The Ganja Complex Ansley Hamid, 2002-01-01 In The Ganja Complex Ansley Hamid skillfully welds together two decades of ethnographic research on marijuana in the Caribbean and the United States Hamid juxtaposes an in depth study of the spread of Rastafari in the 1970s with an examination of the rise of an international marijuana economy This revisionist work departs radically from previous scholarship by identifying Rastafari not as a messianic or millenarian cult but as a participant in the essential functions of a community's overall economic life It demonstrates how Rastafari has revitalized third world economies using indigenous resources capital and talent and documents the internationalization of the 5000 year old Asian pattern of marijuana use centered about worship of the Hindu god Shiva that is the ganja complex Caribbean Drugs Axel Klein, Marcus Day, Anthony Harriott, 2013-07-18 The Caribbean poses a significant drugs problem for the UK and the US as the recent phenomenon of yardie gangs in British cities graphically illustrates But in the islands themselves ganja crack cocaine and the policies to control them have become as this book demonstrates a veritable social disaster The authors who are among the leading local researchers and engaged professionals in the region as well as the former regional head of the UN Drugs Control Programme bring together new research investigations insightful policy analysis and practical experience of on the ground interventions putting demand reduction into practice The dimensions of the illicit drugs market in the Caribbean are made clear The origins of the problem lie in part it is argued with the impact of neoliberal economic policies that have opened up the region's borders and gravely undermined its traditional sources of employment and exports like bananas and sugar The islands in part under external US pressure have adopted a region wide policy of criminalization This has involved the creation of specialized drug courts and serious human and social consequences as a result of criminalizing traditional cultural practices around ganja consumption Fascinating light is thrown on the difficulties facing drug abuse and rehabilitation centres and the dilemmas they throw up Harm reduction as a fundamentally alternative approach to the drugs problem is also explored This is the first book to examine the experiences of Caribbean countries since they adopted a coordinated approach to the drugs problem There are valuable lessons to be learned at both policy and practical levels for other countries and in particular those like the UK and US with large Caribbean populations

Marihuana: First report United States. Commission on Marihuana and Drug Abuse, 1972 Perspectives on the History of Psychoactive Substance Use Gregory A. Austin, 1979 Drugs and Security in the Caribbean Ivelaw Lloyd Griffith, 2010-11-01 Research Issues, 1978 Cannabis Lucas Richert, Jim Mills, 2021-08-03 Cannabis consumption commerce and control in global history from the nineteenth century to the present day This book gathers together authors from the new wave of cannabis histories that has emerged in recent decades It offers case studies from Africa Asia the Americas Europe and the Middle East It does so to trace a global history of the plant and its preparations arguing that Western colonialism shaped and disseminated ideas in the nineteenth century that came to drive the international control regimes of the twentieth. More recently the emergence of commercial interests in cannabis has been central to the challenges that have undermined that cannabis consensus. Throughout the determination of people around the world to consume substances made from the plant has defied efforts to stamp them out and often transformed the politics and cultures of using them. These texts also suggest that globalization might have a cannabis history. The migration of consumers, the clandestine networks established to supply them, and international cooperation on control may have driven much of the interconnectedness that is a key feature of the contemporary world. Rural Poverty in Jamaica, A Reference Bibliography ,

The Praeger International Collection on Addictions Angela Brownemiller Ph.D., 2009-04-30 Only the very rare among us are completely unscathed by the effects of addiction: our own, that of a family member, friend, or coworker. Even the addictions of strangers, from the drunk driver or drug addict to gambling, food spending, or violence, addicted people may subject us to dangers threaten our well being and drain money from our pockets. Recent national estimates in just the US show that substance abuse and addiction alone cost taxpayers a total of nearly 500 billion a year. In these volumes experts from around the world present the newest issues, research, and insights into addictions of all kinds. Led by Angela Browne Miller, Director of the Metaxis Compulsive and Habitual Behaviors Institute in California, this team of contributors includes scholars and practitioners from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Sweden, Thailand, Africa, and Russia. Topics range from drug addiction among male, female, teen, and aging populations, and among White, Hispanic, Black, Asian, Native American, and other groups, using liquor, cocaine, methamphetamine, khat, and/or other lesser known drugs, to behavioral addictions including online gaming, excessive buying, and eating disorders. Chapters also address issues including addiction as a public health problem and the politics of drug treatment policies. Treatment methods for addictions, from electrotherapy to holistic approaches, are addressed, as are spiritual, psychological, and cross-cultural issues involved. The experts behind these chapters include those from the University of California, Berkeley, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, and Purdue University to McGill University, Nottingham Trent University, and the All India Institute of Medical Sciences. Forces of Habit David T.

