A Gallery of Reflections Richard Harries, 1995-01-01      New Perspectives on the Nativity Jeremy Corley, 2009-09-17 The infancy narratives represent some of the most beautiful and intriguing passages in the Gospels The stories they relate are also arguably the most well known in the Christian tradition from the child in the manger to the Magi paying homage to the infant Jesus However there have been relatively few attempts to consider the stories of the Nativity from modern academic perspectives examining them from feminist perspectives political standpoints in cinematic representations as well as more standard but up to date academic approaches New Perspectives on the Nativity attempts to redress this providing a fresh insights on these crucial Christian texts from a cast of distinguished contributors At the outset Henry Wansbrough surveys scholarship on the infancy narratives since Raymond Brown's landmark study The Birth of the Messiah 2nd edition 1993 Thereafter four chapters deal with Luke's infancy story Ian Boxall demonstrates how the narrative offers subtle foreshadowings of the passion and resurrection Barbara Reid surveys Luke's portrayal of three female prophets Elizabeth Mary and Anna who prepare for the later presentation of Jesus as a prophet Leonard Maluf suggests a new understanding of Zechariah's canticle the Benedictus by situating it firmly in its Jewish background Finally Nicholas King indicates how the inn of the nativity prefigures the later journey of the gospel message The next four contributions are concerned with Matthew's narrative Warren Carter shows how the conflict between the infant Jesus and the ruling powers is repeated more dramatically in the life and death of the adult Christ Benedict Viviano proposes that the three stages in Matthew's genealogy of Jesus belong within a grand scheme of seven ages of salvation history Bernard Robinson investigates Matthew's nativity story within the context of biblical and Greco Roman history writing Christopher Fuller highlights the carnivalesque approach to the Magi story in Pasolini's classic film The Gospel According to St Matthew Three final essays focus on the religious value of the infancy stories Ann Loades reflects on late 20th century poems dealing with the nativity John Kaltner explores the references to Jesus birth found in Islamic tradition Finally Thomas O Loughlin argues that contemporary preoccupations with historical investigation can blind us to the mystery presented in the nativity stories

Jesus in History, Thought, and Culture Leslie Houlden, 2003-12-08 This unique multidisciplinary study views Jesus as one of the most central figures in history with a wide ranging impact on society literature art and philosophy Jesus in History Thought and Culture distills 2 000 years of thinking about Jesus into two intriguing volumes In more than 200 A Z entries internationally recognized scholars summarize views of Jesus from the Gospel writers to contemporary theologians Not only does the book explore Christian liturgy and worship including the long lasting 4th and 5th century schisms over whether Jesus is human or divine but it examines the position of Jesus in the traditions of other world religions such as Judaism Islam and Hinduism Even outside religion little has been untouched by Jesus's influence Jesus affected social and political theory in his time and continues to do so today The encyclopedia also explores his changing image in art sculpture music and literature pulling disparate fields of study into one powerful resource Scholars students of theology and world religions and other interested readers will all welcome this unique resource

The Living Church ,1996-07      The Shaping of a Soul Richard Harries,2023-03-31 Richard Harries was serving as a soldier in Germany when he suddenly had an overwhelming sense that God was calling him to be ordained He had virtually no religious background but like Martin Luther he could do no other The Shaping of a Soul is the story of a man who has engaged in some of the major issues of our time and who for fifty years has been a much loved voice on Thought for the Day in the Today programme Bishop of Oxford from 1987 to 2006 Harries was made a Life Peer on his retirement and remains active in the House of Lords as Lord Harries of Pentregarth In a life repeatedly taken by surprise he tells how he is still able to retain his faith even in our present highly secular and sceptical society

Jesus in History, Legend, Scripture, and Tradition Leslie Houlden,Antone Minard,2015-06-23 This multifaceted work contextualizes Jesus in religion and culture by bringing together articles on folklore history literature philosophy popular culture and theology Many books have been written about Jesus but this two volume work takes a different approach than most What sets it apart is that it emphasizes Jesus lasting impact on world history and his legacy in the imagination over 2 000 years Written as an introduction the encyclopedia is equally suitable for Christians who wish to better understand the history and philosophy of their religion and for non Christians who wish to grasp Christianity in its historical and social contexts Alphabetically arranged entries cover representations of Jesus in the bible and the writings of key theologians examining the essentials of philosophical and religious views across history The set also includes hundreds of entries that reflect on the role Jesus has played in popular culture and contemporary vernacular religion perspectives that are not usually placed alongside theology Through the encyclopedia students will see how artists writers philosophers church figures and others have imagined Jesus and been influenced by their perceptions of him At the same time primary documents will encourage students to compare and contrast ideas and evaluate arguments that have arisen over 20 centuries

Tradition and Imagination David Brown,1999-11-25 Tradition and revelation are often seen as opposites tradition is viewed as being secondary and reactionary to revelation which is a one off gift from God Drawing on examples from Christian history Judaism Islam and the classical world this book challenges these definitions and presents a controversial examination of the effect history and cultural development has on religious belief its narratives and art David Brown pays close attention to the nature of the relationship between historical and imaginative truth and focuses on the way stories from the Bible have not stood still but are subject to imaginative rewriting This rewriting is explained as a natural consequence of the interaction between religion and history God speaks to humanity through the imagination and human imagination is influenced by historical context It is the imagination that ensures that religion continues to develop in new and challenging ways

