Among the judicial immigrants were the southerner David S Terry of Texas and the northerner Stephen J Field of New York These men served on California s highest court during its formative strenuous years from 1855 to 1863 The intellectual similarities and differences that these two shared played themselves out over a period of 35 years and brought about a series of events that neither man could have envisioned Their exchanges began as wary judicial amity within the courtroom but in short order spilled out into the community as public grudges Neither judge could tolerate the other s regional provincialism hence lifelong resentments inevitably turned into a bitterness that led to tragedy Foreword p vii The Anatomy of Colorism in America Robb Nelson,2025-04-21 The Anatomy of Colorism in America addresses the significance that colorism racial hierarchy and white skin idealization have each had on the lives of individuals across multiple communities and how those experiences have compared with one another These three complexion based imperial systems culturally legally politically and socially divided persons based on differing skin shades hair textures eye shapes facial angles body types or claims to mythical racial backgrounds The Anatomy of Colorism in America argues that the practices associated with empire building and imperial expansion in America such as manifest destiny settler colonialism and indentured servitude and slavery all led to the creation of these complexion based divisions Once formed these divisions led to socially damaging outcomes for the individuals perceived as nonwhite by the local Anglo American settler colonial class This book documents four locations and communities where such circumstances emerged and compares them The four case studies investigated in this book include Blacks in Charleston South Carolina the Californios in Alta California Mormons in Utah and the relationship between Indigenous Hawaiians Japanese immigrants and Anglo American whites in Hawaii Junípero Serra's Legacy Martin J.
