British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright,Catherine May Gordon,2006-01-01

This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting.

Reflections on British Royalty Jennifer J. Purcell, Fiona Courage, 2024-02-22. In this original volume Jennifer J. Purcell and Fiona Courage curate and contextualize the rich archival materials of social research organisation Mass Observation on the British popular imagination of the monarchy and the royal family between 1937 and 2022. From the coronation of George VI in 1937 to Elizabeth II's death via war weddings a jubilee and a tragedy this book incorporates everything from diaries and detailed responses to questionnaires internal organisational documents and published reports on popular attitudes to royalty in order to reveal the complex nature of Britain's relationship with its monarchy in the modern era. How does the British public imagine the monarchy and its role in British society and governance? What is the relationship between the British people and the Crown? Using material from Mass Observation which has been asking these questions for over 80 years Reflections on British Royalty gets to the heart of these issues and more besides.
