Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation

Embracing Contemplation John H. Coe, Kyle C. Strobel, 2019-02-26 What does a Christian life lived by the Spirit look like Bringing together Protestant scholars and practitioners of spiritual formation this volume offers a distinctly evangelical consideration of the benefits of contemplation Drawing on historical examples from the church including John Calvin Richard Baxter Jonathan Edwards and John Wesley this book considers how contemplative prayer can shape Christian living today

Listen to Luther Donald E. Demaray, 1989 Martin Luther who stood against the religious establishment of his day also relished the intimacies of family life and the joys of conversation Luther's students often gathered at the dinner table with Martin and Katarina and their family to learn from the great man One of his students John Aurifaber collected Luther's sayings and published them as Table Talk Donald Demaray has drawn from Table Talk for his contemporary paraphrase Listen to Luther

Embracing Our Time Lynn A. Cooper, 2025-05-13 Catholicism entails a challenge The word catholic means universal Yet that universality is expressed through different rites languages jurisdictions and states of life that are unique and concrete Today Catholicism's universality faces a still further challenge It must share the world not only with Protestants of various kinds but also with adherents of other faiths and none In the decades since Vatican II and the promulgation of Nostra Aetate the question of religious difference has itself become more concrete Muslims Jews Buddhists and Hindus live among and alongside Protestants and Catholics in neighborhoods across the globe How does this practical reality square with Catholicism's understanding of itself and its neighbors In Embracing Our Time university chaplain Lynn Cooper provides practical resources for interfaith engagement rooted in a Catholic perspective Drawing on Trinitarian sacramental and feminist theologies Cooper shows that interreligious collaboration is a concrete expression of the interdependence at the heart of Catholic faith Embracing Our Time centers the lived experiences of Catholics and employs theological reflection composite storytelling and spiritual provocations to guide readers on an inner journey inviting them to a deep reading of their lives and communities Cooper empowers lay folks to be conscientious interfaith leaders within their communities and congregations not because they are experts in their tradition but because the Christian call to friendship across and within difference is at the heart of what it means to follow Jesus

Silent No More John Potter, 2022-08-08 Suicide is a leading cause of death More people die from suicide than in all of the combined wars conflicts and natural disasters across the globe Suicide is also an issue that few seem willing to discuss Suicide remains a hidden or taboo topic Stigma culture and theological misunderstanding are contributing factors to this reality Silent No More A Christian Response to Suicide examines how scripture spiritual practices and congregations can address suicide Religion spirituality is frequently listed as a strong protective factor against suicide Years of research studies and literature show that religion spirituality is even stronger when beliefs religious activity and community are engaged to support people at risk of suicide Religion spirituality must be fully integrated into suicide prevention plans and efforts if a total wellness approach of spirit mind and body are to be utilized The book also addresses that Christian congregations must have love soaked people who are ready to provide community and fellowship to hurting people inside and outside of the church doors The author concludes the book with seven steps that will enable congregations and churches leaders to help those who are at risk of suicide These strategies can make simple strides to address suicide and help hurting people in any community It is time for Christian communities to rejoin the battle against suicide Christianity has a rich legacy of caring for people in crisis historically having started hospitals mental health centers and compassionate care ministries There is a way for Christianity to regain its voice and care for people at risk of suicide It is time for Christians to be silent no more

God's Plumb Line Steve Langford, 2021-08-31 In a highly polarized society how are we to know which position on an issue reflects God s will Christians commonly appeal to what the Bible says to determine God s will The Bible says They assume it must be God s will because the Bible says it The Bible does teach us how to know God s will but it points beyond itself to a way of thinking shaped by the Spirit what the book of Colossians calls spiritual wisdom and understanding

We discern God's will by thinking theologically. Knowing God's will requires more than knowing what the Bible says. How to think theologically about what the Bible says is needed. God's character as reflected in Jesus of Nazareth is the key to thinking theologically. In our efforts to know God's will, we Christians must interpret what the Bible says in keeping with who Jesus revealed God to be. We must embrace understandings and positions that reflect the spirit of Jesus. This book presents seven markers grounded in the character of God as revealed in Jesus for understanding what the Bible says so that our understanding reflects the love of God we see in Jesus. Borrowing an image from the prophet Amos, these seven markers make up God's Plumb Line. They outline a way of thinking theologically so that our hearts align with the heart of God and our minds with the mind of Christ.

Embracing Diversity Maureen Miner, Kirsty Beilharz, 2023-07-01 Christian schools and colleges that include spiritual formation and Christian maturity within their mission are facing challenges. The challenge of being a Christian college within a secular society is well recognized. There are intellectual clashes of secular versus religious worldviews to be negotiated and clashes of social imaginaries where habitual ways of responding come into conflict. These challenges are difficult enough for staff of a Christian college when most students have a Christian background and there may be a common language and assumptions. Even more difficult are the challenges faced by Christian staff of a Christian college when most students identify with non-Christian religions. What does a college's mission of forming mature Christians mean when students are largely Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist, Sikh, or other non-Christian faiths? Should staff modify curricula to reduce cognitive clashes? Should teaching practices be changed to reduce the dissonance of different social imaginaries? How can staff draw from Christian values of tolerance and respect to support non-Christian students in their formation of values and ethics while still respecting diversity? This volume draws together the work of scholars and researchers who have pondered the nature, purpose, and means of formation. It offers an analysis of the scope, context, and methods of formation of mature people without denying or downplaying the difficulties of formation. It offers hope that people who are mature in all areas of life, including the spiritual domain, can be formed and urges educators to encompass all domains in their formative work.