The Publishers Weekly ,1879      Lutheran Forum ,1997      Painting the Text Martin O'Kane,2007 In this masterly work Martin O Kane shows artists at work as readers of the Bible and not simply as illustrators of biblical scenes The painter s eye commonly sees nuances and subtleties of plot and characterization in the biblical text that traditional biblical criticism has overlooked Focussing in fine detail on some well known biblical themes the deception of Isaac the depiction of Isaiah s suffering servant the visit of the Magi and the flight into Egypt among others O Kane argues that modern readers need the artist s exegetical insight and engagement to appreciate the text fully Ranging widely over mediaeval Renaissance and modern art the author situates his work within the hermeneutical aesthetics of Hans Georg Gadamer Mieke Bal and Paolo Berdini Some 30 images are reproduced in the text

Birth of Jesus George J. Brooke, 2000-11-30 What is the significance of the birth of Jesus for us today In this book some of the sharpest and most discerning New Testament scholars offer their frank assessment Philip Alexander Gerald Downing Elaine Graham Grace Jantzen Todd Klutz Barry Matlock Arthur Peacocke and Graham Ward consider issues ranging from Jesus circumcision and his DNA to the power of the nativity stories and their symbolic efficacy

Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses Rudolf Steiner, 2016-06-01 13 slide presentations Dornach Oct 8 1916 Oct 29 1917 CW 292 I am going to show you a series of reproductions of slides from a period in art history to which the human mind will probably always return to contemplate and consider for if we consider history as a reflection of inner spiritual impulses it is precisely in this evolutionary moment that we see certain human circumstances ones that are among the deepest and most decisive for the outer course of human history expressed through a relationship to art Rudolf Steiner Rudolf Steiner understood that the history of art is a field in which the evolution of consciousness is symptomatically and transparently revealed This informal sequence of thirteen lectures was given during the darkest hours of World War I It was a moment when the negative consequences of what he called the age of the consciousness soul which began around 1417 were made most terribly apparent In these lectures he sought to provide an antidote to pessimism After describing the movement of consciousness from Greece into Rome coupled with influences from the Orthodox East he showed how these influences transformed as the Middle Ages became the Renaissance The process that begins with Cimabue and Giotto develops deepens and becomes more conscious in the great Renaissance masters Leonardo Michelangelo and Raphael Then this movement continues with the Northern masters Durer and Holbein as well as the German tradition One entire lecture is devoted to Rembrandt followed by one on Dutch and Flemish paintings Themes are woven together to show how past epochs of consciousness and art live again in our consciousness soul period Replete with interesting information and more than 600 color and black and white images these lectures are rich and dense with ideas enabling us to understand both the art of the Renaissance and the transformation of consciousness it announced These lectures demonstrate to paraphrase Shelley that artists truly are the unacknowledged legislators of the age Art History as a Reflection of Inner Spiritual Impulses is a translation from German of Kunstgeschichte als Abbild innerer geistiger Impulse GA 292 Rudolf Steiner Verlag 2000

Rembrandt Hermann Knackfuss, 1899 Monographs on artists, 1899 A Magnificent Faith Bridget Heal, 2017-07-25 A Magnificent Faith explains how and why Lutheranism a confession that derived its significance from the promulgation of God's Word became a visually magnificent faith a faith whose adherents sought to captivate Christians hearts and minds through seeing as well as through hearing Although Protestantism is no longer understood as an exclusively word based religion the paradigm of evangelical ambivalence towards images retains its power This is the first study to offer an account of the Reformation origins and subsequent flourishing of the Lutheran baroque of the rich visual culture that developed in parts of the Holy Roman Empire during the later seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries The volume opens with a discussion of the legacy of the Wittenberg Reformation Three sections then focus on the confessional devotional and magnificent image exploring turning points in Lutherans attitudes towards religious art Drawing on a wide variety of archival printed and visual sources from two of the Empire's most important Protestant territories Saxony the heartland of the Reformation and Brandenburg A Magnificent Faith shows the extent to which Lutheran culture was shaped by territorial divisions It traces the development of a theologically grounded aesthetic and argues that images became prominent vehicles for the articulation of Lutheran identity not only amongst theologians but also amongst laymen and women By examining the role of images in the Lutheran tradition as it developed over the course of two centuries A Magnificent Faith offers a new understanding of the relationship between Protestantism and the visual arts

Dominican Gallery Aidan Nichols,1997      State Tretyakov Gallery Gosudarstvennaya Tret'iakovskaya galerei,1969      The Spirit of Missions ,1871 Includes the proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society

Account of the Palace and Picture Galleries of Hampton Court William POWELL (of East Moulsey.),1853      The Word made Visible in the Painted Image Stephen Miller,2015-11-25 This book explores the areas of perspective proportion witness and theological threshold in the devotional art of the Italian Renaissance with particular reference to the painted image of Christ While the Incarnation in a very real way legitimised the idea of the portrayal of God in human form as Jesus Christ problems remained as to how this might be achieved and whether it should be restricted to the second person of the Holy Trinity This book looks at the creation of pictorial space and the presentation of the image paying special attention to schemes of perspective as a way to better describe reality as well as to considerations of proportion through such geometric methodology as the Golden Section and dynamic root rectangles based on certain perfect or divine ratios to balance and harmonise form The Word Made Visible in the Painted Image also explores the theological theme of threshold and liminal space describes how themes such as the Incarnation and Revelation were represented and looks at the symbolism employed in so doing It shows how such themes were captured set in space and communicated in the painted image This study is necessarily interdisciplinary combining the subject areas of art history and theory theology biblical study philosophy aesthetics physics metaphysics mathematics geometry optics physiology psychology and sociology in greater and lesser degrees Few books take such an interdisciplinary stance on art theology science and related disciplines to this extent
