Imagined Truths Mary L. Coffey, Margot Versteeg, 2019-05-09 Imagined Truths provides a twenty first century analysis of stylistic and philosophical manifestations of nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish literary realism Bringing together the work of the foremost specialists in the field of contemporary Spanish letters this collection offers new approaches to literary and cultural criticism and reveals how Spanish realism far from imitative of other European movements engaged in complex and modern concepts of representation and mimesis Imagined Truths acknowledges the critical importance of women writers and contemporary approaches to questions of gender The essays address the impact of economics on our perceptions of reality and our constructions of everyday life and they argue for the importance of emotions in the social construction of individual identity Most importantly the essays acknowledge the post imperial turn in literary studies Addressing a broad range of authors works and topics including the continued relevance of Cervantes's Don Quijote and the way Spanish realism moved beyond narrative to inhabit the spaces of both theatre and film Imagined Truths comprises a series of meditations on new ways of understanding the unique place of realism in Spanish cultural history Offering insights for specialists in a wide range of disciplines literature cultural studies gender studies history philosophy this collection is equally important for readers just becoming acquainted with realist narrative as a central component of Spanish literary history

Science, Literature, and Film in the Hispanic World J. Hoeg, K. Larsen, 2006-10-17 Driven by such diverse advances as the Human Genome Project and the explosion of the World Wide Web and also by the threat of human inspired disasters such as global warming the field of science and literature studies is currently undergoing an unprecedented expansion The relations between science and literature have been and continue to be central to understanding Hispanic civilization and culture In spite of this Science Literature and Film in the Spanish Speaking World is the first and only book to treat this new and dynamic field from an Hispanic perspective This unique volume opens the door to an entirely new focus in the study of Hispanic literature and culture Good Novels, Better Management Barbara Czarniawska-Joerges, Pierre Guillet de Monthoux, 1994 This collection of essays demonstrates how novels are not only comparable but often superior to the case histories used in business education As many novelists have had personal experience of working in organizations their work combines introspective insight with analytical skill The Cambridge Companion to Modern Spanish Culture David T. Gies, 1999-02-25 This book offers a comprehensive account of modern Spanish culture tracing its dramatic and often unexpected development from its beginnings after the Revolution of 1868 to the present day Specially commissioned essays by leading experts provide analyses of the historical and political background of modern Spain the culture of the major autonomous regions notably Castile Catalonia and the Basque Country and the country's literature narrative poetry theatre and the essay Spain's recent development is divided into three main phases from 1868 to the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War the period of the dictatorship of Francisco Franco and the post Franco arrival of democracy The concept of Spanish culture is investigated and there are studies of Spanish painting and sculpture architecture cinema dance music and the modern media A chronology and guides to further reading are provided making the volume an invaluable introduction to the politics literature and culture of modern Spain Late Europeans and Melancholy Fiction at the Turn of the Millennium Ian Ellison, 2022-04-01 This book is the first comparative study of novels by Patrick Modiano W G Sebald and Antonio Muñoz Molina Drawing on many literary figures movements and traditions from the Spanish Golden Age to German Romanticism to French philosophy via Jewish modernist literature Ian Ellison offers a fresh perspective on European fiction published around the turn of the millennium Reflecting on what makes European fiction European this book examines how certain novels understand themselves to be culturally and historically late expressing a melancholy awareness of how the past and present are irreconcilable Within this framework however it considers how backwards facing tradition oriented self consciousness burdened by a sense of exhaustion in European culture and the violence of its past may yet suggest the potential for re enchantment in the face of obsolescence Conflicts and Conciliations Geoffrey Ribbans, 1997 Between 1881 and 1897 Benito Pérez Galdós generally acknowledged as Spain's greatest nineteenth century novelist composed some twenty contemporary novels which Geoffrey Ribbans characterizes as the peak of his achievement This monumental study traces the evolution of the many strands that make up one of them the long and complex novel Fortunata y Jacinta Ribbans examines the various stages of composition not only the earlier reconstructed Alpha version but also subsequent revisions in the much corrected handwritten text and in the printer's galleys He treats these tentative drafts as part of the process of reaching out toward the coherent definitive text Ribbans's analysis of such devices as the ambiguous role of the narrator the use of free indirect style and direct dialogue and the construction of distinctive ideolects leads to the heart of his study the development of Galdós's characters Ambiguous Angels Catherine Jagoe, 2023-04-28 The contradictory nature of the work of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's greatest modern novelist is brought to the fore in Catherine Jagoe's innovative and rigorous study Revising commonly held views of his feminism she explores the relation of Gald s s novels to the woman question in Spain arguing that after 1892 the muted feminist discourse of his early work largely disappears While his later novels have been interpreted as celebrations of the emancipated new woman Jagoe contends that they actually reinforce the conservative bourgeois model of frugal virtuous womanhood the angel of the house Using primary sources such as periodicals medical texts and conduct literature Jagoe s examination of the evolution of feminism makes Ambiguous Angels valuable to anyone interested in gender culture and narrative in nineteenth century Europe The contradictory nature of the work of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s greatest modern novelist is brought to the fore in Catherine Jagoe s innovative and rigorous study Revising commonly held views of his feminism she explores the relation of Gald s s n The Cambridge History of Spanish Literature David T. Gies,2004 Publisher Description The Antinomies of Realism Fredric Jameson,2015-03-10 The Antinomies of Realism is a history of the nineteenth century realist novel and its legacy told without a glimmer of nostalgia for artistic achievements that the movement of history makes it impossible to recreate The works of Zola Tolstoy P rez Gald s and George Eliot are in the most profound sense inimitable yet continue to dominate the novel form to this day Novels to emerge since struggle to reconcile the social conditions of their own creation with the history of this mode of writing the so called modernist novel is one attempted solution to this conflict as is the ever more impoverished variety of commercial narratives what today s book reviewers dub serious novels which are an attempt at the impossible endeavor to roll back the past Fredric Jameson examines the most influential theories of artistic and literary realism approaching the subject himself in terms of the social and historical preconditions for realism s emergence The realist novel combined an attention to the body and its states of feeling with a focus on the quest for individual realization within the confines of history In contemporary writing other forms of representation for which the term postmodern is too glib have become visible for example in the historical fiction of Hilary Mantel or the stylistic plurality of David Mitchell s novels Contemporary fiction is shown to be conducting startling experiments in the representation of new realities of a global social totality modern technological warfare and historical developments that although they saturate every corner of our lives only become apparent on rare occasions and by way of the strangest formal and artistic devices In a coda Jameson explains how realistic narratives survived the end of classical realism In effect he provides an argument for the serious study of popular fiction and mass culture that transcends lazy journalism and the easy platitudes of recent cultural studies Conflicting Realities Peter B. and explore possible and tangible collaborative research projects The volume is split into two sections focusing on the applications of corpora in literary studies and translation studies Issues explored include historical backgrounds current trends theories methodologies operational methods and techniques as well as training of research students This international dynamic and interdisciplinary exploration of corpus studies and corpus application in various cultural contexts and different countries will provide valuable insights for any researcher in literary or translation studies who wishes to have a better understanding when working with corpora

