reveals new forms of intimacy solidarity and activism that have emerged along transit routes over the past decade Through the stories of migrants shelter workers and local residents Vogt encourages us to reimagine transit as a site of both violence and precarity as well as social struggle and resistance

Neighbor Ben Daniel, 2010-08-16 Using a blend of travel narrative interviews theological insight and biblical scholarship Daniel tackles the controversial issues that surround undocumented migration in the United States by taking the reader to the spiritual legal and geographical front lines of the immigration debate Here the political becomes personal and talking points have a human face The result of this journey is a compelling argument that encourages Christians to meet undocumented migrants as neighbors and as friends Study questions are included

Covert Capital Andrew Friedman, 2013-08-03 The capital of the U S Empire after World War II was not a city It was an American suburb In this innovative and timely history Andrew Friedman chronicles how the CIA and other national security institutions created a U S imperial home front in the suburbs of Northern Virginia In this covert capital the suburban landscape provided a cover for the workings of U S imperial power which shaped domestic suburban life The Pentagon and the CIA built two of the largest office buildings in the country there during and after the war that anchored a new imperial culture and social world As the U S expanded its power abroad by developing roads embassies and villages its subjects also arrived in the covert capital as real estate agents homeowners builders and landscapers who constructed spaces and living monuments that both nurtured and critiqued postwar U S foreign policy Tracing the relationships among American agents and the migrants from Vietnam El Salvador Iran and elsewhere who settled in the southwestern suburbs of D C Friedman tells the story of a place that recasts ideas about U S immigration citizenship nationalism global interconnection and ethical responsibility from the post WW2 period to the present Opening a new window onto the intertwined history of the American suburbs and U S foreign policy Covert Capital will also give readers a broad interdisciplinary and often surprising understanding of how U S domestic and global histories intersect in many contexts and at many scales American Crossroads 37

Beyond Displacement Molly Todd, 2010-12-22 During the civil war that wracked El Salvador from the mid 1970s to the early 1990s the Salvadoran military tried to stamp out dissidence and insurgency through an aggressive campaign of crop burning kidnapping rape killing torture and gruesome bodily mutilations Even as human rights violations drew world attention repression and war displaced more than a quarter of El Salvador s population both inside the country and beyond its borders Beyond Displacement examines how the peasant campesinos of war torn northern El Salvador responded to violence by taking to the hills Molly Todd demonstrates that their flight was not hasty and chaotic but was a deliberate strategy that grew out of a longer history of collective organization mobilization and self defense

The SalviSoul Cookbook Karla Tatiana

Vasquez,2024-04-30 A beautifully photographed cookbook that celebrates the vibrant culture and community of El Salvador through 80 recipes and stories from twenty five Salvadoran women A heartfelt tribute to heritage a testament to the power of storytelling and an invitation to savor the true essence of El Salvador one delicious recipe at a time Hawa Hassan James Beard Award winning author of In Bibi s Kitchen ONE OF NPR S BEST COOKBOOKS OF THE YEAR In search of the recipes and traditions that made her feel at home food historian and Salvadoran Karla Tatiana Vasquez took to the internet to find the dishes her mom made throughout her childhood But when she couldn t find any she decided to take matters into her own hands What started as a desire to document recipes turned into sharing the joys histories and tribulations of the women in her life In this collection of eighty recipes Karla shares her conversations with moms aunts grandmothers and friends to preserve their histories so that they do not go unheard Here are recipes for Rellenos de Papa from Patricia who remembers the Los Angeles earthquakes of the 1980s for more reasons than just fear Flor de Izote con Huevos Revueltos a favorite of Karla s father as well as variations on the beloved Salvadoran Pupusa a thick masa tortilla stuffed with different combinations of pork cheese and beans Though their stories vary the women have a shared experience of what it was like in El Salvador before the war and what life was like as Salvadoran women surviving in their new home in the United States

