Black Dahlia Avenger Steve Hodel,2012-06-20 More than fifty years after what has been called the most notorious unsolved murder of the 20th century the case has finally been solved On January 15 1947 the body of beautiful 22 year old Elizabeth Short dubbed the Black Dahlia because of her black clothing and the dahlia she wore in her hair was discovered on a vacant lot in downtown Los Angeles her body surgically bisected horribly mutilated and posed as if for display Even the most hardened homicide detectives were shocked and sickened by the sadistic murder Thus began the largest manhunt in LA history For weeks the killer taunted the police and public much as his infamous English counterpart Jack the Ripper had done in London 60 years before sending tantalizing notes urging them to catch me if you can And for weeks and months the LAPD came up empty Charges of police ineptitude soon gave way to rumors of corruption and cover up at the highest levels Meanwhile a rash of lone women in LA were brutally murdered and their cases also remained mysteriously unsolved Could the Black Dahlia Avenger be in fact a serial killer stalking the city streets

Narrative and Discursive Approaches in Entrepreneurship Chris Steyaert, 2005-01-01 the four books comprising the series would certainly be a valuable addition to any entrepreneurship library However each book also stands alone as an individual purchase Lorraine Warren International Journal of Entrepreneurial Behaviour and Research The book delivers what it promises a map of the uses of narrative methods in entrepreneurship studies It is both an interesting contribution to the field and an important methodological handbook for all entrepreneurship researchers who are thinking of adopting qualitative methods in their inquiries However it may also be read with advantage by other researchers using ethnography as their main methodological approach to social studies The aim of the book is to show how narratives can enrich entrepreneurship studies a goal that in my opinion is aptly fulfilled Monika Kostera Scandinavian Journal of Management the contributors in this text breathe fresh and imaginative linguistic resources and narrative discursive frames of reference into the inquiry of entrepreneurial activities The anecdote the narrative the metaphorical the discursive and the dramaturgical are significant therefore not only because they bring to the surface voices emotions processes and the relationality of everyday entrepreneurial activity that have possibly been previously silenced But also to paraphrase Steyaert these approaches highlight the controversial and interactive aspects of the research process The text is welcome because it treats narrative in a serious and scholarly way Denise Fletcher International Small Business Journal In their edited book Narrative and Discursive Approaches in Entrepreneurship Daniel Hjorth and Chris Steyaert provide a fascinating glimpse into a perspective on entrepreneurship that will be enlightening for many readers Entrepreneurship authors typically talk about theory methods and data as if a straight forward linear process united them all and making sense of entrepreneurship was simply a matter of knowing how to interpret one's findings By contrast the authors in this volume propose narrative and discursive approaches in which the contributing authors emphasize rich description reflexive conceptualization and interpretations offered as part of the story itself They draw upon an international set of cases including Russia Sweden Denmark Norway Venezuela and North America The cases themselves make for fascinating reading quite apart from what we learn about the difficulties of imposing a particular interpretation on a given story For example taxi drivers in Caracas management consultants in Denmark and women entrepreneurs in northern Norway all make for fascinating narratives from which to understand the entrepreneurial process Unlike many edited books which have no plot the editors have included opening and closing sections that link the chapters offer alternative readings of them and propose new and expansive ways of thinking about entrepreneurship Howard Aldrich University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill US Daniel Hjorth and Chris Steyaert set out to advance the study of entrepreneurship by refocusing the lens of discovery from economics management and marketing to other paradigmatic stances in social sciences and humanities like anthropology and literary studies The result is a provocative collection of chapters that inspire the reader to consider and explore new ideas and research practice that incorporate both the context and place of entrepreneurship From the perceptive insights of the editors to the rigorous and provocative discourse of the chapters and thoughtful responses in the conclusion emerges a story in the best of storytelling tradition about how a linguistic turn can rouse new insights The editors ask how do these texts move you they entice provoke challenge stimulate and guide Their implications should be far reaching and required reading for any student of t