Spanish Literature David William Foster, Daniel Altamiranda, Carmen Urioste-Azcorra, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource

The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Galdós's methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist's art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Galdós's novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Galdós's work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Galdós's fiction confirms the author's own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity

Cultivating Madrid Daniel Frost, 2008 Interdisciplinary in approach Cultivating Madrid argues that gardens and garden imagery trouble the distinction not only between nature and artifice but also between reality and representation in general and are thus crucial to understanding realism and the process of modernisation in Spain

Inventing High and Low Stephanie Sieburth, 1994 Dire word of the cultural threat of the lowbrow goes back at least to the ancient Greeks and yet Stephanie Sieburth suggests no division between high and low culture will stand up to logical scrutiny Why then does the opposition persist In this book Sieburth questions the terms of this perennial debate and uncovers the deep cultural economic and psychological tensions that lead each generation to reinvent the distinction between high and low She focuses on Spain where this opposition plays a special role in notions of cultural development and where leading writers have often made the relation of literature to mass culture the theme of their novels Choosing two historical moments of sweeping material and cultural change in Spanish history Sieburth reads two novels from the 1880s by Benito Pérez Galdós and two from the 1970s by Juan Goytisolo and Carmen Martín Gaité as fictional theories about the impact of modernity on culture and politics Her analysis reveals that the high low division in the cultural sphere reinforces other kinds of separations between social classes or between men and women dear to the elite but endangered by progress This tension she shows is particularly evident in Spain where modernization has been a contradictory and uneven process rarely accompanied by political freedom and where consumerism and mass culture coexist uneasily with older ways of life Weaving together a wide spectrum of diverse material her work will be of interest to readers concerned with Spanish history and literature literary theory popular culture and the relations between politics economics gender and the novel Intertextual Pursuits Hal L. Boudreau,1998 This book brings together twelve essays that attest to the continuing viability of intertextuality a widely recognized by product of a cosmic readjustment in thinking about the nature and boundaries of texts All the contributors to this collection are well versed in the theoretical implications of intertextuality Their essays give repeated evidence that intertextuality is itself dynamically intertextual and that it is as endlessly fruitful as its myriad applications The essays further demonstrate that whether theoretically in fashion or out of it whether seen as rhetorical exercises ideological statements or philosophical meditations intertextual pursuits remain the paramount adventure in the literary critical enterprise The Imagery of Interior Spaces Michael J. Kelly,Dominique Bauer,2019 On the unstable boundaries between interior and exterior private and public and always in some way relating to a beyond the imagery of interior space in literature reveals itself as an often disruptive code of subjectivity and of modernity The wide variety of interior spaces elicited in literature from the odd room over the womb secluded parks and train compartments to the city as a world under a cloth reveal a common defining feature these interiors can all be analyzed as codes of a paradoxical both assertive and fragile subjectivity in its own unique time and history They function as subtexts that define subjectivity time and history as profoundly ambiguous realities on interchangeable existential socio political and epistemological levels This volume addresses the imagery of interior spaces in a number of iconic and also lesser known yet significant authors of European North American and Latin American literature of the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Djuna Barnes Edmond de Goncourt William Faulkner Gabriel Garc a M rquez Benito P rez Gald s Elsa Morante Robert Musil Jules Romain Peter Waterhouse and mile Zola
