Electoral Territoriality in Southern Africa Stephen Rule,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 A comprehensive comparison of voting patterns in seven countries of Southern Africa The modern democratic electoral histories of Botswana Lesotho Namibia South Africa Swaziland Zambia and Zimbabwe are placed within the contexts of their pre colonial and colonial polities The extent to which urbanization and the regional distribution of language ethnicity and race impacts on the electoral geography of the sub continent is demonstrated statistically and cartographically The analysis is complemented by anecdotal evidence gathered during personal interviews and discussions with voters politicians government officials and academics

The State, Education and Equity in Post-Apartheid South Africa Enver Motala,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 Has the South African post apartheid state been able to achieve its stated goals What has been the relationship between the process of educational reform and the impact on the state of the Constitution and other laws This seminal book responds to these questions by examining the development and implementation of social policy in South Africa during the first years of democratic government particularly in relation to education The post apartheid state was immediately faced with a broad spectrum of political social economic and human rights issues The research analyzes whether the aims and objectives of the new administration were achieved no other single collection of research in South Africa collectively explores the issues raised in this endeavour The book will appeal to a wide range of professionals including researchers academics planners policy makers public servants and postgraduate students

Wages and Employment in Africa Dipak Mazumdar,Ata Mazaheri,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 Analyzing labour market trends in sub Saharan Africa since 1970 this volume employs data collected from the International Labor Organization ILO United Nations Industrial Development Organisation UNIDO and World Bank the RPED surveys It examines the economics of the labour market against the persistent decline in real wages over some 20 years in some of these countries Setting the African story against the background of wage employment trends in other regions of the world the author proceeds to examine the impact of this decline on the rural urban earnings gap The consequences of the declining wage levels on the lifetime earnings of workers and on trends in labour productivity are then discussed followed by an analysis of the employment and wage structure in African manufacturing firms

Globalization and Emerging Trends in African States' Foreign Policy-Making Process Rok Ajulu,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 The resurgence of the democratization movement in Africa in the post Cold War era is gradually replacing authoritarianism with forms of democratic systems These changes have put into question the traditional big man image of African states foreign policy and foreign policy making The first book of its kind to focus on the foreign policy making process of Southern African countries in the era of globalization these instructive and rewarding case studies contextualize the increasing involvement of other internal actors in African states foreign policy making process Foreign policy actors such as the Presidency Ministries of Defence Foreign Affairs Trade Finance and the Intelligence Community among others are examined in a comparative perspective IBSS Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science,2001 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences The Political Economy of Post-adjustment Hakim Ben Hammouda,2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2003 Hammouda s text focuses on modernization experiences in the South which in the 80s had reached their limits with the adoption of structural adjustment programmes in most countries Yet such Washington Consensus inspired programmes met difficulties in initiating new growth dynamics in these countries and in improving their international insertion Hence a new era termed post adjustment by the author has been ushered in one which is characterized by a decline of structural adjustment programmes and through dynamic and plural research is striving to introduce new theoretical practices and development strategies This book is a contribution to such debate African Identities D.P.S Ahluwalia,Abebe Zegeye,Pal Ahluwalia,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2003 Aimed at examining contemporary debates and issues which are at the cutting edge of the social sciences Pal Ahluwalia and Abebe Zegeye have put together a book on subjects of critical importance to the African condition A combination of empirical and theoretical materials this text introduces new perspectives In the Shadow of South Africa Mats Lundahl,Colin L. McCarthy,Lennart Petersson,2003 Lesotho is a resource poor mountainous country that has relied heavily upon South Africa for many years As the 21st century gets under way the country has fewer economic possibilities and its larger neighbour has less to offer This text analyzes the changes taking place Bibliographie Internationale de Science Politique ,2000 Through Fire with Water Erik Doxtader,Charles Villa-Vicencio,2003 This collection of essays presents 15 case studies of African countries whose recent past has been shaped by conflict It examines the historical roots of violence and the potential for reconciliation and justice American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Ecology, Civil Society and the Informal Economy in North West Tanzania Charles David Smith,2001 Based on a decade of first hand experience and secondary research this richly detailed study follows daily life in four villages in Tanzania It investigates their regional economy civil society democratization AIDS population growth farming and households and environmental degradation and population An essential text for all serious students and researchers interested in development Taking the Law Into Their Own Hands Bruce

