Purdum, 2014-04 A top Washington journalist recounts the dramatic political battle to pass the Civil Rights Act of 1964 the law that created modern America on the fiftieth anniversary of its passage It was a turbulent time in America a time of sit ins freedom rides a March on Washington and a governor standing in the schoolhouse door when John F Kennedy sent Congress a bill to bar racial discrimination in employment education and public accommodations Countless civil rights measures had died on Capitol Hill in the past But this one was different because as one influential senator put it it was an idea whose time has come In a powerful narrative layered with revealing detail Todd S Purdum tells the story of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 recreating the legislative maneuvering and the larger than life characters who made its passage possible From the Kennedy brothers to Lyndon Johnson from Martin Luther King Jr to Hubert Humphrey and Everett Dirksen Purdum shows how these all too human figures managed in just over a year to create a bill that prompted the longest filibuster in the history of the U S Senate yet was ultimately adopted with overwhelming bipartisan support He evokes the high purpose and low dealings that marked the creation of this monumental law drawing on extensive archival research and dozens of new interviews that bring to life this signal achievement in American history Often hailed as the most important law of the past century the Civil Rights Act stands as a lesson for our own troubled times about what is possible when patience bipartisanship and decency rule the day American Political Music: Alabama-New York [Frankenthaler Danny O.
