Introduction Cross stitch is one of the easiest and most elegant embroidery arts known to man for millenniums In ancient times it was used to make needlework designs which were beautiful imaginative and creative All one needed was plenty of time and the will to make something beautiful which would be passed on in the family as an heirloom And that is why when I was at school it was necessary for all of us students to learn how to embroider a fine seam do crusted samplers and learn other engine needlework arts and crafts like lace making which were traditionally taught to the nuns in their convents As they were our teachers we learned how to make Irish lace and other needlepoint projects using a large number of stitches like Florentine stitch basket weave stitch Cashmere stitch chain stitch Continental stitch diamond eyelet stitch cross stitch French knots cross stitch trame reverse basket weave stitch mosaic stitch slanting goblin stitch Smyrna stitch straight goblin stitch tent stitch upright cross stitch triple cross stitch tent stitch etc Many of these stitches are traditional and many of them have been forgotten because people really do not have the time energy or the inclination to sit for hours doing embroidery on a hoop like a lady of leisure or like Mary Queen of Scots with her 4 Mary s

her ladies in waiting who were her constant companions at court and during her long years of imprisonment where they just sat quietly throughout the day embroidering pieces of fine art Needlepoint is normally done on canvas which is a sturdy fabric built to last It is an open weave fabric It is used as a basic framework for the stitches that you are going to work into it It is available in a large number of weaves and the sizes are arranged according to the number of threads present vertically per inch Teach Yourself Embroidery Mary Thomas,1951 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library,1983 The School Librarian School Library Association,1976 A Suggested List of Books for Secondary School and Training College Libraries in Ghana Ghana Library Board.
