Gabriel Orozco Empty Club:

Gabriel Orozco, 1998 Gabriel Orozco Ann Temkin, 2009 From the developer of Play and Participation in Contemporary Arts Practices Tim Stott, 2015-03-24 This book engages debates in current art criticism concerning the turn toward participatory works of art In particular it analyzes ludic participation in which play and games are used organizationally so that participants actively engage with or complete the work of art through their play Here Stott explores the complex and systematic organization of works of ludic participation showing how these correlate with social systems of communication exhibition and governance At a time when the advocacy of play and participation has become widespread in our culture he addresses the shortage of literature on the use of play and games in modern and contemporary arts practice in order to begin a play theory of organization and governance The Global Rules of Art Larissa Buchholz, 2022-11-22 A trailblazing look at the historical emergence of a global field in contemporary art and the diverse ways artists become valued worldwide Prior to the 1980s the postwar canon of international contemporary art was made up almost exclusively of artists from North America and Western Europe while cultural agents from other parts of the world often found themselves on the margins The Global Rules of Art examines how this discriminatory situation has changed in recent decades Drawing from abundant sources including objective indicators from more than one hundred countries multiple institutional histories and discourses extensive fieldwork and interviews with artists critics curators gallerists and auction house agents Larissa Buchholz examines the emergence of a world spanning art field whose logics have increasingly become defined in global terms Deftly blending comprehensive historical analyses with illuminating case studies The Global Rules of Art breaks new ground in its exploration of valuation and how cultural hierarchies take shape in a global context The book s innovative global field approach will appeal to scholars in the sociology of art cultural and economic sociology interdisciplinary global studies and anyone interested in the dynamics of global art and culture Empty Club Gabriel Orozco, 1998 Texts by Jean Fisher Guy Brett and Daniel McLane This catalog documents an installation done in an abandoned London club by contemporary artist Gabriel Orozco Consisting of works centered on the imagery of British sports and club life the exhibition was an important one in the development of this emerging and daring artist Off Limits James Lingwood, Michael Morris, 2002 Surveying 40 projects realised over the past decade by film makers writers visual artists composers choreographers and performers this text provides a unique overview of the special alchemy generated when a location becomes central to the development of a work of art Restaging the Future Louise Owen, 2023-12-15 An examination of neoliberal ideology s ascendance in 1990s and 2000s British politics and society through its effect on state supported performance practices Post Thatcher British cultural politics were shaped by the government s use of the arts in service of its own social and economic agenda Restaging the Future Neoliberalization Theater and Performance in Britain interrogates how arts practices and cultural institutions were enmeshed with the particular processes of neoliberalization mobilized at the end of the twentieth century and into the twenty first Louise Owen traces the uneasy entanglement of performance with neoliberalism's marketization of social life Focusing on this political moment Owen guides readers through a wide range of performance works crossing multiple forms genres and spaces from European dance tours to Brazilian favelas to the streets of Liverpool attending to their distinct implications for the reenvisioned future in whose wake we now live Analyzing this array of participatory dance film music public art and theater projects Owen uncovers unexpected affinities between community based experimental and avant garde movements Restaging the Future provides key historical context for these performances their negotiations of their political moment and their themes of insecurity identity and inequality created in a period of profound ideological and socioeconomic change Gabriel Orozco Sarah Cosulich Canarutto, Francesco

Bonami, 2008 Comprehensive survey of Orozco's work providing analyses of key works He is considered the leading conceptual and installational artist of his generation TRADE Theatre in the Expanded Field Alan Read, 2013-12-05

Theatre in the Expanded Field is a fiercely original bold and daring exploration of the fields of theatre and performance studies and the received narratives and histories that underpin them Rich with interdisciplinary reference international eclectic and broad ranging in its examples it offers readers a compelling and provocative reassessment of the disciplines one that spans pre history to the present day Sixty years ago in 1962 Richard Southern wrote a remarkable book called The Seven Ages of the Theatre It was unusual in its time for taking a trans disciplinary new historical and avowedly internationalist approach to its subject nothing less than a totalizing view of its field Theatre in the Expanded Field does not attempt to mimic Southern's work but rather takes his spirit of adventure and ambition as its frame for the contemporary moment of performance and its diverse pasts Identifying seven ways of exploring the performance field from pre history to postdramatic theatre the book presents studies of both contemporary and historical works not as a chronological succession but in keeping with their coeval qualities as movements or generations of connection and interaction dissensus and interruption It does this with the same purpose as Richard Southern's original work to provide for the planning of responsive performance spaces now Illustrated throughout with line drawings Theatre in the Expanded Field is as richly rewarding as it is ambitious and expansive in its vision Breaking Down the Barriers Richard Cork, 2003-01-01 Item consists of collected criticism and essays on art in Britain written in the 1990's for The Times