Stories of Civil War in El Salvador Erik Ching,2016-08-26 El Salvador s civil war began in 1980 and ended twelve bloody years later It saw extreme violence on both sides including the terrorizing and targeting of civilians by death squads recruitment of child soldiers and the death and disappearance of more than 75 000 people Examining El Salvador s vibrant life story literature written in the aftermath of this terrible conflict including memoirs and testimonials Erik Ching seeks to understand how the war has come to be remembered and rebattled by Salvadorans and what that means for their society today Ching identifies four memory communities that dominate national postwar views civilian elites military officers guerrilla commanders and working class and poor testimonialists Pushing distinct and divergent stories these groups are today engaged in what Ching terms a narrative battle for control over the memory of the war Their ongoing publications in the marketplace of ideas tend to direct Salvadorans attempts to negotiate the war s meaning and legacy and Ching suggests that a more open coordinated reconciliation process is needed in this postconflict society In the meantime El Salvador fractured by conflicting interpretations of its national trauma is hindered in dealing with the immediate problems posed by the nexus of neoliberalism gang violence and outmigration Tales from the Wild Blue Yonder * LIVING DANGEROUSLY  John Q. Olson,2007-12

The Meaning of Things Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi,Eugene Rochberg-Halton,Eugene Halton,1981-10-30 The meaning of things is a study of the significance of material possessions in contemporary urban life and of the ways people carve meaning out of their domestic environment Drawing on a survey of eighty families in Chicago who were interviewed on the subject of their feelings about common household objects Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi and Eugene Rochberg Halton provide a unique perspective on materialism American culture and the self They begin by reviewing what social scientists and philosophers have said about the transactions between people and things In the model of personhood that the authors develop goal directed action and the cultivation of meaning through signs assume central importance They then relate theoretical issues to the results of their survey An important finding is the distinction between objects valued for action and those valued for contemplation The authors compare families who have warm emotional attachments to their homes with those in which a common set of positive meanings is lacking and interpret the different patterns of involvement They then trace the cultivation of meaning in case studies of four families Finally the authors address what they describe as the current crisis of environmental and material exploitation and suggest that human capacities for the creation and redirection of meaning offer the only hope for survival A wide range of scholars urban and family sociologists clinical developmental and environmental psychologists cultural anthropologists and philosophers and many general readers will find this book stimulating and compelling Family Literacy Practices in Asian and Latinx Families Jorge E. Gonzalez,Jeffrey Liew,Gayle A.

Curtis,Yali Zou,2022-12-06 This book focuses on the literacy beliefs and practices of parents and children from Asian and Latinx heritage backgrounds In the US children from Asian and Latinx immigrant backgrounds represent the largest population of dual language learners in schools While existing research has paid significant attention to the roles of parenting and the home literacy environment on children s literacy development relatively little attention has been allocated to immigrant families Chapters aim to meet the need in the field to understand the roles of culture and immigrant experiences on children s literacy learning and development including immigrant families home environments and parents involvement in literacy related activities in both English and the parents native language As Hispanic Latinx and Asian American populations grow in the US this book answers an urgent call for school systems and child and family professionals to be aware of issues in this area and how to address them in culturally responsive ways Decolonizing the Spirit in Education and Beyond Njoki Nathani Wane,Miglena S. Todorova,Kimberly L. Todd,2019-12-14 This multidisciplinary collection probes ways in which emerging and established scholars perceive and theorize decolonization and resistance in their own fields of work from education to political and social studies to psychology medicine and beyond In this time of renewed global spiritual awakening indigenous communities are revisiting ways of knowing and evoking theories of resistance informed by communal theories of solidarity Using an intersectional lens chapter authors present or imagine modes of solidarity resistance and political action that subvert colonial and neocolonial formations Placing emphasis on the importance of theorizing the spirit a discourse that is deeply embedded in our unique cultures and ancestries this book is able to capture and better understand these moments and processes of spiritual emergence re emergence When the Sun Comes Up in the West Robert C. Cook,2011-12 This book tells the story of a Presbyterian minister who truly took the biblical call to do justice seriously It tells of his journey to serve the poor in El Salvador and in doing so his learning more about what it means to be a follower of Jesus from the people he served Publisher Cornbread Nation 7 Francis Lam,John T. Edge,2014 The latest collection of the best in Southern foodways writing on what food means to outsiders insiders and everyone in between Edited by Francis Lam it brings together the best Southern food writing from recent years including well known food writers such as Sara Roahen and Brett Anderson US Department of State Dispatch ,1996 Contains a diverse compilation of major speeches congressional testimony policy statements fact sheets and other foreign policy information from the State Dept El Salvador is My Home Eileen Foran,Rose Welch,1992-01-01 A look at the life of a twelve year old boy and his family who had to move from their farm to a poor section of San Salvador Includes a section with information on El Salvador
