Gaban The Stolen Jewels:

Gaban Premchand,2002 Gaban Premacanda,2000 Gaban first published in 1931 five years before Premchand's death is the story of Ramanath a morally weak but physically charming youth brought to near disaster by his beautiful wife Jalpa's inordinate craving for jewelry This is a felicitous translation by Christopher R King and will enable many readers to appreciate Premchand's important novel available for the first time in English Premchand in World Languages M. Asaduddin,2016-05-20 This volume explores the reception of Premchand's works and his influence in the perception of India among Western cultures especially Russian German French Spanish and English The essays in the collection also take a critical look at multiple translations of the same work and examine how each new translation expands the work's textuality and annexes new readership for the author as well as representations of celluloid adaptations of Premchand's works An important intervention in the field of translation studies this book will interest scholars and researchers of comparative literature cultural studies and film studies Gaban Premacanda,2011 Untouchable Fictions: Literary Realism and the Crisis of Caste Toral Jatin Gajarawala,2013 Untouchable Fictions considers the crisis of literary realism progressive rural regionalist experimental in order to derive a literary genealogy for the recent explosion of Dalit untouchable caste fiction Drawing on a wide array of writings from Premchand and Renu in Hindi to Mulk Raj Anand and V S Naipaul in English Gajarawala illuminates the dark side of realist complicity a hidden aesthetics and politics of caste How does caste color the novel What are its formal tendencies What generic constraints does it produce Between Resistance and Conformity Shailendra Kumar Singh,2024-10-11 This book examines the questions of conformity and resistance with respect to Premchand's literary corpus Mapping the various complexities challenges and contradictions of interwar India it demonstrates how the passive peasant protagonists of the writer's fictional works present a diametrically opposed definition of dharma as compared to their dissident nationalist counterparts Through a relatively similar logic of comparative assessment it further foregrounds the fundamental asymmetry that exists between Premchand's literary representations of women as compliant domestic subjects and those that portray them as rebel patriots of colonial North India Juxtaposing several genres including novels short stories letters and journalistic writings to offer a reconsideration of Premchand's work this book will interest scholars of peasant narratives nationalist fiction and gender studies Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan or Bhutan Colonialism, Modernity, and Literature S. works by non Indians It shows how since the mid 19th century Indian literary modernity pursued the conjunction of the sensuous and ethical spiritual that characterized its three traditions Sanskritik Persian and folk culture while the encounter both receptive and oppositional with the West vastly expanded the Indian literary sphere Aesthetics and ethics are not antithetical in the Indian cultural space but the quest for an exclusive Indian identity versus universalist approaches offsets concerns for social justice as well as enjoyable embodied communication The literary constellation in many languages now formed in and around India can be better apprehended as a virtual Cosmopolis a commonwealth of elaborate emotions The versatile figure of Hanuman metaphorically flies across this Ocean of Stories to make us discover new worlds of experience organisations in both India and Pakistan It looks at the short lived but very colourful history of the PWA in Pakistan using PWA documents government records and personal testimonies Arguing that literary output and cultural production cannot be understood let alone interpreted outside the context of the nationalist movement war independence and partition the book presents a narrative that necessarily transcends disciplinary boundaries between literature politics and history
