G F Watts:

G.F. Watts Mark Bills, Barbara Bryant, George Frederick Watts, 2008 Widely regarded as a genius and as the greatest painter of the Victorian age George Frederic Watts 1817 1904 was a ceaseless experimenter throughout his seventy year career He was not only the finest and most penetrating portraitist of his age but also a sculptor landscape painter and symbolist This beautifully illustrated book encompasses the work of his entire career from his early self portrait in 1834 and first exhibited painting in the Royal Academy in 1837 to his most iconic work Hope and the remarkable almost abstract painting Sower of the Systems completed in 1903 In addition the book includes historic photographs and archival materials especially concerning the establishment in 1904 of the Watts Picture Gallery in Compton Surrey for the permanent exhibition of his art Essays by leading scholars examine the artist s output life reception and legacy Exhibition Schedule Guildhall Art Gallery November 11 2008 April 2009 G.F. Watts Mrs. Russell Barrington, 1905 The Life-work of George Frederick Watts Hugh Macmillan, 1906 Masters in art , 1905 'Race Is Everything' David Bindman, 2023-07-17 A timely and revealing look at the intertwined histories of science art and racism Race Is Everything explores the spurious but influential ideas of so called racial science in the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth centuries and how art was affected by it David Bindman looks at race in general but with particular concentration on attitudes toward and representations of people of African and Jewish descent He argues that behind all racial ideas of the period lies the belief that outward appearance and especially skull shape as studied in the pseudoscience of phrenology can be correlated with inner character and intelligence and that these could be used to create a seemingly scientific hierarchy of races The book considers many aspects of these beliefs including the skull as a racial marker ancient Egypt as a precedent for Southern slavery Darwin race and aesthetics the purported Mediterranean race the visual aspects of eugenics and the racial politics of Emil Nolde G.F. Watts Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1914 Representations of G.F. Watts Colin Trodd, 2019-07-16 Originally published in 2004 Once the most popular Victorian artist G F Watts was also a complex and elusive figure Influenced by evolutionary theory he reinterpreted the tradition of the classical body while his philanthropic and educational interests informed projects for a more affective public art This book is the first modern account of the full range of Watts s different artistic interests and practices Offering fresh approaches to his historical allegorical and mythological paintings it also traces his increasingly radical approach to portraiture and sculpture and examines the institutional and biographical factors behind his immense public profile Together the essays present a comprehensive analysis of Watts s work and his vital relationship to the intellectual cultural and social forces of his time Masters in Art: English school. Reynolds through Wilkie. American school , 1905 Ellen Terry, Spheres of Influence Katharine Cockin, 2015-10-06 In this essay collection established experts and new researchers reassess the performances and cultural significance of Ellen Terry her daughter Edith Craig 1869 1947 and her son Edward Gordon Craig 1872 1966 as well as Bram Stoker Lewis Carroll and some less familiar figures George Frederic Watts ...

