Interview with Gae Aulenti Gae Aulenti, E. Mik, 1993      Gae Aulenti Gae Aulenti, Margherita Petranzan, 1997 Gae Aulenti consented to take time to produce this retrospective of her career Her work as an architect spans graphic design industrial building furniture stage exhibitions and large public works such as museums and embassies      Gae Aulenti Giovanni Agosti, 2026-04-14 A must have monograph on the global legacy of Gae Aulenti Italy's pioneering architect and designer The most extensive publication to date on Gae Aulenti 1927-2012 accompanies a major retrospective at Triennale Milano in 2024-25 The richly illustrated book includes hundreds of projects both built and unrealized and a bibliography of Aulenti's writings alongside design documents drawings correspondence and testimonies that capture the complexity of Aulenti's persona and practice In 1972 Aulenti was one of twelve Italian designers commissioned to create a site specific environment for the groundbreaking exhibition Italy The New Domestic Landscape at the Museum of Modern Art in New York bringing her work to a global audience as one of the most forward thinking voices in her field She realized major projects including the Musée d'Orsay in Paris where she led the conversion of the former railway station into one of the world's most renowned museums the Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya MNAC in Barcelona and in Tokyo where her refined and scenographic approach to exhibition design met wide acclaim Retracing Aulenti's contributions across architecture design theater and exhibition making this book sheds new light on a figure central to shaping Italian and international visual culture in the second half of the twentieth century      Creating the Musée d'Orsay: The Politics of Culture in France , This concise book presents the fascinating history of the creation of the Musée d'Orsay and the battles among the prominent politicians curators and historians over the architecture collections and concept of the museum      The Architecture of Modern Italy Terry Kirk, 2005-06-02 Modern Italy may sound like an oxymoron For Western civilization Italian culture represents the classical past and the continuity of canonical tradition while modernity is understood in contrary terms of rupture and rapid innovation Charting the evolution of a culture renowned for its historical past into the 20th modern era challenges our understanding of both the resilience of tradition and the elasticity of modernity We have a tendency when imagining Italy to look to a rather distant and definitely premodern setting The ancient forum medieval cloisters baroque piazzas and papal palaces constitute our ideal itinerary of Italian civilization The Campo di Siena Saint Peter's all of Venice and San Gimignano satisfy us with their seemingly unbroken panoramas onto historical moments untouched by time but elsewhere modern intrusions alter and obstruct the view to the landscapes of our expectations As seasonal tourist or seasoned historian we edit the encroachments time and change have wrought on our image of Italy The learning of history is always a complex task one that in the Italian environment is complicated by the changes wrought everywhere over the past 250 years Culture on the peninsula continues to evolve with characteristic vibrancy Italy is not a museum To think of it as such as a disorganized yet phenomenally rich museum unchanging in its exhibits is to misunderstand the nature of the Italian cultural condition and the

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader's knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism

Hearts of the City Herbert Muschamp, 2013-12-11 From the late Herbert Muschamp the former architecture critic of The New York Times and one of the most outspoken and influential voices in architectural criticism a collection of his best work The pieces here from The New Republic Artforum and The New York Times reveal how Muschamp's views were both ahead of their time and timeless He often wrote about how the right architecture could be inspiring and uplifting and he uniquely drew on film literature and popular culture to write pieces that were passionate and often personal changing the landscape of architectural criticism in the process These columns made architecture a subject accessible to everyone at a moment when because of the heated debate between modernists and postmodernists architecture had become part of a larger public dialogue One of the most courageous and engaged voices in his field he devoted many columns at the Times to the lack of serious new architecture in this country and particularly in New York and spoke out against the agenda of developers He departed from the usual dry didactic style of much architectural writing to playfully for example compare Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Bilbao to the body of Marilyn Monroe or to wax poetic about a new design for Manhattan's manhole covers One sees in this collection that Muschamp championed early on the work of Frank Gehry Rem Koolhaas Zaha Hadid Thom Payne Frank Israel Jean Nouvel and Santiago Calatrava among others and was drawn to the theoretical writings of such architects as Peter Eisenman Published here for the first time is the uncut version of his brilliant and poignant essay about gay culture and Edward Durrell Stone's museum at 2 Columbus Circle Fragments from the book he left unfinished whose title we took for this collection A Dozen Years Metroscope and Atomic Secrets are also included Hearts of the City is dazzling writing from a humanistic thinker whose work changed forever the way we think about our cities and the buildings in them
