Election Ninety Four South Africa The Campaigns Results And Future Prospects:

Elections and TV News in South Africa Bernadine Jones, 2021-08-02 This book takes television news seriously Over the course of nine chapters Elections and TV News in South Africa shows how six democratic South African general elections 1994 2019 were represented on both local and international news broadcasts It reveals the shifting narratives about South African democracy coupled with changing and challenging political journalism practices The book is organised in three parts the first contains a history of South African democracy and an overview of the South African media environment The second part is a visual analysis of the South African elections on television news exploring portrayals of violence security power and populism and how these fit into normative news values and the ruling party's tightening grip on the media The final part is a conclusion a call to action and a suggestion to improve political journalistic practice The Revival of Right Wing

Extremism in the Nineties Peter H. Merkl, Leonard Weinberg, 2014-01-14 Most studies of the radical right concentrate on movements in a single country neglecting to some extent the international dimensions of right wing extremism Here Merkl and Weinberg adopt a comparative perspective concentrating on the revival of the right across a variety of countries

Policy, Politics and Poverty in South Africa Jeremy Seekings, Nicoli Nattrass, Kasper, 2015-07-21 Seekings and Nattrass explain why poverty persisted in South Africa after the transition to democracy in 1994 The book examines how public policies both mitigated and reproduced poverty and explains how and why these policies were adopted The analysis offers lessons for the study of poverty elsewhere in the world The New Black Middle Class in South Africa Roger Southall, 2016 Provides the most comprehensive account since the early 1960s of South Africa's black middle class 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The rise of the black middle class is one of the most visible aspects of post apartheid society in South Africa Yet while it has been a major actor in the country's democratic reshaping analysis of its role has been all but lacking Rather the image presented by the media has been of black diamonds consumers of the products of advanced industrial economies and of corrupt tenderpreneurs who use their political connections to obtain contracts This book seeks to complicate that picture with a much needed analysis that recounts its historical development in colonial society prior to 1994 before examining the size shape and structure of the new black middle class in contemporary South Africa and its relation to its counterparts in the Global South Roger Southall is Professor Emeritus in Sociology University of the Witwatersrand Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Botswana Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Jacana Dispatches from the War Room Stanley B. Greenberg, 2009-02-17 The fascinating war room memoir of a political pollster and how he helped forge the agendas of five high profile heads of state As a hired gun strategist Greenberg a seasoned pollster and political consultant has seen it all In his memoir he recounts his work with President Bill Clinton British Prime Minister Tony Blair Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak Bolivian president Gonzalo Sanchez de Lozada and South African president Nelson Mandela Through his experiences aiding the leaders in pushing their visions for better and clearer domestic and international policies

Greenberg offers an insightful examination of leadership democracy and the bridge between candidate and constituency This captivating tale of political battlegrounds provides an inside look at some of the greatest international leaders of our time from the man who stood directly beside them Electoral Systems and Democratization in Southern Africa Andrew Reynolds, 1999-01-28 The design of electoral systems and executive types is increasingly being recognized the key lever of constitutional engineering to be applied in the interests of political accommodation and stability in ethnically divided societies In this groundbreaking comparative study of democratic design in Southern Africa Andrew Reynolds finds that the decisions about how to constitute representative parliaments have wide ranging effects on the type of parties and party system that develops the nature of executive legislative relations and the inclusiveness of both majority and minority interests in the process of governance While electoral system design is the primary focus of the book the related constitutional issues of whether to choose a presidential or parliamentary system and whether to entrench consociational or majoritarian government are also discussed Analysing the experiences of Malawi Namibia South Africa Zambia and Zimbabwe the author presents a host of revealing conclusions that help shed light on the success or failure of democratic design in other fledgling democracies in both Africa and beyond Power-Sharing and Consociational Theory Brigid Brooks Kelly, 2019-03-25 Fifty years ago academics and policymakers throughout the world agreed that it was impossible for certain sets of historically antagonistic groups to coexist peacefully on a long term basis This book examines the system of consociation which was identified by Arend Lijphart and ended that pessimistic consensus Lijphart's specific observations concerning the impact of consociation are assessed quantitatively and qualitatively facilitated through careful operationalization of his descriptions of consociation's four components grand coalition minority veto proportionality and segmental autonomy Insights derived from a dataset representing the experiences of eighty eight countries are examined further through case study analysis of the seven societies most often discussed in relation to consociation Austria Belgium Canada the Netherlands Northern Ireland South Africa and Switzerland The components of consociation are found to promote lasting peace in divided societies most successfully when combined with additional incentives for the encouragement of cross cutting cleavages and shared loyalties Conflict Resolution and Peace Education in Africa Ernest E. Uwazie, 2003-01-01 Africa today suffers from too much political unrest and violent conflict The contributors to this edited collection recognize a missing link in efforts to foster democracy and with it political stability and peace in Africa's developing countries Democracy can be sustained only where effective means for resolving citizens disputes exist both within and outside the formal legal system The writers whose articles appear here scholars practitioners and peace advocates present their varied knowledge of conflict and war in Africa and strategies for introducing and implementing mediation from Sierra Leone to South Africa This volume is a model exchange of insights and ideas in the important field of conflict resolution as applied to Africa Democracy Svante Ersson, Jan-Erik Lane, 2013-04-15 Jan Erik Lane is a very experienced
