Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006 Exultant Stephen Baxter,2004-10-26 Baxter has an uncanny gift for mixing a punchy cyberpunk cynicism with his resolutely hard SF story base Exultant rivals Asimov in its boundless vision for the future evolution of humanity Kirkus Reviews starred review For more than twenty thousand years humans have been at war with the alien race of Xeelee Faced with certain death a young pilot Pirius disobeys orders and travels into the future Upon his return Pirius is court martialed and sentenced to penal servitude But it is not only Pirius who pays the price In flying into the future and back again Pirius returned to a time before he d left a time inhabited by his younger self who also receives punishment Commissary Nilis believes that the elder Pirius whom he dubs Pirius Blue may know how to defeat the Xeelee But Nilis can do nothing for Pirius Blue Instead he takes the younger Pirius Pirius Red back to Earth There Pirius Red will discover truths that shatter his preconceived notions of all that he is fighting for while Pirius Blue will learn even harsher truths But the most shocking revelation of all is still to come Absurdly ambitious technically brilliant and downright exciting SFX Magazine Striking chilling with a triumphant conclusion Starburst Starship Moonhawk Michael Prokop,2004-12 In the distant future one ship stands between order and chaos Decades of war has caused the United States Alliance to put their last hopes into a massive space battleship The U S S Moonhawk The Moonhawk itself is the largest ship ever created by human hands with enough firepower to destroy an entire planet in the blink of an eye Circumstances force the launch date to be moved up and the Moonhawks adventures are nearly ended before they ever begin Enter the Outsiders On the surface they are normal human beings Underneath they are very powerful psionics with the ability to do fantastic feats with the power of their minds Could they be the next step in human evolution When trouble starts on a remote outpost the Moonhawk and her crew are called out to investigate but all is not as it seems when the Outsiders are involved Are they acting alone or are they receiving help from the Alliances arch nemesis The Crysallian Collective Discover the truth with our intrepid crew as they try to figure out who is the Inside Outsider Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez,2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain s imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje s Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi s poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer s mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil
