Border-Crossing and Comedy at the Théâtre Italien, 1716-1723 Matthew J. McMahan, 2021-03-30

How do nationalized stereotypes inform the reception and content of the migrant comedian's work How do performers adapt What gets lost and found in translation Border Crossing and Comedy at the Théâtre Italien 1716-1723 explores these questions in an early modern context When a troupe of commedia dell'arte actors were invited by the French crown to establish a theatre in Paris they found their transition was anything but easy They had to learn a new language and adjust to French expectations and demands This study presents their story as a dynamic model of coping with the challenges of migration whereby the actors made their transnational identity a central focus of their comedy Relating their work to popular twenty-first century comedians this book also discusses the tools and ideas that contextualize the border crossing comedian's work including diplomacy translation improvisation and parody across time

Bellies, bowels and entrails in the eighteenth century Rebecca Anne Barr, Sylvie Kleiman-Lafon, Sophie Vasset, 2018-08-08 This collection of essays seeks to challenge the notion of the supremacy of the brain as the key organ of the Enlightenment by focusing on the workings of the bowels and viscera that so obsessed writers and thinkers during the long eighteenth century These inner organs and the digestive process acted as counterpoints to politeness and other modes of refined sociability drawing attention to the deeper workings of the self Moving beyond recent studies of luxury and conspicuous consumption where dysfunctional bowels have been represented as a symptom of excess this book seeks to explore other manifestations of the visceral and to explain how the bowels played a crucial part in eighteenth century emotions and perceptions of the self The collection offers an interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspective on entrails and digestion by addressing urban history visual studies literature medical history religious history and material culture in England France and Germany

The Fiction of Enlightenment Heidi Bostic, 2010 This book argues that women authors of the French eighteenth century claimed reason and contributed to Enlightenment It begins by framing the Enlightenment as fiction in two senses first what passes under the name of Enlightenment in much current critical discourse is a fiction or a caricatured construct second works of fiction can illuminate Enlightenment The book offers fresh readings of texts by the three most prominent women among eighteenth century writers in French Francoise de Graffigny Marie Jeanne Riccoboni and Isabelle de Charriere These authors challenged the widely held idea that women's reason was inferior to men's Literary forms novels stories plays essays and letters allowed these authors to approach the question of reason in particularly nuanced ways Faithful to the eighteenth century this project is also relevant to the twenty first Book Jacket No Kidding! Donald McManus, 2003 This work examines the way the clown has been used as a serious character by important playwrights and directors in twentieth century theater Experiments with Clown by Jean Cocteau Vsevolod Meyerhold Bertolt Brecht Samuel Beckett Giorgio Strehler Dario Fo and Roberto Benigni are examined Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1984 Rococo Marcus Felsner, 2010 Magia D'amore Murray Pomerance, 1999 Short Fiction In the stories of MAGIA D'AMORE Scaramouche Pierrot Columbine Imbroglia Credenzo Stupenzo and dozens of other stock and imaginary characters of the Commedia dell'Arte enter exit and recombine in a series of sexual societal and political encounters These sometimes scatological often scandalous always sexual figures jump across the pages and time like puppets who have escaped their creator's hands These fantastic tales were published originally in such journals as The Kenyon Review and the New Directions Annual Born in Hamilton Ontario Murray Pomerance is the author of several books of fiction He lives in Toronto MAGIA D'AMORE is Part of the Sun Moon Classics Series Samuel French's Basic Catalogue of Plays Samuel French, Inc., The Last Libertines Benedetta Craveri, 2020-10-20 This rich highly enjoyable portrait of an extraordinary moment in French history introduces us to 7 dazzling aristocrats who rose and fell during the French Revolution Guardian Benedetta Craveri reveals the history of the Libertine generation whose youth coincided with the French monarchy's final moment of grace a moment when a style of life based on privilege and the spirit of caste might acknowledge the widespread demand for change and reconcile itself with Enlightenment ideals of justice tolerance and citizenship Here we meet 7 characters who Craveri singles out not only for their romantic character but also for the keenness with which they experienced this crisis of the ancien regime of which they themselves were the emblem Duc de Lauzun Vicomte de Sgur Duc de Brissac Comte de Narbonne Chevalier de Boufflers Comte de Sgur Comte de Vaudreuil These men were at once irreducible individualists and true sons of the Enlightenment all of them ambitious to play their part in bringing around the great changes that were in the air But when the French Revolution came they found themselves condemned to poverty exile and in some cases execution Telling the parallel lives of these dazzling but little remembered historical figures Craveri brings the past to life powerfully dramatizing a turbulent time that was at once the last act of a now vanished world and the first act of our own Basic Catalogue of Plays and Musicals Samuel French, Inc, 2000 1/2/3/4 For the Show Lewis W.