COURTWRIGHT, 2009-06-30 A global history of the acquisition of progressively more potent means of altering ordinary waking consciousness, this book is the first to provide the big picture of the discovery, interchange, and exploitation of the planet's psychoactive resources, from tea and kola to opiates and amphetamines. Prohibition's Greatest Myths Michael Lewis, Richard Hamm, 2020-04-01 The word prohibition tends to conjure up images of smoky basement speakeasies, dancing flappers, and hardened gangsters bootlegging whiskey. Such stereotypes a prominent historian recently noted in the Washington Post confirm that Americans' common understanding of the prohibition era is based more on folklore than fact. Popular culture has given us a very strong and very wrong picture of what the period was like. Prohibition's Greatest Myths: The Distilled Truth about America's Anti-Alcohol Crusade aims to correct common misperceptions with ten essays by scholars.

who have spent their careers studying different aspects of the era Each contributor unravels one myth revealing the historical evidence that supports complicates or refutes our long held beliefs about the Eighteenth Amendment H Paul Thompson Jr Joe L Coker Lisa M F Andersen and Ann Marie E Szymanski examine the political and religious factors in early twentieth century America that led to the push for prohibition including the temperance movement the influences of religious conservatism and liberalism the legislation of individual behavior and the lingering effects of World War I From there several contributors analyze how the laws of prohibition were enforced Michael Lewis discredits the idea that alcohol consumption increased during the era while Richard F Hamm clarifies the connections between prohibition and organized crime and Thomas R Pegram demonstrates that issues other than the failure of prohibition contributed to the amendment's repeal Finally contributors turn to prohibition's legacy Mark Lawrence Schrad Garrett Peck and Bob L Beach discuss the reach of prohibition beyond the United States the influence of anti alcohol legislation on Americans longterm drinking habits and efforts to link prohibition with today's debates over the legalization of marijuana Together these essays debunk many of the myths surrounding the Noble Experiment not only providing a more in depth analysis of prohibition but also allowing readers to engage more meaningfully in contemporary debates about alcohol and drug policy

This timely volume emphasizes the relevance of current basic research to the clinical management of the substance abuser. The African Roots of Marijuana Chris S. Duvall, 2019-05-09. After arriving from South Asia approximately a thousand years ago, cannabis quickly spread throughout the African continent. European accounts of cannabis in Africa often fictionalized and relied upon racial stereotypes, shaped widespread myths about the plant, and were used to depict the continent as a cultural backwater and Africans as predisposed to drug use. These myths continue to influence contemporary thinking about cannabis. In The African Roots of Marijuana, Chris S. Duvall corrects common misconceptions while providing an authoritative history of cannabis as it flowed into, throughout, and out of Africa. Duvall shows how preexisting smoking cultures in Africa transformed the plant into a fast-acting and easily dosed drug, and how it later became linked with global capitalism and the slave trade. People often used cannabis to cope with oppressive working conditions under colonialism, as a recreational drug, and in religious and political movements. This expansive look at Africa's importance to the development of human knowledge about marijuana will challenge everything readers thought they knew about one of the world's most ubiquitous plants. Why Drug Wars Fail, Volume One Glenn Robinette, 2012-02. A study of prohibitions: why they fail, how they begin, what causes them, who benefits, the methods, and the results. Drug wars are not only failures; they are counterproductive and are associated with regime change. They are motivated by political jealousy, social disruption, bad medicine, economic greed, and religious hysteria.
