best of modernism and the worst of modernism in Roy Campbell's poetry. It also asks: Can Themba's style of the shebeens in the 1950s be re-visited in a contemporary context of gender-based abuse? Why or how are Ellen Kuzwayo and Mtshobane Matshoba writing in the struggle years of the 1970s simultaneously less than artists and more than artists? Has the interpretative frame of the postcolonial best served fiction after apartheid? What language of interpretation best releases the voices of contemporary women's poetry: a poetry which in its play on identities and identifications looks both inwards to its locality and outwards to the globe? Alert to both South Africa's colonial past and its assertions of today, Literary Transactions in South Africa pursues the challenge of interpreting a literature of disjuncture between Africa and the West or the South and the North.