Christian Physicalism? , Joshua R. Farris, R. Keith Loftin, 2017-12-26 On the heels of the advance since the twentieth century of wholly physicalist accounts of human persons, the influence of materialist ontology is increasingly evident in Christian theologizing. To date, the contemporary literature has tended to focus on anthropological issues, e.g., whether the traditional soul/body distinction is viable, with occasional articles treating physicalist accounts of such doctrines as the Incarnation and Resurrection of Jesus cropping up as well. Interestingly, the literature to date, both for and against this influence, is dominated by philosophers. The present volume is a collection of philosophers and theologians who advance several novel criticisms of this growing trend toward physicalism in Christian theology. The present collection definitively shows that Christian physicalism has some significant philosophical and theological problems. No doubt all philosophical anthropologies have their challenges, but the present volume shows that Christian physicalism is most likely not an adequate accounting for essential theological topics within Christian theism Christians then should consider alternative anthropologies

Embracing Fear Oscar Garcia-Johnson,2025-08-29 Embracing Fear contends that fear rather than something to medicate can fertilize Spirit powered imagination Around the globe authoritarian populists weaponize dread promising safety through sameness and political conformity one language one wall one flag This fortress mentality echoes Babel s terror of scattering Gen 11 now reinforced by algorithms mass deportations and bombing and competitive authoritarian laws Acts 2 offers a rival script dispersion and migration become Pentecost Refusing polite optimism that postpones liberation until Easter Sunday the book invites readers to dwell in Holy Saturday practicing strategic hopelessness in occupied democracies Grace can flip fear into a discipline that shelters immigrants during ICE raids hosts iftar in church basements and translates worship into the many tongues silenced at Babel Holy terror not manufactured panic sends Mary to sing of toppled thrones and Isaiah to proclaim good news to the poor To embrace such fear is to choose reexistence a Spirit drenched life that scatters boldly and improvises Pentecost wherever Babel erects another wall

Reviving Evangelical Ethics Wyndy Corbin Reuschling,2008-04 This accessible ethics text introduces students to classical models of ethics and evaluates them from a biblical perspective

Profound Awareness Dr. Eric J. Palmu,2025-01-28 Releasing my soul back to God was both frightening and exhilarating The most challenging aspect of release was understanding how the transforming salvation worked My believer s prayer carried a deep sense of freedom for that day The draw of the world made it grow dim My question became why Since that fall afternoon in the late 70s I have studied spiritual formation with one goal n mind to share how intimacy with God works so that you will lead when called

Reading the Christian Spiritual Classics Jamin Goggin,Kyle Strobel,2013-06-05 This new collection of essays edited by Kyle Strobel and Jamin Goggin offers an evangelical hermeneutic for reading the Christian spiritual classics Addressing the why what and how of reading these texts these essays challenge us to find our own questions deepened by the church s long history of spiritual reflection Walk On! Donald Joy,1988-07 Being spiritually minded has less to do with doing the right things than with being the right kind of person While we want to leave our obligations behind to pursue a closer walk with God He most often wants to send us right back into our circumstances to let righteousness do its work there Dr Donald Joy believes that daily life with its duty and vocation is God s main curriculum to bring us to holiness and wholeness Back cover Embracing Grace Scot McKnight,2005-11-01 This fascinating book explains that the gospel is about the restoration of cracked Eikons fallen humans so that humans can be in union with God and in communion with the saints In the candid and lucid style that has made McKnight s The Jesus Creed so appealing to thousands of pastors lay leaders and everyday people who are searching for a more authentic faith he encourages all Christians to recognize the simple yet potentially transforming truth of the gospel message God seeks to restore us to wholeness not only to make us better individuals but to form a community of Jesus a society in which humans strive to be in union with God and in communion with others Missional Spirituality Roger Helland,Leonard Hjalmarson,2012-01-20 If all of the earth is God s domain why are Christians so terribly provincial We rarely leave our church buildings and our spirituality rarely takes us beyond ourselves Veteran church leaders Roger Helland and Leonard Hjalmarson observe that Jesus begins his mission in the temple where he wows the religious elite and chides his parents by saying Didn t you know I had to be in my Father s house But Jesus doesn t stay in the temple indeed in Christ the temple of the Lord is on the move even to the ends of the earth In this book the authors helpfully reconnect spirituality and mission showing you how the spiritual life when lived properly follows a similar progression we come home to Christ loving him from our heart and soul and mind and strength And then we set forth to love our neighbors as ourself Discover how through this process you can reclaim the whole of God s kingdom for his glory and the fulfillment of your heart s longing Embracing Soul Care Stephen W. Smith, Enables individuals to find a deeper sense of self by nurturing their souls focusing on relationships spiritual and personal growth healing and living out God s purpose for their lives Original