Baker,2002 Over much of Africa crime and insurgency are a serious problem and one in which the distinction between the two is being eroded Left without state protection people have sought to preserve their lives and property through vigilante groups and militias that pay scant attention to the law or human rights Likewise the state security forces under pressure to cut crime and rebel activity readily discard lawful procedures Torture provides them with vital information whilst extra judicial executions save the need to go through the prolonged criminal justice system After a general overview of the role of the rule of law in a democratic society Bruce Baker provides five case studies that capture the current complex realities and their impact on the new democracies The citizen responses considered are vigilantes in East African pastoral economies The Bakassi Boys an anti crime group in Nigeria and private policing initiatives in South Africa The state responses are those of the Ugandan Defence Forces towards the Lords Resistance Army the Senegalese army towards the Casamance secessionists and the Mozambique Police response towards criminals

Territorial Governance and Spatial Transformation in Post-apartheid South Africa Daniel du Plessis,2025-07-05 The book provides a reflective account of the evolution of the territorial governance structures and processes in South Africa over a period of 30 years after the transition to a post apartheid society in 1994 It also considers the role and influence of these changing governance institutions and processes and their associated outputs in the form of policies and plans on several priority dimensions of urban spatial transformation The synthesis of the experiences and lessons learnt provides the bases for contemplating important future focus areas for territorial governance such as spatial transformation towards smart cities an African perspective for future South African cities and transitioning towards a streamlined integrated territorial governance system The lessons and experiences are not only of local significance in South Africa but also globally in countries and regions faced with territorial governance and spatial transformation challenges

G.K. Hall Interdisciplinary Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,2001 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004 Territorial Pluralism Karlo Basta,John McGarry,Richard Simeon,2015-01-12 Territorial pluralism is a form of political autonomy designed to accommodate national ethnic or linguistic differences within a state It has the potential to provide for the peaceful democratic and just management of difference But given traditional concerns about state sovereignty nation building and unity how realistic is it to expect that a state s authorities will agree to recognize and empower distinct substate communities Territorial Pluralism answers this question by examining a wide variety of cases including developing and industrialized states and democratic and authoritarian regimes Drawing on examples of both success and failure contributors analyze specific cases to understand the kinds of institutions that emerge in response to demands for territorial pluralism as well as their political effects With identity conflicts continuing to have a major impact on politics around the globe they argue that territorial pluralism remains a legitimate and effective means for managing difference in multinational states

Inequality and Political Cleavage in Africa Catherine Boone,2024-04-25 This pathbreaking work integrates African countries into broader comparative theories of how spatial inequality shapes political competition over the construction of markets states and nations Existing literature on African countries has found economic cleavages institutions and policy choices to be of low salience in national politics This book inverts these arguments Boone trains our analytic focus on the spatial inequalities and territorial institutions that structure national politics in Africa showing that regional cleavages find expression in both electoral competition and policy struggles over redistribution sectoral investment market integration and state design Leveraging comparative politics theory Boone argues that African countries regional and core periphery tensions are similar to those that have shaped national economic integration in other parts of the world Bringing together electoral and economic geography the book offers a new and powerful map of political competition on the African continent

A Democratic South Africa? Donald L. Horowitz, 2023-04-28 A Democratic South Africa Constitutional Engineering in a Divided Society explores the formidable challenges of building a democratic system in a society as racially and ethnically divided as South Africa The book underscores the complexity of crafting institutions and processes that can foster inclusivity and stability in a deeply polarized setting South Africa s history of apartheid has left a legacy of distrust and ideological division with extreme political forces at both ends of the spectrum threatening the democratic experiment The author addresses critical questions of constitutional design minority rights protection and electoral systems emphasizing the necessity of innovative solutions to counter conflict and promote intergroup cooperation The study situates South Africa s democratization within a broader comparative context highlighting its potential as a case study for other divided societies It examines how democratic processes can transform relationships among political actors even in unpromising conditions By focusing on the interplay between constitutional processes and institutional design the book offers insights into how participation negotiation and decision making shape democratic outcomes Ultimately it presents South Africa as a quintessential challenge to democratic conflict management where success could provide valuable lessons for fostering democracy in similarly fragmented contexts This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1991
