Galdos And The Irony Of Language:

Galdós and the Irony of Language Diane F. Urey, 2005-06-30 Benito Pérez Galdós was the foremost Spanish novelist of the nineteenth century. His novels are frequently compared with those of Dickens and Balzac and considered examples of nineteenth-century realism. In a speech before the Spanish Academy of Language, Galdós himself declared that the novel is an image of life. Scholars have often considered that image to be an uncritical reflection or even a biased misrepresentation of the Spanish society of the time. This book shows by detailed analysis of Galdós's narrative techniques how his novels display a much more skeptical and ironical attitude toward the ability of language to represent reality than has previously been recognized. Rather than attempting to judge the accuracy of Galdós's image of life, the author analyzes the linguistic means by which the novels recreate life in their own image. With close and discriminating attention to detail, the author illustrates Galdós's narrative irony with examples from the series contemporary, the most highly acclaimed period of his writing. She analyzes the ironic possibilities under three main headings: depiction of characters, description of places, and the narrative voice. A final chapter describes the fusion of these devices in the novella Torquemada en la hoguera. This clearly argued, study-structuralist-in approach and sensitive to nuances of style and language will appeal to students of modern critical theory and comparative literature as well as to Hispanists.

New Galdós Studies Nicholas Grenville Round, 2003 The master of the realist novel of nineteenth-century Spain, Benito Pérez Galdós is the subject of these new studies. The master of the realist novel of nineteenth-century Spain, Benito Pérez Galdós is the subject of New Galdós Studies, offered in memory of John V. Urey, author of Galdós Studies, the foundational text for contemporary Galdosian scholarship. Eamonn Rodgers describes Galdós's early readership and reception; James Whiston illustrates Galdós's creativity in Lo prohibido; Rhian Davies explores the enrichment of the novelist's language in Torquemada en la Cruz; Teresa Fuentes Peris demonstrates Galdós's radical critique of dominant social assumptions in Fortunata y Jacinta; Alex Longhurst deals with the representation of poverty in Misericordia; while Lisa Cond detects a feminist intention in Tristana. Eric Southworth finds rich cultural and spiritual allusion in the same work. Nichols Round relates the deaths of children in the Torquemada novels and Ángel Guerra to end-of-century ideological concerns.

The Novel Histories of Galdos Diane Faye Urey, 2014-07-14 Benito Pérez Galdós (1843-1920) occupies a position in Spanish literature surpassed only by Cervantes and like him made a major contribution to the European novel that is now becoming widely recognized. In a semiological approach to the second period of Episodios Nacionales, Diane Urey demonstrates the relevance of these twenty-six novels, the least studied of Galdós's works, to fundamental issues such as the relationship between history and fiction and between mimesis and creation. Her findings of ambiguity, irony, and allegory in this writer's highly self-conscious historical novels will revise our views of Galdós's place in European letters while offering new insights into a general theory of historical fiction. Diane Urey offers an alternative to referential or ideological interpretations of the Episodios by stressing the indeterminate textuality of historical incidents and the fictionality of historical discourse Drawing on Derrida De Man Foucault and Hayden White she applies a wide range of narrative theory to these texts and concludes that novel and history are interchangeable modes of discourse because they rely necessarily on the same narrative strategies Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Galdos Jo

Gold,1993 In the writing of Benito P rez Gald s Spain s most prolific and innovative nineteenth century novelist Hazel Gold finds the act of framing insistently at work By exploring Gald s s methods of structuring and evaluating literary and historical experience Gold illuminates the novelist s art and uncovers the far reaching narratological social and epistemological implications of his framing strategies A close look at Gald s s novels reveals the artist at pains to contain and interpret what he perceived to be the distinctive and often disheartening experience of bourgeois liberalism of his day Looking beyond text to context Gold examines the ways in which Gald s s work itself has been framed by readers and critics in accordance with changing allegiances to contemporary literary theory and the canon The highly ambiguous status of the frame in Gald s s fiction confirms the author s own signal position as a writer poised at the limits between realism and modernity

Modelos dialógicos en la narrativa de Benito Pérez Galdós Alicia G. Andreu, 1989-01-01 Benito Perez Galdos sought a new narrative structure which would revitalize the literary models prevalent in 19th century Spain He found such a structure in the creation of a dialogue between normally incompatible texts between old and new national and foreign high culture and low From the confrontation of these incongruous texts a narrative is born which through the destruction of textual hierarchies creates an ambiguous and often duplicitous texture of storytelling Five paradigms based upon five Novelas Contemporaneas are used to exemplify the dialogical structure of the new Galdosian novel The Miao Manuscript of Benito Pérez Galdós Robert J. Weber, 1964 The Krausist Movement and Ideological Change in Spain, 1854-1874 Juan López-Morillas, 1981-04-09 This is a definitive study of a major intellectual movement of nineteenth century Spain the harmonic rationalism of Karl Christian Friedrich Krause 1781 1832 Professor L pez Morillas clearly outlines the Krausist philosophy dedicated to an ideal of universal brotherhood and its relevance to Spain where it had an unexpectedly powerful influence
