Gabon Nation Building On The Ogooue:

Gabon Brian Weinstein,1970 Nation Building, State Building, and Economic Development Sarah C.M.

Paine,2015-01-28 Why do some countries remain poor and dysfunctional while others thrive and become affluent The expert contributors to this volume seek to identify reasons why prosperity has increased rapidly in some countries but not others by constructing and comparing cases The case studies focus on the processes of nation building state building and economic development in comparably situated countries over the past hundred years Part I considers the colonial legacy of India Algeria the Philippines and Manchuria In Part II the analysis shifts to the anticolonial development strategies of Soviet Russia Atatürk s Turkey Mao s China and Nasser s Egypt Part III is devoted to paired cases in which ostensibly similar environments yielded very different outcomes Haiti and the Dominican Republic Jordan and Israel the Republic of the Congo and neighboring Gabon North Korea and South Korea and Papua New Guinea and Indonesia All the studies examine the combined constraints and opportunities facing policy makers their policy objectives and the effectiveness of their strategies The concluding chapter distills what these cases can tell us about successful development with findings that do not validate the conventional wisdom Nation-Building and Citizenship Reinhard Bendix,2017-07-05 Nation Building and Citizenship

examines how states and civil societies interact in their formation of a new political community Reinhard Bendix directs our attention to relations established between individual and state during nation building While the development of citizenship and the interplay between tradition and modernity are important in this process of social and political change his key theme is the examination of authority patterns Bendix explores in depth the possibilities of an alternative approach to the neo evolutionary orientation many social scientists take in their analyses of the underdeveloped areas of the world The subjects he discusses include transformations of Western European societies since medieval times extension of citizenship to the lower classes bureaucratization in the nation state private and public authority in Western Europe and Russia aristocracies and development in Germany and Japan and the development of public authority in India s political community The book concludes with a reconsideration of ideas widely held about tradition modernity and modernization In a new introduction John Bendix writes that what continues to make this book relevant is not only what it can tell us about past and present nation building including the transformations of the 1980s and 1990s but its more general messages about the nature of social and political transformations Nation Building and Citizenship is a necessary addition to the libraries of political scientists sociologists historians and scholars of comparative studies Practicing Biomedicine at the Albert

Schweitzer Hospital 1913-1965 Tizian Zumthurm,2020-08-10 Tizian Zumthurm uses the extraordinary hospital of an extraordinary man to produce novel insights into the ordinary practice of biomedicine in colonial Central Africa His investigation of therapeutic routines in surgery maternity care psychiatry and the treatment of dysentery and leprosy reveals the incoherent nature of biomedicine and not just in Africa Reading rich archival sources against and along the grain the author combines concepts that appeal to those interested in the history of medicine and colonialism Through the microcosm of the hospital Zumthurn brings to light the social worlds of Gabonese patients as well as European staff By refusing to easily categorize colonial medical encounters the book challenges our understanding of biomedicine as solely domineering or interactive Gabon Brian Weinstein,1966 Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 5, A Bibliographic Guide to Colonialism in Sub-Saharan Africa L. H. Gann,Peter Duignan,1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism Colonial Rule and Crisis in Equatorial Africa Christopher John Gray,2002 A look at the encounter between the French and the peoples of Southern Gabon in terms of their differing conceptions of boundaries In the second half of the nineteenth century two very different practices of territoriality confronted each other in Southern Gabon Clan and lineage relationships were most important in the local practice while the French practice was informed by a territorial definition of society that had emerged with the rise of the modern nation state and industrial capitalism This modern territoriality used an array of bureaucratic instruments such as maps and censuses previously unknown in equatorial Africa Such instruments denied the existence of locally created territories and were fundamental to the exercise of colonial power Thus modern territoriality imposed categories and institutions foreign to the peoples to whom they were applied As colonial power became more effective from the 1920s on those institutions started to be appropriated by Gabonese cultural elites who negotiated their meanings in reference to their own traditions The result was a strongly ambiguous condition that left its imprint on the new colonial territories and subsequently the postcolonial Gabonese state Christopher Gray was Assistant Professor of History Florida International University Ethnic Groups in Conflict, Updated Edition With a New Preface Donald L. are some multiethnic countries more prone to civil violence than others This book examines the occurrence and forms of conflict in multiethnic states It presents a theory that explains not only why ethnic groups rebel but also how they rebel It shows that in extremely unequal societies conflict typically occurs in non violent forms because marginalized groups lack both the resources and the opportunities for violent revolt In contrast in more equal but segmented multiethnic societies violent conflict is more likely

