representations of identity     Stone Mad Seamus Murphy, 2025-04-17 50th Anniversary Edition Paperback In the sharply formal conversations of the stonemen the bittersweet flavour of provincial Ireland is presented with neither sentiment nor adornment William Trevor The Guardian The men who have gone before us have left us a heritage to be proud of and we feel our own contribution has been for the good Seamus Murphy from the preface to Stone Mad In Stone Mad Seamus Murphy tells the story of his seven years spent as an apprentice to the stone carving trade the growing knowledge of the challenges and joys of stone and of the men who worked it His artistic feeling for the quality responded to his workmates reverence for the well made thing The result is a book of surpassing beauty full of warmth humour and profound perception     A Start in Life Alan Sillitoe, 2016-08-09 An outrageously funny novel of adventure sex corruption and crime from one of the greatest British authors of the twentieth century Michael Cullen is proud to be a bastard His first memories are of the war when his mother welcomed every soldier in Britain into her house and young Michael hid beneath her bed to let the rocking of the springs lull him to sleep By the time he s eighteen he s got a pregnant girlfriend and is staring down a long life of working class respectability that simply makes him sick So Michael says goodbye to his girlfriend and his home in Nottingham and hits the road for London where he will make his fortune or die trying From the nightclubs of Soho to the depths of London s underworld Michael can t help but get into trouble But whether he s chauffeuring a vicious gangster or smuggling gold bullion across the channel he never stops having a wonderful time Indeed Michael is something else entirely a happy bastard with nothing to lose A rollicking picaresque novel by the legendary author of such classics of kitchen sink realism as The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner and Saturday Night and Sunday Morning A Start in Life is one of the funniest British novels of the twentieth century A Start in Life is the 1st book in the Michael Cullen Novels but you may enjoy reading the series in any order A Start in Life is for my money the best novel that Sillitoe has yet written New Statesman The kind of hilarious nonsense that keeps you riveted to deck chair or arm chair depending on the season The Daily Telegraph Praise for Alan Sillitoe The master of British verbal architecture Rolling Stone Alan Sillitoe 1928 2010 was a British novelist poet essayist and playwright known for his honest humorous and acerbic accounts of working class life Sillitoe served four years in the Royal Air Force and lived for six years in France and Spain before returning to England His first novel Saturday Night and Sunday Morning was published in 1958 and was followed by a collection of short stories The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner which won the Hawthornden Prize for Literature With over fifty volumes to his name Sillitoe was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature in 1997     Without Frontiers: The Life & Music of Peter Gabriel Daryl Easlea, 2018-03-23 He became famous with Genesis but simply to call Peter Gabriel a pop star would be to sell him very short indeed Peter Gabriel has pursued several overlapping careers neither becoming a parody of his past self nor self consciously seeking new images he instead took his creativeness and perfectionism into fresh fields In 1975 he diversified into film soundtracks and audio visual ventures while engaging in tireless charity work and supporting major peace initiatives He has also become world music's most illustrious champion since launching WOMAD festival. These and several other careers make writing Peter Gabriel's biography an unusually challenging task but Daryl Easlea has undertaken countless hours of interviews with key friends, musicians, aides and confidants. Updated and revised for 2018, Without Frontiers gets to the heart of the psychological threads common to so many of Gabriel's disparate endeavours and in the end a picture emerges: an extraordinary picture of an extraordinary man. Extra features include integrated Spotify playlists charting the best of Genesis output with Peter Gabriel as well as an interactive digital timeline of his life filled with pictures and videos of live performances, interviews and more. The peculiar white-lipped dynamic between Gabriel and his erstwhile Charterhouse chums in Genesis is vividly evoked. Record Collector. A truly wonderful biography of one of the most amazing artists of our time. Highly recommended. Douglas Harr, author of Rockin' the City of Angels. Merry England, 1894. Ethics. Kropotkin, 2021-02-15. Ethics is the swan song of the great humanitarian scientist and anarchist Peter Kropotkin. It constitutes as it were the crowning work and the resume of all his scientific, philosophical and sociological views at which he arrived in the course of his long and unusually rich life. Starting with the moral principle in nature to the moral conceptions of primitive peoples, Kropotkin traces the development of moral teachings from Ancient Greece, Christianity and the Middle Ages through to the 19th-century philosophers. In this way Ethics gives answers to two fundamental problems of morality: its origin and historical development and its goals and standards. A realist and a revolutionist, Kropotkin regarded ethics not as an abstract science of human conduct but as a concrete scientific discipline whose object it was to inspire people in their practical activities. According to his theory, mutual aid, justice and self-sacrifice are the three elements of morality and these elements lie at the basis of human ethics. He held that ethics should be one and the same for all people that no matter what class or party one might belong to, we were all first of all human beings. In his introduction, George Woodcock, a great humanitarian in his own right, describes the background from out of which Kropotkin was moved to write this unforgettable work. He introduces the reader not only to the political and social climate but also to the man and his innermost concerns. Ethics is the 8th volume of The Collected Works of Peter Kropotkin published by Black Rose Books. The Life of Charles Lamb. Edward Verrall Lucas, 1921. Her Life's Work. Deborah Shepard, 2013-11-01. Spanning the impressive careers of five notable New Zealand women, this uncommon examination portrays the lives of Merimeri Penfold, Margaret Mahy, Anne Salmond, Gaylene Preston and Jacqueline Fahey. Having each carved out their own distinguished reputations as artists, writers, teachers, filmmakers and thinkers, this investigation demonstrates how each of them has balanced a professional life with a personal one. In five in-depth interviews, this record explores their families, education, the impact intimate relationships have on their creativity and how each juggles life's demands. Reflecting on immense changes in society throughout their lifetimes, this biographical account illustrates the second half of the 20th century, capturing how it directly affected the women's professional and personal lives. Touching on major events and challenges, this study also depicts the Land March in 1975, the rise of feminism and the genesis of Indigenous rights movements With five stunning new photographic portraits by renowned photographer Marti Friedlander this is a striking example of how those who grappled with sexism glass ceilings and domestic expectation still found the balance to lead fruitful public lives in the arts and academia     The British Novelists William Mudford, 1816
