What Shall the End Be? Dr. Angelo Dart, 2025-02-21 Christianity did not die because of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ. It lives because of His resurrection. This is a truth that captures the whole of the Christian faith. This is the great distinction of religion and reality. God in the flesh has come to live in His people. Such a discovery, however, appears to be a one-way proposition. Can His church, the Body of Christ, respond to the call of a bride prepared? Will Christ find faith in a glorious church without spot or wrinkle or any such thing? The answers from His church must be forthcoming before He answers with His coming. Christ does not just transition us; He changes us, and the change comes from Him abiding in our hearts with the power of a choice. If there were full realization that having Christ is relationship and not religion, the world would not know tragedies such as addictions and suicides. First John 3 notes: See what kind of love the Father has given to us that we should be called children of God, and so we are. The simplicity of God through His Son, Christ Jesus, bestowing an unconditional love upon us, will provide to all a complete, overwhelming belief in something never realized before. This is the universal truth of the Christ. This is not the Christ of history or philosophical bent or scientific observation. This is the Christ of the cross. Can anyone among us say we are ready for His coming?

This Is Eternal Life Seth Nathan Polk, 2016-02-02 People search for meaning and purpose in life in all sorts of ways. Jesus made a powerful and important statement in His prayer to God the Father in John 17:3. This is eternal life that they may know you, the only true God, and the one you have sent, Jesus Christ. This Is Eternal Life explores how Jesus described eternal life from the perspective of the Word of God and shows how it impacts one's quality of life in the here and now. Presented in a Bible study format, This Is Eternal Life discusses what it means to be saved by grace, empowered by the Spirit, and set apart by God for service. It covers four life essentials for Christian living: fellowship, the Word of God, prayer, and stewardship. This Is Eternal Life weaves the author's personal experiences with insights from Scripture and connections to illustrations and daily life. It offers a practical look at salvation and eternal life and describes how one can live life to the fullest by trusting God.

Holiness in the Letters of Paul J. Ayodeji Adewuya, 2016-10-21 Paul's understanding of holiness stems from the holiness of God as revealed in the Old Testament. Using varied terminology, Paul describes the holiness that should characterize the believers as the people of God. God expects moral integrity of His people because He has provided believers with His Holy Spirit to enable them to live exemplary Christlike lives in this present world, though polluted, as they prepare for the world to come. Believers who like Paul anticipate the Parousia must not only desire but also pray that holiness becomes a reality in their lives, cognizant of the fact that holiness is a matter of practice, not merely a status that one attains upon justification. Thus, holiness is an imperative for the people of God.
