Gangland Cultural Elites And The New Generationalism:

Gangland Mark Davis, 1999 Revised edition of Gangland including three new chapters 20 000 words Gangland Mark Davis, 1997 An engaging analysis of the monopoly of baby boomer ideals and assumptions among Australia's cultural elites Gangland: The Revised Edition Mark Davis, 1999-07-01 Panics over the culture wars political correctness and victim feminism rap music ecstasy and body piercings our cultural landscape is currently peppered with examples of a desperately backward looking stasis and a fearful hanging on In Gangland Mark Davis analyses the dated ideals and assumptions of Australia's cultural establishment and their near monopoly on cultural debate Who are these people What do they do How is their influence affecting public forums and the media Where does that leave the young people of today Davis's irreverent prose cuts across the moral panics and anxieties that characterise Australian culture to detect a deep seated fear of change a fear that is often expressed as hostility towards youth Gangland names names and maps networks laying bare the discrepancies between reality and the images peddled by some of Australia's most popular thinkers questioning the ideas that have characterised Australia in the nineties Deserves to become a manifesto for a disenfranchised generation Australian Financial Review Finally somebody on the side of late teens and twentysomethings in Australia a brilliant argument of a book Adrian Smart Cream Gangland has sparked a valuable debate one which I've been looking forward to for years Kathy Bail Australian Book Review From ACT UP to the WTO Benjamin Shepard, Ronald Hayduk, 2002-08-17 This anthology offers a history of ACT UP for a new generation of activists and students Divided into five sections it explores the innovative use of civil rights era non violent disobedience media work and race and community building Rethinking Class Fiona Devine, Mike Savage, John Scott, Rosemary Crompton, 2017-09-15 Edited by leading British sociologists of stratification this book advances contemporary debates in class analysis It draws on current theoretical debates in sociology and considers the implications of the cultural turn for the study of class It brings together the very latest empirical work on contemporary topics such as culture identities and lifestyles undertaken by researchers from Britain Germany the Netherlands and Australia It will be required reading for those committed to pushing the boundaries of class and stratification in new and exciting directions around the world Girls Catherine Driscoll, 2002-08-21 The Spice Girls Tank Girl comicbooks Sailor Moon Courtney Love Grrl Power do such things really constitute a unique girl culture Catherine Driscoll begins by identifying a genealogy of girlhood or feminine adolescence and then argues that both girls and culture as ideas are too problematic to fulfill any useful role in theorizing about the emergence of feminine adolescence in popular culture She relates the increasing public visibility of girls in western and westernized cultures to the evolution and expansion of theories about feminine adolescence in fields such as psychoanalysis sociology anthropology history and politics Presenting her argument as a Foucauldian genealogy Driscoll discusses the ways in which young women have been involved in the production and consumption of theories and representations of girls feminine adolescence and the girl market Shaping the Future

,2007-01-01 World wide the production of teachers has become a sharp political issue during the early years of the twenty first century Current systems for ensuring a supply of capable and knowledgeable teachers have come sustained under attack from politicians economists parents organisations and social critics alike There is less agreement now about teacher education than in any time over the pass fifty years Much of the debate in the public and political arenas has been driven by narrow and expedient consideration and too much of it demonstrates a poor grasp of the deep and complex issues which teacher education in a democracy must confront At the same time there has been a serious educational debate which has focused on what a well trained teacher ought to be able to do and what methods of training and education can produce competent teachers The chapters of this book address these issues in a critical way asking what should the objectives of teacher education be The authors demonstrate the international reach of the debate over teacher education and they ground their discussions within the national contexts of their own experience All the authors share the view that teacher education involves much more than acquiring a set of skills and techniques Important as these are the well trained teacher needs for example to have an understanding of the contexts of teaching of the reasons why we teach of the role of schools as institutions within political environments as well as a coherent perspective on curriculum and the relevant bodies of theory which give overall point to what is being done What teacher education entails will probably never be beyond contestation at least not so long as it takes place within capitalist democracies These democracies with their tensions running between liberal ideals and economic imperative push and pull teacher education in contradictory directions At present educational ideals seems too quickly and too dogmatically to be traded for immediate fiscal policy The authors of these chapters articulate the reasons why such short term thinking will be detrimental to any approach to teacher education which commits itself to producing well rounded and comprehensively professional teachers

