Handbook of Clinical Behavior Therapy with the Elderly Client Patricia A. Wisocki, 2013-11-21

Although we speak of the elderly as if there were one body of people with common characteristics older adults are more heterogeneous than any other population. People over the age of 65 are also the fastest growing segment of the population in the United States currently numbering 25 million. The majority of older adults reside in their communities; a small fraction of them are cared for in institutions. Most may expect to experience some kind of physical impairment. Approximately a quarter of the population may expect to suffer a mental health impairment. While traditional therapies have not been especially effective for older adults, behavior therapy has shown exceptional promise as a treatment modality. This book presents a comprehensive explication of the relatively new field of behavioral gerontology. It was written for the clinician interested in the interaction of medical, environmental, and psychological variables and their effects on treatment of elderly clients and for the researcher who will be looking to extend knowledge about interventions with this population. It will be useful for the graduate student in clinical psychology as well as the experienced clinician who will want to include the elderly in his or her therapeutic population. Nursing Diagnosis Handbook - E-Book Betty J. Ackley, Gail B. Ladwig, 2010-02-18. Use this convenient resource to formulate nursing diagnoses and create individualized care plans. Updated with the most recent NANDA-I approved nursing diagnoses. Nursing Diagnosis Handbook: An Evidence-Based Guide to Planning Care 9th Edition shows you how to build customized care plans using a three-step process: assess, diagnose, and plan care. It includes suggested nursing diagnoses for over 1,300 client symptoms, medical and psychiatric diagnoses, diagnostic procedures, surgical interventions, and clinical states. Authors Elizabeth Ackley and Gail Ladwig use Nursing Outcomes Classification (NOC) and Nursing Interventions Classification (NIC) information to guide you in creating care plans that include desired outcomes, interventions, patient teaching, and evidence-based rationales. Promotes evidence-based interventions and rationales by including recent or classic research that supports the use of each intervention. Unique: Provides care plans for every NANDA-I approved nursing diagnosis. Includes step-by-step instructions on how to use the Guide to Nursing Diagnoses and Guide to Planning Care sections to create a unique individualized plan of care. Includes pediatric, geriatric, multicultural, and home care interventions as necessary for plans of care. Includes examples of and suggested NIC interventions and NOC outcomes in each care plan. Allows quick access to specific symptoms and nursing diagnoses with alphabetical thumb tabs. Unique: Includes a Care Plan Constructor on the companion Evolve website for hands-on practice in creating customized plans of care. Includes the new 2009/2011 NANDA-I approved nursing diagnoses including 21 new and 8 revised diagnoses. Illustrates the Problem Etiology

Personality Disorders in Older Adults Erlene Rosowsky,Robert C. Abrams,Richard A. Zweig,2013-03-07 As the average age of the population rises mental health professionals have become increasingly aware of the critical importance of personality in mediating successful adaptation in later life Personality disorders were once thought to age out and accordingly to have an inconsequential impact on the lives of the elderly But recent clinical experience and studies underscore not only the prevalence of personality disorders in older people but the pivotal roles they play in the onset course and treatment outcomes of other emotional and cognitive problems and physical problems as well Clearly mental health professionals must further develop research methods assessment techniques and intervention strategies targeting these disorders and they must more effectively integrate what is being learned from advances in research and theory into clinical practice Inspired by these needs the editors have brought together a distinguished group of behavioral scientists and clinicians dedicated to understanding the interaction of personality and aging Offering a rich array of theoretical perspectives intrapsychic interpersonal neuropsychological and systems they summarize the empirical literature present phenomenological case reports and review psychodynamic cognitive behavioral
