Failed Führers Graham Macklin, 2020-03-27 This book provides a comprehensive history of the ideas and ideologues associated with the racial fascist tradition in Britain. It charts the evolution of the British extreme right from its post war genesis after 1918 to its present day incarnations and details the ideological and strategic evolution of British fascism through the prism of its principal leaders and the movements with which they were associated. Taking a collective biographical approach the book focuses on the political careers of six principal ideologues and leaders: Arnold Leese 1878-1956, Sir Oswald Mosley 1896-1980, A. K. Chesterton 1899-1973, Colin Jordan 1923-2009, John Tyndall 1934-2005 and Nick Griffin 1959. In order to study the evolution of the racial ideology of British fascism from overtly biological conceptions of white supremacy through racial nationalism and latterly to cultural arguments regarding ethno nationalism. Drawing on extensive archival research and often obscure primary texts and propaganda as well as the official records of the British government and its security services this is the definitive historical account of Britain's extreme right and will be essential reading for all students and scholars of race relations extremism and fascism.

Restaging the Past Angela Bartie, Linda Fleming, Mark Freeman, Alexander Hutton, Paul Readman, 2020-08-17 Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day. Across Britain in the twentieth century people succumbed to pageant fever. Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived and hundreds of thousands more watched them. These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s they took place in large cities small towns and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups including Women s Institutes political parties schools churches and youth organisations Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past they also involved many prominent novelists professional historians and other writers as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature Although the pageant tradition has largely died out it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change Indeed as this book shows some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today Sessional Papers ,1914 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as vol 26 no 7 supplement

Catholic Intellectuals and the Challenge of Democracy Jay P. Corrin,2010-12-20 Tracing the development of progressive Catholic approaches to political and economic modernization Catholic Intellectuals and the Challenge of Democracy disputes standard interpretations of the Catholic response to democracy and modernity in the English speaking world particularly the conventional view that the Church was the servant of right wing reactionaries and authoritarian patriarchal structures Starting with the writings of Bishop Wilhelm von Ketteler of Germany the Frenchman Fr d rick Ozanam and England s Cardinal Henry Edward Manning whose pioneering work laid the foundation of the Catholic third way Corrin reveals a long tradition within Roman Catholicism that championed social activism These visionary writers were the forerunners of Pope John XXIII s aggiornamento a call for Catholics to broaden their historical perspectives and move beyond a static theology fixed to the past By examining this often overlooked tradition Corrin attempts to confront the perception that Catholicism in the modern age has invariably been an institution of reaction that is highly suspicious of liberalism and progressive social reform Catholic Intellectuals and the Challenge of Democracy charts the efforts of key Catholic intellectuals primarily in Britain and the United States who embraced the modern world and endeavored to use the legacies of their faith to form an alternative pluralistic path that avoided both socialist collectivism and capitalism In this sweeping volume Corrin discusses the influences of Cecil and G K Chesterton H A Reinhold Hilaire Belloc and many others on the development of Catholic social economic and political thought with a special focus on Belloc and Reinhold as representatives of reactionary and progressive positions respectively He also provides an in depth analysis of Catholic Distributists responses to the labor unrest in Britain prior to World War I and later in the 1930s to the tragedy of the Spanish Civil War and the forces of fascism and communism Examination Papers University of Bombay,1928 All Things Considered G. K. Chesterton,2008-10-01 I cannot understand the people who take literature seriously but I can love them and I do Out of my love I warn them to keep clear of this book It is a collection of crude and shapeless papers upon current or rather flying subjects and they must be published pretty much as they stand They were written as a rule at the last moment they were handed in the moment before it was too late and I do not think that our commonwealth would have been shaken to its foundations if they had been handed in the moment after They must go out now with all their imperfections on their head or rather on mine for their vices are too vital to be improved with a blue pencil or with anything I can think of except dynamite G K Chesterton     The Oxford Handbook of Charles Dickens Robert L. Chesterton, 2013-12-03 Fashion An ideals that fails to satisfy Water A medicine It should be taken in small quantities in very extreme cases as when one is going to faint Work Doing what you do not like This quirky original compilation serves up the eccentric wit and thought provoking aphorisms of one of the twentieth century s liveliest and most articulate minds Assembled by the president of the American Chesterton Society it features alphabetical entries of Chesternitions pithy and poetic definitions of words in the spirit of Samuel Johnson Great for casual browsing or cover to cover study the volume includes more than two dozen of Chesterton s distinctive drawings     The Essay Raphael Dorman O'Leary, 1928