The Annals of an Artist's Life. (vol. 3. His Writings.) [With Illustrations.] Mary S. WATTS (Wife of G. F. Watts.), 1912 The World in Paint David Peters Corbett, 2004 This anonymous manuscript play has long been the subject of scholarly dispute regarding its relationship with Shakespeare's Richard II This edition which thoroughly re-examines the text situates the play within its historical and political context relating it to the genre of chronicle drama to which it belongs The manuscript is of particular interest in that it appears to have been used in the playhouse over a considerable period of time and contains what seems to be evidence of the theatre practice of the time The play is also of special interest for its skilful and original handling of source material which may well have influenced Shakespeare's Richard II The extensive appendices drawn from Holinshed Grafton and Stow provide the reader with the opportunity to investigate the manner in which the dramatist has shaped the material The editors argue for the play's stage worthiness and dramatic complexity suggesting that its range both of dramatic tone and social inclusiveness indicate the work of a dramatist of considerable skill and subtlety equal or superior to the Shakespeare of the Henry VI plays The Drawings of G.F. Watts Chloe M. Kroeter, Chloe Ward, 2016-01-30 George Frederic Watts 1817-1904 is considered to be one of the Victorian era's greatest painters Yet his drawings which served as the preparatory designs for his paintings and in some cases the final products of his creative efforts have been the subject of surprisingly little scholarship Watts Gallery holds the largest collection of Watts's works on paper comprising approximately 800 studies sketches copies and finished artworks that span Watts's entire artistic career These range from remarkable copies of engravings made when he was a mere ten years old to figurative sketches drawn up to two months before his death in 1904 at the age of 87 Representing the most complete record of his development as an artist Watts's drawings offer unequalled insight into his techniques compositional decisions and working processes His studies provide an uncensored record of his thought process and reveal the choices and changes he made as he developed some of his most celebrated works This book is the first in-depth study of Watts's drawings Art, Music, and Mysticism at the Fin de Siècle Corrinne Chong, Michelle Foot, 2024-07-29 This edited volume explores the dialogue between art and music with that of mystical currents at the turn of the twentieth century The volume draws on the most current research from both art historians and musicologists to present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of mysticism's historical importance The chapters in this edited volume gauge the scope of different interpretations of mysticism and illuminate how an exchange between the sister arts unveil an underlying stream of metaphysical supernatural and spiritual ideas over the course of the century Case studies include Charles Tournemire Joseph P. Ladan Erik Satie Hilma af Klint Jean Sibelius František Kupka and Wassily Kandinsky The contributors' unique theoretical perspectives and disciplinary methodologies offer expert insight on both the rewards and inevitable aesthetic complications that arise when one art form meets another The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history musicology visual culture and mysticism G.F. Watts G.K. Chesterton, 2022-11-22 G.K. Chesterton's G.F. Watts is a profound exploration of the life and artistic vision of British painter and sculptor George Frederic Watts best known for his allegorical and symbolic works that convey deep philosophical themes Written in Chesterton's signature style the book combines eloquent prose with a vivid narrative painting a portrait not just of Watts the artist but of the social and cultural milieu that shaped his oeuvre Chesterton employs a rich tapestry of anecdotes and critical analysis to contextualize Watts within the broader landscape of Victorian art and the Pre Raphaelite movement illuminating how his work reflects the spiritual and moral questions of his time G K Chesterton a luminary of the early 20th century was not only a prolific writer but also a cultural critic deeply engaged with contemporary art and thought His admiration for Watts aligns with his own philosophical inquiries into faith morality and the power of creativity Given Chesterton's background in literature philosophy and journalism he adeptly seeks to elevate Watts' significance ensuring that readers recognize his profound impact on both art and society This book is an essential read for those interested in art history cultural criticism and the interplay between aesthetics and ethics Chesterton's passionate discourse invites readers to reflect on the transformative power of art and the role of the artist in grappling with profound questions of existence making it a valuable addition to any serious literary or artistic collection Accessions Victoria and Albert Museum. Department of Engraving, Illustration, and Design, 1922

M-Z, 1990 The Artist as Divine Symbol Adam Edward Carnehl, 2023-10-09 In critical yet appreciative dialogue with four different art critics who demonstrated theological sensitivities Adam Edward Carnehl traces an ongoing religious conversation that ran through nineteenth century aesthetics In Carnehl's estimation this critical conversation between John Ruskin Walter Pater and Oscar Wilde culminated in the brilliant approach of G K Chesterton who began his journalistic career with a series of insightful works of art criticism By conducting a close reading of these largely neglected works Carnehl demonstrates that Chesterton developed a theological aesthetic that focuses on the revelation of God's image in every human being In Chesterton's eyes only those made in God's image can produce images themselves and only those who receive a revelation of truth are able to reveal truths for others Art is therefore a rich and symbolic unveiling of the truth of humanity which finds its origin and purpose in God the Divine Artist The Holland Park Circle Caroline Dakers, 1999-01-01 This book the first major study of the Holland Park Circle of artists architects and their patrons is both an engrossing narrative of their lives works and influence and a perceptive analysis of the subtle relationships between high Victorian taste and mercantile values BOOK JACKET W.B. Yeats Donald James Gordon, 1961 The Royal Academy of Arts Algernon Graves, 1905
