ELDER LAW LAWRENCE. FROLIK,2024 Elder Law Lawrence A. Frolik,Alison McChrystal Barnes,2007 The Fundamentals of Elder Law Raymond C. O'Brien,Michael T. Flannery,2015 Elder Law Vaughn E. James,2019 The Fundamentals of Elder Law, Cases and Materials MARK. OSLER,2022-04-05 The second edition of this casebook continues to provide the fundamentals for a lively contemporary course in elder law It emphasizes illustrative factual cases and statutes and is supported by materials from elder law practitioners and statistical data It is distinctive in its emphasis upon state and federal court decisions not simply a recitation of statutory provisions Elder law is of burgeoning historical and social importance Statistics indicate that by 2030 one fifth of all Americans will be 65 or older and each day 10 000 persons turn 65 Among the legal issues pertinent to an aging population are estate planning objectives in the context of possible incapacity integrating nonprobate and probate transfers asset protection planning philanthropy and dynasty options and beneficial tax planning Statutory changes establish guidance for personal health care decision making and designations of guardians and surrogates to exercise authority when needed Clients and institutions require legal assistance to navigate federal benefits such as Medicare Social Security Veterans Benefits and the interaction of state federal Medicaid opportunities Statistics also indicate that almost two thirds of all individuals over age 65 will need some form of long term care The cost of this care can be as little as 1 000 a month for simple help around the house but at least 15 000 to 20 000 a month is needed for continual care by health care professionals This edition continues the discussion on ageism the pandemic of elder abuse in all its forms and discrimination in housing and employment Elder Law A. Kimberley Dayton,Thomas P. Gallanis,Molly M. Wood,2003-01-01 Cases and Materials on the Law Governing Lawyers James E. Moliterno,2003 Elder Law A. Kimberley Dayton,Molly M. Wood,Julia A. Belian,2007 The Law of Later-life Health Care and Decision Making Lawrence A. Frolik,2006 Directives which include living wills and health care powers of attorney or proxies are unique in a heretofore unknown way They draw heavily on the knowledge and skills of practitioners from all three of the noble professions law medicine and spirit That s precisely why Advance Health Care Directives A Handbook for Professionals is such an exceedingly important work Authored by a lawyer and a physician this far ranging volume deals with the difficult and sensitive issues faced by professionals lawyers doctors nurses clerics spiritual advisors chaplains social workers palliative caregivers and all allied walks in helping clients and patients plan write execute and implement these utterly essential personal contingency plans for health care decision making Book jacket Searching the Law, 3d Edition Frank Bae,Edward Bander,Francis Doyle,Joel Fishman,Paul Richert,2021-12-13 Theories on Law and Ageing Israel Doron,2008-09-25 This book is about trying to answer questions These questions were well introduced by Prof Margaret Hall in the opening of her chapter in this book The fundamental idea of law and aging as a discrete category of legal principle and theory is controversial how and why are older adults or seniors or elders the very terminology is

controversial and fraught with difficulties a discrete and distinct group for whom special legal thought and treatment is justified For some a category of law and aging is inherently paternalistic suggesting that older persons are like children especially in need of the protection of the law In this sense the argument continues the category itself internalizes ageist presumptions about older adults and is therefore inherently flawed and even harmful If certain older adults are because of physical or mental infirmities genuinely in need of an enhanced level of legal protection this entitlement should be conceptualized in terms of their disability older adults are not a distinct group but an arbitrarily delineated demographic category which contains within it any number of groups that are legitimately distinct for the purposes of legal theory the disabled women persons of colour Aboriginal persons rich and poor etc Indeed the artificial category of older adults may be seen as obfuscating submerging these more meaningful distinctions

Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics,

Volume 28, 2008 Harvey L. Sterns, Marie A. Bernard, 2008-12-12 This volume addresses the extraordinary need to educate personnel at all levels in gerontology and geriatric medicine and in the design and delivery of health and social services The historical development of gerontology and geriatric medicine and education issues are carefully considered with recommendations for curriculum design The authors offer state of the art discussions on both gerontology and geriatrics with implications for future research The chapters written by seminal figures in the field address the critical need for well trained faculty and other professionals to educate new and existing faculty and other professionals educate researchers to accelerate scientific knowledge provide courses for all students that address life span life cycle development and related materials provide discipline specific courses on aging and much more Elder Law A. Kimberley Dayton, Thomas P. Gallanis, Molly M.

Wood, 2003 Ethics, Law, and Aging Review, Volume 10 Marshall B. Kapp, 2004-12-06 Although the topic of decision making capacity and older persons has been discussed in the literature there still is much to be learned about it theoretically and practically Experts continue to disagree about which standards are important for assessing decision making capacity Questions such as When should a capacity assessment be done on an older person and by whom are covered by the editors Topics included in this volume are the application of an original framework for ethical decision making in long term care an elder's capacity to decide to remain living alone in the community the quest for helpful standardized instruments for evaluating decision making capacity and end of life liability issues

Everyday Law for Seniors Lawrence A. Frolik, Linda S.

Whitton, 2019-01-22 Seniors are a wide ranging and exponentially growing special status group that the law treats differentially with respect to rights responsibilities and benefits This book is written to inform and assist seniors and those who care for them The topics covered range from retirement strategies housing options and long term care to federal benefit programs such as Social Security Medicare and Medicaid and ultimately to end of life decisions Whether you are someone looking out for your parents a new retiree concerned about your legal rights or one of the growing number of old old eighty five years or older who needs answers to confusing legal issues this book provides essential information in clear language about timely topics such as reverse mortgages long term care insurance powers of attorney guardianship and the hidden problem of elder abuse Each chapter includes Did You Know opening outlines as well as web based resources for additional information The authors are nationally known elder law experts and are frequently asked to consult with national commissions legislatures bar associations and individuals from every walk of life In Everyday Law for Seniors they provide advice appropriate for everyone senior or not yet
