Wisdom Discourse in the Ancient World Sara De Martin,Anna Lucia Furlan,2024-10-03 This book moves beyond the debate on wisdom literature ongoing in biblical studies to demonstrate the productivity of wisdom as a literary category Featuring work by scholars of Egyptology classics biblical and Near Eastern studies it offers fresh perspectives on what makes a text wisdom This interdisciplinary volume widens the scope of the investigation into wisdom literature chronologically geographically and methodologically Readers are given insights into how the label wisdom contributes to our understanding of diverse literary forms across time periods and cultural contexts In the volume s introduction the editors consider wisdom as a discourse shifting the focus from the debate on whether wisdom literature is a genre to the properties of the texts namely exploring what makes a text wisdom This offers a methodological backdrop against which the diverse approaches of the single authors productively coexist showing how different methodologies can be integrated to reframe our conceptions of ancient literary genres The chapters in this volume examine texts that are the products of different ancient cultures with several of them bridging diverse cultural social and chronological contexts By sampling how different methodologies interact both within individual interpretative efforts and in wider attempts to understand cross cultural literary phenomena this volume also contributes new perspectives to the scholarship on ancient literary genres Wisdom Discourse in the Ancient World will interest both students and scholars of the ancient Near East Egyptology classical studies biblical studies and theology and religious studies particularly those working on wisdom literature in antiquity It will also appeal to readers with an interest in comparative approaches and genre studies more broadly
