Embarking On The Way A Guide To Western Taoism:

Embarking on the Way Solala Towler, 1998-04 Embarking On The Way is especially designed to present the fascinating world of Taoist philosophy and practice to Western readers Written in a simple and down to earth manner it encompasses a wide range of Taoist studies from the classical teachings of Lao Tzu and Chuang Tzu to the Tat of sex and relationship It is purposefully written in a non scholarly fashion to appeal to readers who are interested in non religious Taoism and how it works for Western practitioners Unlike other spiritual philosophies there is nothing to join no vows to take no special diet to follow and there is no need to let go of your own personal religion or spiritual path to benefit from the teachings and practices of Tao Embarking On The Way offers the Taoist philosophy and then allows the reader to choose which parts of the program he or she wishes to follow Religious Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy Frank De Piano, Ashe

Mukherjee, Scott Mitchel Kamilar, Lynne M Hagen, Elaine Hartsman, R. Paul Olson, 2012-12-06 Integrate spiritual traditions with psychological healing In this fascinating volume clinical practitioners of different religious traditions examine the same clinical case offering insights interventions and explanations of transformation and healing This practical approach allows them to explore broader issues of personality theory and psychology from the perspectives of various spiritual traditions Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Judaism Christianity and Islam Religious Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy addresses both the practical issues of doing psychotherapy and the deeper need to relate psychology and theology After providing a thorough introduction to the spiritual tradition each author presents a critical psychological theory of personality and psychotherapy grounded in that tradition The authors address the questions of what it means to be a person what causes human distress and how individuals experience healing Religious Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy offers profound insights into the urgent issues of human suffering and psychological transformation including theories of personality structure and human motivation the nature of experience and processes of change the dialectical relation of theology and psychology convergences and difference among the religious psychologies Marrying theory and practice spirit and psyche Religious Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy offers profound insights and effective interventions Mental health professionals clergy and scholars in religion cross cultural studies personality counseling and psychotherapy will find this breakthrough book a life changing experience and an invaluable resource Nurturing a Daoist-Inspired Classroom

Pedagogy Through the Contemplative Lenses of Teacher Diaries David McLachlan Jeffrey, 2024-08-01 The harmonizing influence of ancient Daoist philosophy is of much relevance to the world in which we live today and this is especially so in the field of global education Among the growing numbers of contemporary teachers and scholars who nurture Daoist wisdom in their classrooms this book takes the unique pathway of considering its applications through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries Its South African born author has taught academic English for over three decades in Japan the Middle East and the People's Republic of China Since early childhood he has infused his fascination for Daoist wisdom with his enjoyment of writing diaries and in ways that derive insights into the compassionate frugal and humble foundations of Daoist inspired pedagogies within contemporary classroom environments This book presents Daoist wisdom in terms of it being the Supreme Ultimate of all ways It introduces the classical Daoist texts of the Laozi the Zhuangzi and the Liezi and shares a short historical overview of Daoism with its growing global influence As such it emphasizes that Daoist inspired pedagogies encourage a delicate balance between intuitive insights and intellectual analysis and in ways that are not antagonistic toward each other but which dance together as one In this regard the role of meditation during the undertaking of diaries is specifically highlighted concerning its propensity to bring one into the present moment pacify racing thoughts and transcend the ego It also shows how a meditative state of mind that accompanies the reading writing and analysis of the diary entries contributes to deeper self discernment along with unique intuitive insights related to oneself as a teacher and the classroom environment In addition this book describes how the Wordsmith Tools Program and the Book of Changes can be used as additional approaches to analyzing thought patterns within the diary entries and how these also nurture inward contemplations and the intuitive insights that accompany them Thereafter considerations based on the applications of core Daoist principles for classroom pedagogies are filtered through the contemplative lenses of teacher diaries These principles are the unintentional integrity of de the complementary duality of yin yang the cosmic vitality of qi the self so ness of ziran the unforceful spontaneity of wuwei and the unblemished purity of pu This book illustrates through its diary lenses how these six Daoist principles can be nurtured in ways that contribute to a scholarliness that is grounded in an equal appreciation for the logical applications of intelligence along with the uniqueness of intuitive creativity which cannot be explicitly taught but which spontaneously arises from within the deep reservoirs of intuitive wisdom which exist within the true selves of everyone In addition this book shares pearls of Daoist wisdom for teachers from within the poetic chapters of the Laozi as well as within the amusingly enlightening stories in the Zhuangzi and the Liezi such that their ancient teachings can be applied to Daoist inspired pedagogies and nurtured in ways that unite the joyfulness and scholarly efficacy of both teaching and learning It is shown how doing so enhances a sense of awe wonder openness and contemplative oneness within the classroom environment making it a happier more contented and more meaningful place for both teachers and students Elemental
