Crafting Sustainability in Luxury Textiles for a Zero-Waste Future Sadhna, Rajesh Kumar, E. Mokanaasri, 2025-05-31 In an era where environmental consciousness is rapidly becoming a priority the luxury textile industry stands at a crucial crossroads As consumers increasingly demand products that not only offer elegance and opulence but also align with sustainable values luxury brands are facing a paradigm shift in their approach This shift towards sustainability is not merely a trend but a fundamental reevaluation of the industry's practices driven by a growing awareness of the environmental impact of textile manufacturing and consumption This contributed volume explores this transformative journey investigating how luxury and sustainability can harmoniously coexist to shape a future where opulence is synonymous with environmental stewardship The book examines the intricate relationship between luxury textiles and sustainability offering insights analyses and practical solutions for crafting a zero waste future in the high end fashion industry The book serves as a valuable resource for scholars practitioners and policymakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sustainable textile production while maintaining the essence of luxury and craftsmanship Through a collaborative effort the work presented here sets the stage for a future where luxury textiles captivate the senses and inspire a profound sense of environmental responsibility paving the way toward a zero waste future in high end fashion

Garments of Paradise Susan Elizabeth Ryan, 2014-06-13 A historical and critical view of wearable technologies that considers them as acts of communication in a social landscape Wearable technology whether a Walkman in the 1970s an LED illuminated gown in the 2000s or Google Glass today makes the wearer visible in a technologically literate environment Twenty years ago wearable technology reflected cultural preoccupations with cyborgs and augmented reality today it reflects our newer needs for mobility and connectedness In this book Susan Elizabeth Ryan examines wearable technology as an evolving set of ideas and their contexts always with an eye on actual wearables on clothing dress and the histories and social relations they represent She proposes that wearable technologies comprise a pragmatics of enhanced communication in a social landscape Garments of paradise is a reference to wearable technology's promise of physical and mental enhancements Ryan defines dress acts hybrid acts of communication in which the behavior of wearing is bound up with the materiality of garments and devices and focuses on the use of digital technology as part of such systems of meaning She connects the ideas of dress and technology historically in terms of major discourses of art and culture and in terms of mass media and media culture citing such thinkers as Giorgio Agamben Manuel De Landa and Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari She examines the early history of wearable technology as it emerged in research labs the impact of ubiquitous and affective approaches to computing interaction design and the idea of wearable technology as a language of embodied technology and the influence of open source ideology Finally she considers the future as wearing technologies becomes an increasingly naturalized aspect of our social behavior

Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin

Kastner,Basile Ndjio,2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa s rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights Textiles, Identity and Innovation: Design the Future

Gianni Montagna,Cristina Carvalho,2018-10-03 D_TEX presents itself as a starting point at a crossroads of ideas and debates around the complex universe of Textile Design in all its forms manifestations and dimensions The textile universe allied to mankind since its beginnings is increasingly far from being an area of exhausted possibilities each moment proposing important innovations that need a presentation discussion and maturation space that is comprehensive and above all inter and transdisciplinary Presently the disciplinary areas where the textile area is present are increasing and important such as fashion home textiles technical clothing and accessories but also construction and health among others and can provide new possibilities and different disciplinary areas and allowing the production of new knowledge D_TEX proposes to join the thinking of design with technologies tradition techniques and related areas in a single space where ideas are combined with the technique and with the projectual and research capacity thus providing for the creation of concepts opinions associations of ideas links and connections that allow the conception of ideas products and services The interdisciplinary nature of design is a reality that fully reaches the textile material in its essence and its practical application through the synergy and contamination by the different interventions that make up the multidisciplinary teams of research The generic theme of D_TEX Textile Design Conference 2017 held at Lisbon School of Architecture of the University of Lisbon Portugal on November 2 4 2017 is Design the Future starting from the crossroads of ideas and debates a new starting point for the exploration of textile materials their identities and innovations in all their dimensions The Green Stitch: Rethinking Fashion's Future Prof. (Dr.) Pratima Goyal,Dr. Ramratan Guru,Dr. Amrita Rajput,Sucheta Nigam,Prof. (Dr.) Smriti Agarwal,Prof. (Dr.) Sampath Kumar Jinka,2025-09-05 Fashion has always been more than fabric and form it is a mirror of society a vehicle of expression and increasingly a force for environmental and social transformation In the face of climate change resource depletion and ethical labor concerns the fashion industry is undergoing a profound shift The Green Stitch brings together critical perspectives innovative research and real world examples that showcase how sustainability is being woven into every layer of the fashion ecosystem This book is not just a collection of essays it is a journey through the evolving landscape of sustainable fashion Each chapter reflects a crucial facet of this transformation where creativity meets conscience and technology supports tradition We begin with Recycling Fashion An Innovation in Sustainable Development highlighting how recycling is not merely a post consumption act but a proactive strategy in the design and production stages This is expanded in Sustainable Fashion through Recycling A Comprehensive Analysis offering a deep dive into the frameworks challenges and successes of integrating recycling into industry standards and consumer culture In Recycling in Fashion From Waste to Wardrobe we explore case studies and innovative practices that demonstrate how discarded materials from ocean plastics to textile offcuts are being repurposed into high quality garments Complementing this is Textile Surface Embellishment with Innovative and Sustainable Techniques which explores how embellishment once known for waste and excess is being redefined through eco conscious materials and methods Innovation in Design Technology in Traditional Textiles bridges the gap between heritage and modernity showcasing how indigenous crafts and age old techniques are being preserved modernized and made more sustainable through thoughtful design and technological innovation Visual culture is a powerful tool for shaping perceptions and influencing behavior and in Threads of Change Graphic Design Weaves Sustainability into Fashion we see how graphic design is becoming an agent of sustainability From protest prints to eco labeling design is not only aesthetic but also political guiding consumers toward ethical choices and amplifying the values embedded in the clothing we wear Fashion is also a platform for empowerment advocacy and systemic critique In Fashion as Empowerment in Practice Case Studies and Critical Perspectives we delve into how marginalized communities artisans and independent designers are using fashion as a tool to reclaim agency tell untold stories and drive social justice These critical perspectives challenge traditional hierarchies in fashion and propose new more inclusive models of authorship and impact Looking forward Artificial Intelligence and Fashion A Seamless Fusion of Technology and Creativity Shaping the Future of Fashion explores how AI is redefining everything from predictive design to material innovation supply chain efficiency and consumer personalization This technological frontier presents both opportunities and ethical questions that will shape the next chapter of fashion s evolution At the heart of this book is the titular chapter The Green Stitch which acts as both a conceptual framework and a call to action It encapsulates the threads that run throughout the book the interweaving of tradition and innovation sustainability and design human values and digital tools It is a stitch not just of fabric but of hope responsibility and regeneration The Green Stitch is intended for designers researchers students policymakers and anyone passionate about fashion s potential to be a force for good We hope it inspires critical thinking creative experimentation and bold collaboration in building a fashion future that is as sustainable as it is beautiful
