Epistolarity in a Post-Letter World Sindija Franzetti, 2024-11-18 The study intervenes in a field hitherto dominated by formal and historical analyses of the literary letter Across the five case studies the method of reading epistolarity as a motif is applied to a selection of American novels published after 1990 Nick Bantock's Griffin Lish and Dunn test the limitations of letters for conveying individual experience to a distant other Robinson and Erdrich envision epistolarity as an address to a future Exploring the employment of epistolarity as a motif the study offers an interpretation of the messages these fictions extend for readers in a post letter world Communication technologies and practices may change but epistolarity as a motif a reprise of a scene of encounter that depends on keeping a distance between addresser and addressee remains a deeply compelling site of inquiry in twenty first century literature Translation and Repetition Ma Carmen África Vidal Claramonte,2023-07-13 Translation and Repetition Rewriting Un original Literature offers a new and original perspective in translation studies by considering creative repetition from the perspective of the translator This is done by analyzing so called unoriginal literature and thus expanding the definition of translation In Western thought repetition has long been regarded as something negative as a kind of cliché stereotype or automatism that is the opposite of creation On the other hand in the eyes of many contemporary philosophers from Wittgenstein and Derrida to Deleuze and Guattari repetition is more about difference It involves rewriting stories initially told in other contexts so that they acquire a different perspective In this sense repeating is often a political act Repetition is a creative impulse for the making of what is new Repetition as iteration is understood in this book as an action that recognizes the creative and critical potential of copying The author analyzes how our time understands originality and authorship differently from past eras and how the new philosophical ways of approaching repetition imply a new way of understanding the concept of originality and authorship Deconstruction of these notions also implies subverting the traditional ways of approaching translation This is vital reading for all courses on literary translation comparative literature and literature in translation within translation studies and literature Check These Out Gina Sheridan,2015-07-03 Discover a librarian's secret stash of great reads We've all been there in the library head tilted sideways doing our best to navigate a blur of spines and titles to find one worth reading Luckily the hunt is over Librarian author and book devourer Gina Sheridan has sorted through the stacks to compile a list of read worthy titles you may have skipped over in your search Check These Out is her secret stash of books that have captivated her mind and soul throughout the years Inside she reveals a wide range of extraordinary yet uncommon stories that will completely change the way you view the world from Michael Dorris's A Yellow Raft in Blue Water to Herman Melville's The Confidence Man: His Masquerade After each suggestion Sheridan offers a hilariously clever summary as well as surprising details about the book or author Complete with a checklist to keep track of the titles you've read Check These Out will help you discover a whole new world of literature you won't believe you missed 101 Great, Ready-to-Use Book Lists for Teens Nancy J.
