Tropical Nature Guillaume Blanc, Mathieu Guérin, Grégory Quenet, 2025-03-01 Across Africa and South East Asia the impulse to protect nature often dovetails with the domination of local people From mass displacement to severe restrictions on land use and daily acts of violence conservation work risks reproducing Eurocentric modes of colonialism and worsening the effects of the climate crisis In this insightful and wide ranging study of the colonial history of conservation Tropical Nature seeks to provide a much needed history of the Global South from its own perspective Comparing case studies ranging from Ali Bongo's Gabon to the postcolonial African itinerary of the agronomist Arthur Bunting this volume advances a small scale global history that deciphers the relations binding human societies to the non human world

Infertility and the Creative Spirit Roxane Head Dinkin, Robert J. Dinkin, 2011 Roxane Head Dinkin PhD a clinical psychologist practicing in Bradenton Florida who has long dealt with the problems of infertile women and history professor Robert J Dinkin have created an informative book showcasing seven prominent women who struggled with infertility and became creative powerhouses in a variety of fields Unable to have children themselves the Dinkins utilized their combined expertise and discovered how these seven women had worked through their infertility issues and honed their creativity to more fully utilize their talents Juliette Low founder of the Girl Scouts of the USA Joy Adamson wildlife conservationist and author of Born Free Josephine Baker entertainer and adoptive mother of twelve Frida Kahlo innovative artist Emma Goldman anarchist and birth control advocate Ruth Benedict leading anthropologist Marilyn Monroe film star and sexual icon Infertility produces a profound loss for women who hold the expectation that they will reproduce Infertility and the Creative Spirit clearly illustrates the connection between the desire and inability to have children and lasting accomplishments in other areas of life showing how infertile women contribute to the next generation

Game Changer Glen Martin, 2012-03-30 Are conservation and protecting animals the same thing In Game Changer award winning environmental reporter Glen Martin takes a fresh look at this question as it applies to Africa's megafauna Martin assesses the rising influence of the animal rights movement and finds that the policies championed by animal welfare groups could lead paradoxically to the elimination of the very species including elephants and lions that are the most cherished In his anecdotal and highly engaging style Martin takes readers to the heart of the conflict He revisits the debate between conservationists who believe that people whose lives are directly impacted by the creation of national parks and preserves should be compensated versus those who believe that restrictive protection that forbids hunting is the most effective way to conserve wildlife and habitats Focusing on the different approaches taken by Kenya Tanzania and Namibia Martin vividly shows how the world's last great populations of wildlife have become the hostages in a fight between those who love animals and those who would save them

Africa's Big Five and Other Wildlife Filmmakers Jean Hartley, 2010 Jean Hartley born in Kenya is acknowledged as being the first to legitimise fixing for wildlife film crews Over the last 25 years she has worked on over a thousand films the vast majority being about wildlife and nature She features five of the great film makers who all started their careers in Kenya in the 1950s legends whom she is proud to call personal friends Watching all of their films and many more she became fascinated by the history of film making in Kenya and determined to find out when it all started In this insightful book she traces the roots of wildlife film back a hundred years drawing on accounts of the original film makers and the professional hunters who guided those early safaris She tracks the changes from those grainy speeded up silent films through to the technologically perfect High Definition and 3D films that are being made today
