From the Ashes Sarah Jaffe, 2024-09-10 The politics of grief in an era marked by loss shows us how we can find our humanity once more From one of our most vital and far seeing social critics Our era is one of significant and substantial loss yet we barely have time to acknowledge it The losses range from the personal grief of a single COVID death to the planetary disaster wrought by climate change We are in an age of unraveling hopes and expectations of dreams curtailed of aspirations desiccated What can we do This is capitalism s death phase It has become clear that the cost of wealth creation for a few is enormous destruction for others The marginalized and the vulnerable have been feeling the crisis for a long time but it is increasingly coming for all of us At the same time we are denied the means of mourning the futures that are being so brutally curtailed At such a moment taking the time to grieve is a radical act Through in depth reporting intertwined with memoir Sarah Jaffe shows how public memorialization has become more than a refusal or a protest it is a path to imagining a better world When we are able to mourn the lives the homes the worlds we have lost we are better prepared to fight for a transformed future
