Pacific Worlds from the Age of Revolution to the Progressive Era These relationships include the controversial courtship between white Connecticut born Harriett Gold and southern Cherokee Elias Boudinot the Australian missionary Ernest Gribble and his efforts to socially segregate the settler and aboriginal population only to be overcome by his romantic impulses for an aboriginal woman Jeannie the irony of Cherokee leader John Ross's marriage to a white woman Mary Brian Stapler despite his opposition to interracial marriages in the Cherokee Nation and the efforts among ordinary people in the imperial borderlands of both the United States and Australia to circumvent laws barring interracial love sex and marriage Illicit Love reveals how marriage itself was used by disparate parties for both empowerment and disempowerment and came to embody the contradictions of imperialism A tour de force of settler colonial history McGrath's study demonstrates vividly how interracial relationships between Indigenous and colonizing peoples were more frequent and threatening to nation states in the Atlantic and Pacific worlds than historians have previously acknowledged The Cherokee Diaspora Gregory D.
