A Serpentine Gesture Elisabeth W. Joyce,2024-12-15 In A Serpentine Gesture John Ashbery s Poetry and Phenomenology Elisabeth W Joyce examines John Ashbery s poetry through the lens of Maurice Merleau Ponty s conception of phenomenology For Merleau Ponty perception is a process through which people reach outside of themselves for sensory information map that experiential information against what they have previously encountered and what is culturally inculcated in them and articulate shifts in their internal repositories through encounters with new material Joyce argues that this process reflects Ashbery s classic statement of poetry being the experience of experience Through incisive close readings of Ashbery s poems Joyce examines how he explores this process of continual reverberation between what is sensed and what is considered about that sensation and ultimately how he renders these perceptions into the serpentine gesture of language