The Ties That Divide Stephen M. Saideman, 2001-04-18 Ethnic conflicts have created crises within NATO and between NATO and Russia produced massive flows of refugees destabilized neighboring countries and increased the risk of nuclear war between Pakistan and India Interventions have cost the United States the United Nations and other actors billions of dollars While scholars and policymakers have devoted considerable attention to this issue the question of why states take sides in other countries ethnic conflicts has largely been ignored Most attention has been directed at debating the value of particular techniques to manage ethnic conflict including partition prevention mediation intervention and the like However as the Kosovo dispute demonstrated one of the biggest obstacles to resolving ethnic conflicts is getting the outside actors to cooperate This book addresses this question Saideman argues that domestic political competition compels countries to support the side of an ethnic conflict with which constituents share ethnicities He applies this argument to the Congo Crisis the Nigerian Civil War and Yugoslavia's civil wars He then applies quantitative analyses to ethnic conflicts in the 1990s Finally he discusses recent events in Kosovo and whether the findings of these case studies apply more broadly

Equatorial Guinea Ibrahim K Sundiata, 2019-04-11 The troubled history of Equatorial Guinea reflects the history of other developing nations The author traces the state's troubled path from colonialism to independence emphasizing the obstacles that separate Equatorial Guinea from complete self sufficiency

Chad Mario Azevedo, 2019-08-28 Chad the fifth largest country in Africa has experienced great difficulties politically economically and socially During the 1980s and early 1990s Chad briefly held international attention because of its warring with Libya This situation underlines Chad's potential for drawing its neighbors Libya Sudan Cameroon and Nigeria in particular a

Bwiti James W Fernandez, 2019-01-29 We cannot the author argues adequately understand the religious imagination without knowing the historical social and cultural matrices from which it arises Accordingly his book explores the Fang culture of Gabon as a set of contexts from which emerges the Bwiti religion In addition to experience with missionary Christianity Bwiti uses a great reservoir of images and ideas from its own past Professor Fernandez analyzes how they are recreated into a compelling religious universe an equatorial microcosm Part I a detailed ethnographic account of Fang culture after colonial encounter addresses the attendant problems The author discusses the European influence on the self concept of the Fang family life and kinship and political and economic relationships Part II analyzes in greater detail the religious implications of European administration and missionary efforts In Part III the author shows how the malaise and increasing isolation of part of Fang culture achieve some assuagement of the Bwiti religion which seeks a reconciliation of the past and present James W

Political Development and the New Realism in Sub-Saharan Africa David Ernest Apter, Carl Gustav Rosberg, 1994 Since the 1950s David Apter and Carl Rosenberg have been among the leading American scholars in African Studies In this volume they along with other major specialists in the field explore the new configurations of African politics With tentative efforts at a revival of democracy now taking place it seems appropriate to reassess the theoretical debates and empirical themes that have characterized postwar Sub-Saharan African politics Focusing on new realism that has emerged among Africanists since the dismantling of colonial rule the essays are presented as a corrective both to the initial euphoria informing African studies and to the later tendency to place blame for all Africa's political and economic difficulties on the receding specter of colonial oppression

The International Politics of the Nigerian Civil War, 1967-1970 John J. Stremlau, 2015-03-08 Biafra's declaration of independence on May 30 1967 precipitated a civil war with important implications for the territorial integrity of all newly independent African states Allegations of genocide commanded the world's attention and brought forth unprecedented humanitarian intervention This full account of the internationalization of that conflict draws on hitherto confidential records and more than two hundred interviews with foreign policymakers including Yakubu Gowon and C Odumegwu Ojukwu Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Masks of Identity Přemysl Mácha, José Eloy Gómez Pellón, 2014-06-02 This collection of essays offers some thoughts on alterity otherness in anthropological praxis viewed through the prism of the Latin American reality It is neither an exhaustive treatment of the problem of Otherness in anthropological theory nor a definitive analysis of the various forms of represented practiced and contested alterities in Latin American history Rather the authors have been brought together by several common concerns The first is an interest in exploring and understanding some of the ways in which Otherness structures social relations at the everyday as well as the national levels The second is a theoretical and methodological question of how the perspective which foregrounds the Other at the expense of the Self might make the anthropological inquiry more effective and emancipatory Thirdly the authors are interested in how they can as researchers teachers and citizens help overcome cleavages which group identities constantly produce in the body of humanity The Others that the authors of this book explore include indigenous peoples mestizos African slaves women insurgent peasants as well as hybrid groups re claiming a new identity While each of the eight authors focuses on social phenomena from different time periods and parts of Latin America they all share as their common denominator the Spanish colonization of the continent which set off a series of events whose consequences eventually exceeded the wildest fantasies of the boldest thinkers of these times The authors particularly focus on the visual representation and performance of alterity but also give room to some non visual ways in which Otherness is established and subverted Inevitably this volume presents a diverse selection of contributions which nevertheless share some common problems concerns and hopes which in their totality provide a complex picture of Otherness in everyday life in historical and contemporary Latin America

Ethnicities and Tribes in

Sub-Saharan Africa S. N. Sangmpam, 2017-03-08 This book proposes new avenues for understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa Much research on ethnicity and cultural pluralism in Sub Saharan Africa falsely equates the term tribe with ethnicity and obscures the differences between Sub Saharan Africa and other regions It also puts too much emphasis on the role of the colonial state in fostering tribal allegiance This book challenges these claims and offers an alternate way of understanding tribal allegiance in Sub Saharan Africa
