Elderly Caregiver Caring For Adults With Developmental Disabilities:

The Elderly Caregiver Karen A. Roberto, 1993-08-09 By bringing together contributions from the fields of gerontology and developmental disabilities the editor of this volume makes an important statement about the need for collaborative and multidisciplinary research to be conducted in this area and for the developmental disabilities service system and the aging network to work together to support these caregivers and their family members with developmental disabilities American Journal on Mental Retardation The shift from institutional to community based care for individuals with developmental disabilities and their increase in longevity has resulted in more and more elderly serving as primary caregivers for adults with developmental disabilities The Elderly Caregiver addresses the predominate issues and concerns confronting these older caregivers By bringing together the empirical work of researchers from a variety of disciplines this volume provides insight into the physical psychological and social needs of this growing segment of the population Contributors explore the needs of elderly parents caring for adult children with mental retardation changes in their caregiving activities the increasing burden of caregiving and the ordeal of facing their own frailties while planning future out of home placement for their children Additional chapters focus on the needs of caregivers of aging adults with Down syndrome and Alzheimer's disease Finally case management is examined from the perceptions of family members as well as case managers themselves A concluding chapter draws together the implications for the future directions for practice policy and research Unique in its presentation The Elderly Caregiver is invaluable to researchers practitioners and advanced students in aging health rehabilitation social work and family studies Not only does the author provide insight into some of the physical social and psychological needs of these developmentally disabled adults she explores certain needs of the elderly parents who are facing their own aging problems This accessible book is geared for caregivers providers family members and professionals involved with older adults who have developmental disabilities This book offers highly practical advice of use to a wide variety of readers including the caregivers professionals and health care providers concerned with adults having these disabilities Academic Library Book Review In addition to enlightening the reader with its contemporary knowledge of the field the text is well organized and includes some of the most impressive empirical work conducted in this area As well it provides some good suggestions for future research The work provides a comprehensive perspective on family caregivers aging caregivers and the aging of people with developmental disabilities who are recipients of care At a time when numerous books on deinstitutionalization community care of the mentally ill and the intellectually impaired are appearing on the market it is a great pleasure to see a book that is well rounded I recommend this book as a valuable text for researchers practitioners and students of gerontology Further it will serve as an invaluable book for caregivers themselves It has undoubtedly made a significant contribution in the field The Canadian Health Psychologist This collection fills a significant unmet need and can be related to other caregiving situations It is an up to date and very readable book for practitioners and policy makers as well as researchers and educators Families should also find it useful The topic is a timely example of the need for service integration in our aging society This collection helps to address their needs and those of their children by applying theory suggesting additional research and making specific practice and policy recommendations Contemporary Gerontology      Social Work and Health Care in an Aging Society Barbara Berkman,Linda Harootyan,2003-06-01 This book places significant issues related to the health mental health and well being of older adults and their caregivers within the context of social work service delivery By presenting the research of social work scholars all experts in specific research areas the editors clarify the value that social work brings to the larger realm of health care for older adults and their families Special consideration is given to such issues as case management urban African American elders grandmothers raising grandchildren aging persons with developmental disabilities home health care and more For Further Information on Dr Berkman Please Click Here      EBOOK: Working With Older People And Their Families Mike Nolan,Nolan Davies,Gordon Grant,2001-02-16 Addressing the needs of older people and their carers is an essential element of both policy and practice in the fields of health and social care Recent developments promote a partnership and empowerment model in which the notion of person centred care figures prominently However what person centred care means and how it can be achieved is far from clear Working with Older People and their Families combines extensive reviews of specialist literatures with new empirical data in an attempt at a synthesis of themes about making a reality of person centred care Uniquely it seeks to unite the perspectives of older people family and professional carers in promoting a genuinely holistic approach to the challenges of an ageing society Working with Older People and their Families is recommended reading for students on health related courses such as nursing medicine and the therapies It is also of relevance to students of social work and social gerontology researchers managers and policy makers      Ageing with a Lifelong Disability Christine Bigby,2004 This guide provides specialist knowledge about ageing with a disability in the context of the more mainstream knowledge about ageing processes Dr Bigby uses the concept of successful ageing as a framework in which to consider the issues and practicalities for older people with a pre existing disability      Reichel's Care of the Elderly Jan Busby-Whitehead,Samuel C. Durso,Christine Arenson,Mary H. Palmer,Rebecca Elon,William Reichel,2022-07-21 A clinical guide for all health specialists offering practical relevant and comprehensive information on managing the elderly patient      Reichel's Care of the Elderly Christine Arenson,William Reichel,2009-02-09 Reichel s formative text is designed as a practical guide for health specialists confronted with the unique problems of geriatric patients      Dementia and Aging Adults with Intellectual Disabilities Matthew P. Janicki,Arthur J. Dalton,2014-04-23 This definitive handbook assembles the most recent advances in knowledge about dementia Alzheimer Disease and related disorders as they affect persons with intellectual disabilities Diagnosis assessment treatment and management and care practices are detailed in a practical manner making this a useful tool to both students and trained professionals After an introduction to the subject the book begins with persoanl accounts of three affected individuals whose signs of dementia are described from clinical family member and care provider perspectives respectively The biology and physiology of dementia as well as the neurological and medical complications associated with it are then provided in Parts Two three and Four The application and practical perspectives of this handbook are enhanced in Part Five which details the best practices available to meet the needs and challenges involved in care and quality of life issues The challenge raised by the rapidly growing number of aging individuals with intellectual disabilities forms the basis for the final part of the volume an analysis and presentation of rarely addressed policy issues Extensive resource information and a comprehensive glossary contribute to the useful nature of this handbook Practitioners service providers educators and students will benefit from the accessibility and practicality of this text as well as the breadth and depth of knowledge of the editors and contributors

