Emancipating the Female Sex June Edith Hahner, 1990 June E Hahner s pioneering work Emancipating the Female Sex offers the first comprehensive history of the struggle for women s rights in Brazil Based on previously undiscovered primary sources and fifteen years of research Hahner s study provides long overdue recognition of the place of women in Latin American history Hahner traces the history of Brazilian women s fight for emancipation from its earliest manifestations in the mid nineteenth century to the successful conclusion of the suffrage campaign in the 1930s Drawing on interviews with surviving Brazilian suffragists and contemporary feminists as well as manuscripts and printed documents Hahner explores the strategies and ideological positions of Brazilian feminists In focusing on urban upper and middle class women from whose ranks the leadership for change arose she examines the relationship between feminism and social change in Brazil s complex and highly stratified society      Gabriela, Clove and Cinnamon Jorge Amado, 2006-09-12 Ilh us in 1925 is a booming town with a record cacao crop and aspirations for progress but the traditional ways prevail When Colonel Mendon a discovers his wife in bed with a lover he shoots and kills them both Political contests too can be settled by gunshot No one imagines that a bedraggled migrant worker who turns up in town least of all Gabriela herself will be the agent of change Nacib Saad has just lost the cook at his popular caf and in desperation hires Gabriela To his surprise she turns out to be a great beauty as well as a wonderful cook and an enchanting boon to his business But what would people say if Nacib were to marry her Lusty satirical and full of intrigue Gabriela Clove and Cinnamon is a vastly entertaining panorama of small town Brazilian life

Segregated Miscegenation Carlos Hiraldo, 2014-02-04 Through the comparative study of literatures from the United States and Latin America Segregated Miscegenation questions received notions of race and nation Carlos Hiraldo examines the current understanding of race in the United States alongside alternative models of racial self definition in Latin America His provocative analysis traces the conceptualization of blackness in fiction and theories of the novel and troubles the racial and ethnic categories particular to each region s literary tradition      Based on a True Story Donald F. Stevens, 1998-07-01 Combining history with discussions of dramatic cinema Based on a True Story Latin American History at the Movies examines how film has portrayed Latin America from the late fifteenth century to the present The book opens with an introduction on the visual presentation of the past in the movies while the rest of the book consists of essays that explore the best feature films on Latin America from the professional historian s perspective      Expanding and Restricting the Erotic, 2020-06-08 The current erotic landscape is contradictory While the West sees greater sexual and erotic freedom than ever there is also a movement to restrict the behaviour of various sexual minorities Expanding and Restricting the Erotic addresses the way in which the erotic has been constrained and freed both historically and at present Topics range from the troubling way in which the mainstream media represents the erotic to the concept of friends with benefits Other chapters explore female eroticism from contemporary female hip hop artists to Latin American women seeking to express their eroticism in the midst of sexual repression Medieval and Early Modern medical conceptions of the female body are explored as are ancient Greek erotic practices Finally the controversial area of teenage girls erotic representation is analysed      Off Stage/On Display Andrew Shryock, 2004 In Off Stage On Display ten scholars with diverse geographical theoretical and topical interests take a close critical look at the vexed relationship between public identities and the intimate spheres in which they are made      The Hotel Book Christiane Reiter, 2004 Continuing to seek out the world s most unique and inspiring hotels Reiter takes on South America This diverse selection of hotels posadas and haciendas highlights the most exceptional destinations on the continent from the Chilean desert to the Amazon rain forest to a Patagonia natural reserve      Meals in Science and Practice H L Meiselman, 2009-03-26 The meal is the key eating occasion yet professionals and researchers frequently focus on single food products rather than the combinations of foods and the context in which they are consumed Research on meals is also carried out in a wide range of fields and the different disciplines do not always benefit from each others expertise This important collection presents contributions on meals from many perspectives using different methods and focusing on the different elements involved Two introductory chapters in part one summarise the key findings in Dimensions of the Meal the first book to bring an interdisciplinary perspective to meals and introduce the current publication by reviewing the key topics discussed in the following chapters Parts two to four then consider how meals are defined studied and taught Major considerations include eating socially and eating alone the influence of gender and the different situations of home restaurant and institutional settings Part five reviews meals worldwide with chapters on Brazilian Indian Chinese and Thai meals among others The final parts discuss meals from further perspectives including those of the chef product developer and meal setting designer With its distinguished editor and international team of contributors Meals in science and practice is an informative and diverse reference for both professionals and academic researchers interested in food from disciplines such as food product development food service nutrition dietetics sociology anthropology psychology public health medicine and marketing Summarises key findings in dimensions of the meal Considers how meals are defined studied and taught including eating alone and socially and the influence of gender Reviews the meaning of meals in different cultures

Brazilian National Cinema Lisa Shaw, Stephanie Dennison, 2014-05-01 Brazilian cinema is one of the most influential national cinemas in Latin America and this wide ranging study traces the evolution of Brazilian film from the silent era to the present day including detailed studies of more recent international box office hits such as Central Station 1998 and City of God 2002 Brazilian National Cinema gives due importance to traditionally overlooked aspects of Brazilian cinema such as popular genres ranging from musical comedies the chanchada to soft core porn films the pornochanchada and horror films and also provides a fresh approach to the internationally acclaimed avant garde Cinema Novo of the 1960s Lisa Shaw and Stephanie Dennison apply recent theories on stardom particularly relating to issues of ethnicity race and gender to both well known Brazilian performers such as Carmen Miranda and Sonia Braga and lesser known domestic icons such as the Afro Brazilian comic actor Grande Otelo Big Othello and the uberblonde children s TV and film star and media mogul Xuxa This timely addition to the National Cinemas series provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Brazilian cinema and issues of national and cultural identity

The Literatures of Spanish America and Brazil Earl E. Fitz, 2025-09-02 Charting the twentieth century course of the literature of the Americas The second volume of Earl E Fitz s magisterial survey of the field The Literatures of Spanish America and Brazil The Twentieth Century analyzes Spanish and Portuguese language writing throughout South and Central America as well as in the United States and Canada where it expanded and flourished over the course of the century Fitz argues that Spanish American and Brazilian literatures should be treated as two sides of the same coin together forging a hemispheric identity as new literary aesthetics and political crises swept through the Americas Fitz takes readers on a comparative journey analyzing writers such as Octavio Paz and Juan Rulfo from Mexico Julia de Burgos and Luis Pal s Matos from Puerto Rico Jorge Luis Borges and Victoria Ocampo from Argentina and M rio de Andrade and Patr cia Galv o from Brazil among many others to inspire a more thoroughly integrated understanding of the literature of the Americas
