Japanese Hermeneutics Michael F. Marra, 2002-02-28 Japanese

Hermeneutics provides a forum for the most current international debates on the role played by interpretative models in the articulation of cultural discourses on Japan. It presents the thinking of esteemed Western philosophers, aestheticians, and art and literary historians and introduces to English reading audiences some of Japan's most distinguished scholars whose work has received limited or no exposure in the United States. In the first part, Hermeneutics and Japan, contributors examine the difficulties inherent in articulating otherness without falling into the trap of essentialization and while relying on Western epistemology for explanation and interpretation. In the second part, Japan's Aesthetic Hermeneutics, they explore the role of aesthetics in shaping discourses on art and nature in Japan. The essays in the final section of the book, Japan's Literary Hermeneutics, rethink the notion of Japanese literature in light of recent findings on the ideological implications of canon formations and transformations within Japan's prominent literary circles.

Aesthetic Practices and Politics in Media, Music, and Art Rocío G. Davis, Dorothea Fischer-Hornung, Johanna C. Kardux, 2010-09-13

This volume analyzes innovative forms of media and music art installations, television commercials, photography, films, songs, telenovelas to examine the performance of migration in contemporary culture. Though migration studies and media studies are ostensibly different fields, this transnational collection of essays addresses how their interconnection has shaped our understanding of the paradigms through which we think about migration, ethnicity, nation, and the transnational. Cultural representations intervene in collective beliefs. Art and media clearly influence the ways the experience of migration is articulated and recalled, intervening in individual perceptions as well as public policy. To understand the connection between migration and diverse media, the authors examine how migration is represented in film, television, music, and art, but also how media shape the ways in which host country and homeland are imagined. Among the topics considered are new mediated forms for representing migration, widening the perspective on the ways these representations may be analyzed, readings of enactments of memory in trans and interdisciplinary ways, and discussions of globalization and transnationalism, inviting us to rethink traditional borders in respect to migration, nation, states, as well as disciplines.

Exhibiting Chinese Art in Asia Chui-fun Selina Ho, 2025-10-01

This volume examines the emerging exhibition complex on Chinese art in early twentieth-century China and from the mid 1950s onwards, the cultural politics involved in Asia with the exhibitions of traditional and modern Chinese art in Taiwan, Japan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. It also scrutinizes the curatorial practices that have influenced the interpretation and display of Chinese art amidst the advance of media technology and heritage engagement in the twenty-first century. Situated within ongoing debates on global art history, the volume is inclusive of multiple geo-cultural perspectives and the dynamic practices that relate art tradition or heritage to more universal spatiotemporal art experience and engagement. It extends the understanding of exhibitions of Chinese art not only as multiple historical processes culturally and politically negotiated and contested by contending forces and diverse actors in the region but also as creative interventions to engage people around the globe in the present     Books at Iowa ,1982     Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1994     Art & Text ,1990     The Aesthetics of the Ghostly Hitomi Nabae,2000     Jewish Dealers and the European Art Market, c. 1860–1940 Silvia Davoli,Tom Stammers,2025-01-23 Before the tragedy of the Holocaust many of the leading art and antiques dealers across Europe were Jewish establishing dynamic cross Channel international and transatlantic networks Aside from a few famous examples however we are only at the beginning of exploring the diversity of Jewish dealers commercial and cultural worlds and reflecting on the particular conditions that made possible their dramatic expansion within the profession Adopting a wider geography than any previous study this book brings together a team of distinguished international contributors to consider Jewish art dealers as an interconnected cohort tied together by common strategies and a shared vulnerability After an extended historiographical introduction the volume presents case studies and trends from 1860 1940 including Jewish family businesses in Western Europe the role of Jews as mediators of art from East Asia the antisemitism and suspicion faced by Jewish dealers Jews as theorists exhibition makers and promoters of modern art and the geographical mobility and professional reinvention of Jewish dealers in times of economic and political crisis With a wide variety of illustrations including paintings decorative arts historic photographs and archival material the volume adopts a mix of methodological approaches to analyse a key chapter in Jewish cultural history and in the history of the international art market Includes Afterword by Charles Dellheim author of Belonging and Betrayal How Jews Made the Art World Modern 2021