The Elderly Caregiver Karen A. Roberto,1993-08-17 Bringing together the empirical work of researchers from a variety of disciplines this volume provides insight into the physical psychological and social needs of the growing number of elderly people caring for adults with developmental disabilities Issues explored include the needs of elderly parents caring for adult offspring with learning difficulties changes in care giving activities the increasing burden of care giving the ordeal of planning future out of home placement and the needs of care givers of ageing adults with Down s syndrome and Alzheimer s disease A concluding chapter draws together implications for future directions in practice policy and research

Feminist Perspectives on Family Care Nancy R. Hooyman,Judith Gonyea,1995-08-29 Today women find themselves playing an ever increasing role in caring for older family members who are frail developmentally disabled or suffering from serious mental illness While this role of women as caregivers has been documented the actual impact on the lives of women has remained largely unstudied In this volume the authors examine caregiving as a central feminist issue looking at its impact on women socially personally and economically The authors review how changing family structures the changing economy and workforce and the changing health care demands of needy adults have impacted on women s lives They critique existing public and private policies demonstrating a need for fundamental structural changes in social institutions and attitudes to improve the lives of women Finally they propose a social model of care that is oriented toward gender justice recognition of the work of caring and its impact upon women socially personally and economically For students scholars and practitioners in the field of gerontology gender studies and social work this book is a must

Reichel's Care of the Elderly Joseph J. Gallo,William Reichel,1999 Geared specifically for the family practitioner this text provides clinical approaches to the whole geriatric patient Topics covered in this fifth edition include behavioural disturbances in dementia driving and the older adult and clinical practice guidelines in the elderly

Health Care for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities across the Lifespan I. Leslie Rubin,Joav Merrick,Donald E. Greydanus,Dilip R. Patel,2016-04-25 This book provides a broad overview of quality health care for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities IDD It focuses on providing the reader a practical approach to dealing with the health and well being of people with IDD in general terms as well as in dealing with specific conditions In addition it offers the reader a perspective from many different points of view in the health care delivery system as well as in different parts of the world This is the 3rd and much expanded edition of a text that was first published in 1989 Lea and Fibiger The second edition was published in 2006 Paul Brookes and has been used as a formal required text in training programs for physicians nurses and nurse practitioners as well as by administrators who are responsible for programs serving people with IDD This book is considered the Bible in the field of health care for people with IDD since 1989 when the first edition came out Long-term Care and Medicaid United States. Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other's perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers The Leader's Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten hour education and support program for caregivers informational content layouts for overhead transparencies and suggested group activities The companion Participant s Manual supports the presentation providing a workbook for class activities a suggested reading list and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987 Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers academicians public and private services and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care Intimate and Personal Care with People with Learning Disabilities Steven Carnaby,Paul

Cambridge,2006 This book examines aspects of care such as training ethnicity sexuality and competence in practice Topics include the nature of touch how physical contact is intended and experienced carers duty of care and risk management The book also explores management considerations of best value care standards performance monitoring and inspection

Family Care in HIV/AIDS Premilla D'Cruz,2004-06-30 This book vividly describes family care in HIV AIDS through the lived experiences of caregivers and care receivers It contributes to our knowledge not only because of the contemporary relevance of family caregiving but also because of its focus on HIV AIDS which being a relatively new disease is little understood yet poses unique challenges due to its stigmatising long drawn debilitating and terminal nature Based on a study conducted in Mumbai Family Care in HIV AIDS captures the lived experiences of 10 caregivers and seven care receivers belonging to diverse socio economic groups and traditional as well as non traditional family settings Overall the book provides valuable insights into a range of important issues related to caregiving in family settings while identifying areas for intervention and further research In addition it overcomes many gaps identified in the substantive area of family care by Western researchers Compendium of Products by NIDRR Grantees & Contractors ,1993 Handbook of Social

Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman,2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today
