Padrino: the Godfather Jack Langley,2015-11-18 Who was Il Padrino Since young adulthood when he first became interested in his family's history Jack had wondered why not one of his maternal relatives had ever returned to their ancestral Italian homeland He was now embarking on a long anticipated trip to Italy in search of answers to that plaguing question Little could he foresee the consequences of his visit to the small village of Campagna his grandfather's ancestral home where the chance meeting of Maria Rosato who bears a striking resemblance to Sophia Loren ultimately leads to romance and intrigue Guided by a letter from a great uncle dated in nineteen twenty five he accepts Maria's offer to escort him on his quest for answers to his family's secrets beginning with the family progenitor Don Gaetano Catalano Progressive clues lead them on a circuitous route from their starting point of Campagna to Naples Florence and several small cities in the southern Italian region of Calabria Their quest eventually returns them to the estate of the late Antonio Gibboni his great grand father in the hills above Campagna It is there that they discover portraits of fifteenth and sixteenth century men that bear a striking resemblance to Jack men referred to as Il Padrino The story takes an unexpected turn when they are confronted by a Mafia don a distant relative from New York who has been trailing the couple on their journey Their meeting leads to the ultimate dramatic conclusion when the true identities of the major characters and the long hidden secrets of the Catalano and Gibboni families are revealed A letter found among the treasures long hidden by his ancestors chronicles the often turbulent history and criminal element of the family In an effort to protect the family name it is deemed too sensitive for immediate publication and is ultimately placed in a safe at the new genealogical museum constructed in Campagna at the bequest of the Antonio Gibboni estate where it is destined to be revealed at a ceremony marking the one hundredth anniversary of the facility Be present as the only remaining relative of the Catalano family is there on June 5 2115 to discover the family secrets and what impact they will have on the citizenry of Campagna Jack Langley The Press Gang Godfrey

Cheshire, Matt Zoller Seitz, Armond White, 2020-09-29 A dialogue about cinema's legacy and best directors through essays by three of the best long form critics out there collected from the legendary NYPress for the first time. Comprising of the kind of long form criticism that is all too rare these days, the weekly film columns in the NYPress included polemics, reviews, interviews, festival reports, and features. A far cry from what is often derisively termed the consumer report mode of criticism, Cheshire, Seitz, and White were passionately engaged with the film culture of both their own time and what had come before. They constituted three distinctly different voices, equally accomplished yet notably individual perspectives on cinema. Their distinctive tastes and approaches were often positioned in direct dialogue with each other, a constant critical conversation that frequently saw each writer directly challenging his colleagues. Dialogue is important in criticism, and here you can find a healthy example of it existing under one proverbial roof. This three-way dialogue between Cheshire, Seitz, and White assesses the 1990s in cinema, along with pieces on New York's vibrant repertory scene that allow us to read the authors' takes on directors such as Hitchcock, Lean, Kubrick, Welles, Fassbinder, and Bresson, as well as topics such as the legacy of Star Wars, film noir, early film projection in New York City, the New York Film Critics Circle, Sundance, the terrorist attacks of 9/11, and the emerging cinema of Iran and Taiwan.

Captain Cat and the Umbrella Kid Paul Shaw, 2014-05-29 BOLT FROM THE BLUE This is it, Captain Cat and the Umbrella Kids' most cataclysmic caper yet. The Sinister Snowman escapes from Hammerstein Prison, but that's only the beginning. The giant washing machine of Maxburg is the first of the world's great monuments to be vaporized by an energy beam from space. Who is the menacing mastermind behind this outrage? Could it be an international crime syndicate, FFANG? To solve the mystery, the Tremendous Two will have to travel to Egypt to prevent the Sphinx from being zapped, break into a maximum security girls' school, don disguises to check into a gangster-packed hotel, and finally come face to face with their most fiendish foe yet, the diabolical Big Boss of FFANG. DAY OF THE DINOSAURS Monumental Studios want Captain Cat to star in their latest movie extravaganza about rampaging dinosaurs. The Umbrella Kid is keen until he discovers his part is to be played by obnoxious child star Tom Timm. But Captain Cat has no time for such frivolities. The prized teddy bear belonging to Theodore Thursday, the Brekkie Bikks billionaire, has been kidnapped by the terrible, terrible Toymaker. And that's not all. Pterodactyls are attacking Aunt Titanias' washing line, plesiosaurs are cavorting in park ponds, and Tyrannosaurs are striding down free ways. Monumental Studios' life-sized robot dinosaurs are out of control. A mechanical fault? Or can the Toymaker be playing a duplicitous double game? Whatever the reason, the Day of the Dinosaurs is going to be a very long day.

Organized Crime on Page and Screen David Geherin, 2024-10-25 Thanks to writers like Mario Puzo, filmmakers like Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese, and actors like Al Pacino and James Gandolfini, American and Sicilian Mafia characters are well-known figures in contemporary popular culture. This book takes a close look at all these examples of organized crime by examining the different ways these organizations and their members have
