British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism The Polish Formalist School and Russian Formalism Andrzej Karcz, 2002 Revising his 1999 doctoral dissertation for the University of Chicago Karcz explores the Polish Formalist School of literary theory and analysis which had already sprouted when Russian Formalism was silenced as heresy by Stalinist pressures in 1930 and the relationship between the two movements He begins by discussing the anticipations of Polish Formalism then focuses on the work of Kazimierz Woycicki 1876 1938 Mandred Kridl 1882 1957 and other primary theoreticians and practitioners Excerpts are in English Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com

Literary Theory Terry Eagleton, 2011-11-30 A quarter of a century on from its original publication Literary Theory An Introduction still conjures the subversion excitement and exoticism that characterized theory through the 1960s and 70s when it posed an unprecedented challenge to the literary establishment Eagleton has added a new preface to this anniversary edition to address more recent developments in literary studies including what he describes as the growth of a kind of anti theory and the idea that literary theory has been institutionalized Insightful and enlightening Literary Theory An Introduction remains the essential guide to the field 25th Anniversary Edition of Terry Eagleton's classic introduction to literary theory First published in 1983 and revised in 1996 to include material on developments in feminist and cultural theory Has served as an inspiration to generations of students and teachers Continues to function as arguably the definitive undergraduate textbook on literary theory Reissue includes a new foreword by Eagleton himself reflecting on the impact and enduring success of the book and on developments in literary theory since it was first published 'Pataphysics Christian Bok, 2002 Christian Bok is a Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Fellow affiliated with the Poetics Program at SUNY Buffalo Bok is the author of Crystallography Book I of Information Theory a nominee for the Gerald Lampert Memorial Award given for best poetic debut He has published numerous articles on Canadian avant garde poetry in Open Letter Canadian Literature and Studies in Canadian Literature and his own experimental poetry has been frequently anthologized appearing most recently in Imagining Language Sociological Poetics And Aesthetic Theory Alan Swingewood, 1987-08-04 Literary Structure, Evolution, and Value Jurij Striedter, 1989 Communism and Poetry Ruth Jennison, Julian Murphet, 2019-07-12 Communism and Poetry Writing Against Capital addresses the relationship between an upsurge in collective political practice around the world since 2000 and the crystallization of newly engaged forms of poetry Considering an array of perspectives poets poet critics activists and theorists these essays shed new light on the active interface between emancipatory political thought and poetic production and explore how poetry and the new communism are creating mutually innovative forms of thought and activity supercharging the utopian imagination Drawing inspiration from past connections between communism and poetry and theorizing new directions over the years ahead the volume models a much needed critical solidarity with creative strategies in the present conjuncture to activate movements of resistance on the streets and in verse

International Futurism in Arts and Literature Günter Berghaus, 2012-10-25 This publication offers for the first time an inter disciplinary and comparative perspective on Futurism in a variety of countries and artistic media 20 scholars discuss how the movement shaped the concept of a cultural avant garde and how it influenced the development of modernist art and literature around the world

Imagining Language Jed Rasula, Steve McCaffery, 2001 When works such as Joyce's Finnegans Wake and Stein's Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics

Bergson and Russian Modernism, 1900-1930 Hilary L. Fink, 1999 This study focuses on the Russian modernist attraction to Bergson's notions of duration and intuition his unbridled optimism in both art and life and his belief in the individual's creative power

Modern Genre Theory David Duff, 2014-09-11 Since Aristotle genre has been one of the fundamental concepts of literary theory and much of the world's literature and criticism has been shaped by ideas about the nature function and value of literary genres Modern developments in critical theory however prompted in part by the iconoclastic practices of modern writers and the emergence of new media such as film and television have put in question traditional categories and challenged the assumptions on which earlier genre theory was based This has led not just to a reinterpretation of individual genres and the development of new classifications but also to a radically new understanding of such key topics as the mixing and evolution of genres generic hierarchies and genre systems the politics and sociology of genres and the relations between genre and gender This anthology the first of its kind in English charts these fascinating developments Through judicious selections from major twentieth century genre theorists including Yuri Tynyanov Vladimir Propp Mikhail Bakhtin Hans Robert Jauss Rosalie Colie Fredric Jameson Tzvetan Todorov Gérard Genette and Jacques Derrida it demonstrates the central role that notions of genre have played in Russian Formalism structuralism and post structuralism reception theory and various modes of historical criticism Each essay is accompanied by a detailed headnote and the volume opens with a lucid introduction emphasising the international and interdisciplinary character of modern debates about genre Also included are an annotated bibliography and a glossary of key terms making this an indispensable resource for students and anyone interested in genre studies or literary