Youth, Sexuality and Sexual Citizenship Peter Aggleton, Rob Cover, Deana Leahy, Daniel Marshall, Mary Lou Rasmussen, 2018-10-10 Sexual citizenship is a powerful concept associated with debates about recognition and exclusion agency respect and accountability For young people in general and for gender and sexually diverse youth in particular these debates are entangled with broader imaginings of social transitions from child to adult and from unreasonable subject to one who can consent This international and interdisciplinary collection identifies and locates struggles for recognition and inclusion in particular contexts and at particular moments in time recognising that sexual and gender diverse young people are neither entirely vulnerable nor self reliant Focusing on the numerous domains in which debates about youth sexuality and citizenship are enacted and contested Youth Sexuality and Sexual Citizenship explores young people s experiences in diverse but linked settings in the family at school and in college in employment in social media and through engagement with health services Bookended by reflections from Jeffrey Weeks and Susan Talburt the book s empirically grounded chapters also engage with the key debates outlined in it s scholarly introduction This innovative book is of interest to students and scholars of gender and sexuality health and sex education and reconsiders how the debate played out in the Australian print media Analysing texts as diverse as feature articles and opinion pieces non fiction by young feminists letters to the editor celebrity feminist profiles and articles as well as The First Stone itself this book offers the first in depth analysis of this debate as a media event Refusing to adopt either a condemnatory or celebratory approach to the complex relationship between feminism and media culture it argues that the First Stone media event is indicative of the limitations and the opportunities proffered by the mediatisation of contemporary feminism Mediating Australian Feminism provides insights that will be valuable to scholars interested in feminism journalism and news culture literary reception and the politics of media representation Republics of Letters Peter Kirkpatrick, Professor Robert Dixon, 2018-08-30 Republics of Letters Literary Communities in Australia is the first book to explore the notion of literary community or literary sociability in relation to Australian literature Pedagogy and Human Movement Richard Tinning, 2009-09-10 Pedagogy and Human Movement explores the pedagogies of human movement and how they re produce knowledge related to physical activity the body and health This is an essential read for all interested in the teaching or studying of human movement studies Emergent Identities Rob Cover, 2018-09-13 Examining the emergence of new sexual and gender identities in the context of an ever changing digital landscape Emergent Identities considers how traditional binary understandings of sexuality and gender are being challenged and overridden by a taxonomy of non binary fluid classifications and descriptors In this comprehensive account of the ongoing shift in our understandings of gender and sexuality Cover explores how and why traditional masculine feminine and hetero homo dichotomies are quickly being replaced with identity labels such as heteroflexible bigender non binary asexual sapiosexual demisexual ciswoman and transcurious Drawing on real world data Cover considers how new ways of perceiving relationships attraction and desire are contesting authorised institutional knowledge on gender and sexuality The book explores the role that digital communication practices have played in these developments and considers the implications of these new approaches for identity individuality creativity media healthcare and social belonging A timely response to recent developments in the field of gender identity this will be a fascinating read for students of Psychology Gender Studies Media and Cultural Studies and related areas as well as professionals in this field Research Methodologies for Auto/biography Studies Kate Douglas, Ashley Barnwell, 2019-06-03 This collection of short essays provides a rigorous rich collaborative space in which scholars and practitioners debate the value of different methodological approaches to the study of life narratives and explore a diverse range of interdisciplinary methods Auto biography studies has been one of the most vibrant sub disciplines to emerge in the humanities and social sciences in the past decade providing significant links between disciplines including literary studies languages linguistics digital humanities medical humanities creative writing history gender studies education sociology and anthropology The essays in this collection position auto biography as a key discipline for modelling interdisciplinary approaches to methodology and ask what original and important thinking can auto biography studies bring to discussions of methodology for literary studies and beyond And how does the diversity of methodological interventions in auto biography studies build a strong and diverse research discipline In including some of auto biography s leading international scholars alongside emerging scholars and exploring key subgenres and practices this collection showcases knowledge about what we do when engaging in auto biographical research Research Methodologies for Auto biography Studies offers a series of case studies that explore the research practices reflective behaviours and ethical considerations that inform auto biographical research Culture in Australia Tony Bennett,David Carter,2001-09-03 A 2001 survey of the changing policies and priorities that are evident in a range of contemporary cultural institutions in Australia Polyculturalism and Discourse Anja Schwarz,Russell

West-Pavlov,2007 This volume gathers together research by ten scholars engaging with multicultural discourse in Australia and Germany The term polyculturalism rather than multiculturalism is employed deliberately to re open a space in which the workings of discourse on culturally diverse societies both as archive or practice and as intervention can be considered in greater depth The inter cultural perspective and wide range of disciplinary affiliations exhibited by the essays in this volume contribute to this goal whereas the majority of discourse analytical work addresses the diversity of speaking positions as well as the arbitrariness of ascribed meanings within a historical framework delimited by national boundaries and disciplinary boundaries the texts collected here transgress this perspective in working comparatively between Australia and Germany

Subverting Masculinity ,2021-08-04 Contemporary Western societies are currently witness to a crisis of masculinity but also to an intriguing diversification of images of masculinity Once relatively stable regimes of masculine gender representation appear to have been replaced by a wider spectrum of varieties of masculine lifestyles taken up by the media and the market to produce new and immensely flexible forms consumerised gender hegemony The essays in Subverting Masculinity concentrate on contemporary film literature and diverse forms of popular culture The essays show that the subversion of traditional images of masculinity is both a source of gender contestation but may equally be susceptible to assimilation by new hegemonic configurations of masculinity Subverting Masculinity maps out the ongoing relevance of gender politics in contemporary culture but also raises the question of increasingly unclear distinctions between hegemonic and subversive versions of masculinity in contemporary cultural production Subverting Masculinity will be of interest to students and teachers of gender cultural film and literary studies After The Celebration Ken Gelder,Paul

Salzman,2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia s bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become
