Hoar, 1965      Galdos and the Art of the European Novel Stephen Gilman, 2014-07-14 Benito Perez Galdos 1843 1920 was one of Spain's outstanding novelists and the author of two vast cycles of novels and a number of plays In this critical study of Galdos in English Stephen Gilman relates the writer and his work to the nineteenth century novel as a genre and traces his artistic growth during a twenty year period from his initial historical fable La Fontana de Oro to his masterpiece Fortunata y Jacinta Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905      Galdos Jo Labanyi, 2014-01-14 Benito Perez Galdos has been described as the greatest Spanish novelist since Cervantes His work constitutes a major contribution to the nineteenth century novel rivalling that of Dickens of Balzac and making him an essential candidate for any course on the fiction of the period Jo Labanyi's study is supported by a wide ranging introduction a section of contemporary comment headnotes to each piece and helpful appendix material      Galdós Brian J. Dendle, 2021-12-14 The sheer volume of prolific Spanish novelist and playwright Benito P rez Gald s s literary production has rendered overall assessment of his body of work all but impossible The later volumes in his ambitious and popular Episodios nacionales series in particular have suffered from scholarly indifference In this acclaimed study Brian J Dendle closely considers the twenty six novels in this series written between 1898 and 1912 These episodios Dendle contests are artistically superior to the earlier volumes and offer a unique opportunity to establish the ideological profile of the mature Gald s      Benito Perez Galdos and Creativ Pattison,      The New Ireland Review , 1895      Ambiguous Angels Catherine Jagoe, 2023-04-28 The contradictory nature of the work of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s greatest modern novelist is brought to the fore in Catherine Jagoe s innovative and rigorous study Revising commonly held views of his feminism she explores the relation of Gald s s novels to the woman question in Spain arguing that after 1892 the muted feminist discourse of his early work largely disappears While his later novels have been interpreted as celebrations of the emancipated new woman Jagoe contends that they actually reinforce the conservative bourgeois model of frugal virtuous womanhood the angel of the house Using primary sources such as periodicals medical texts and conduct literature Jagoe s examination of the evolution of feminism makes Ambiguous Angels valuable to anyone interested in gender culture and narrative in nineteenth century Europe The contradictory nature of the work of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s greatest modern novelist is brought to the fore in Catherine Jagoe s innovative and rigorous study Revising commonly held views of his feminism she explores the relation of Galdós's The Reframing of Realism Hazel Gold, 1993 In the writing of Benito Pérez Galdós Spain's most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Galdós's methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist's art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Galdós's novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Galdós's work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Galdós's fiction confirms the author's own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity Benito Pérez Galdós and the Creative Process Walter Thomas Pattison, 1954-01-01 Benito Perez Galdos and the Creative Process was first published in 1954 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Most critics would rank Benito Perez Galdos second only to Cervantes among the great novelists of Spain However in spite of the esteem in which he is generally held Galdos has been the subject of relatively few scholarly studies Professor Pattison by an analysis of two of Galdos novels attempts to reconstruct the creative processes that were involved in the writing of these novels This is the first time that such a critical approach has been used in the field of Spanish fiction and the resulting study is significant not only to Spanish scholars but to all students of literature seeking further insights into the fascinating and still elusive creative process Professor Pattison analyzes the novels Gloria published in 1877 and Marianela which was published the following year Both are stories of contemporary life the former having as its theme the conflict between noble religion and the fanaticism of individual religious sects and the latter presenting a story of tragic love interwoven with the social problem of the responsibilities of the rich toward the poor In tracking down the sources of ideas characters plots and viewpoints that emerge in these novels Professor Pattison worked first hand in Galdos personal library in Madrid From the notes and markings in the books and from other intimate observations the scholar detective put his finger on many of the original sources that contributed to Galdos artistic creations and identified the prototypes for fictional characters among persons Galdos knew The Bay State Monthly, 1904 The New England Magazine, 1905 New England Magazine, 1905 New Galdós Studies Nicholas Grenville Round, 2003 The master of the realist novel of nineteenth century Spain Benito Pérez Galdós is the subject of these new studies The master of the realist novel of nineteenth century Spain Benito Pérez Galdós is the subject of New Galdós Studies offered in memory of John Varey author of Galdós Studies the foundational text for contemporary Galdosian scholarship Eamonn Rodgers describes Galdós's early readership and reception James Whiston illustrates Galdós's creativity in Lo prohibido Rhian Davies explores the enrichment of the novelist's language in Torquemada en la Cruz Teresa Fuentes Peris demonstrates Galdós's radical critique of dominant social assumptions in Fortunata y Jacinta Alex Longhurst deals with the representation of poverty in Misericordia while Lisa Cond detects a feminist intention in Tristana Eric Southworth finds rich cultural and spiritual allusion in the same work Nichols Round relates the deaths of children in the Torquemada novels and Angel Guerra to end of century ideological concerns
